

TEACHER / TUTOR OF GERMAN JOB DESCRIPTION

We are looking for an enthusiastic and motivated native German teacher to teach bilingual children at a Saturday school term time only for one hour (initially then potentially move up to 1 hour 30 minutes). All teachers are responsible for the intellectual, personal, and social development of pupils in their care. The teacher will need to adapt their teaching based on the level and ages of the students.

The teacher will be self-employed. As a member BELingual, the teacher will:

- Teach German across a range of ages and abilities,
- Prepare the lessons and provide handouts to students as and when required,
- Be responsible for the assessment and welfare of the pupils,
- Enable pupils to achieve their best while enjoying the learning,
- Monitor and assess the progress of all pupils,
- Be punctual to lessons at all times,
- Observe all rules on Health and Safety.

As the teacher will be teaching bilingual children it is important the teacher be native speaker and has some prior experience in teaching or tutoring in a classroom setting. It is really important to have an enthusiastic approach to working with children. The successful candidate first point of contact will be the founder of BELingual. If you are interested, please submit your CV to contact@belingualfr.co.uk . Many thanks.
