Ascension of the Lord – June 1

This Feast of the Ascension calls us to be more faithful and generous sharers in the work of God. WE are now entrusted to “go ... and make disciples of all nations”. We have been authorized, commissioned by Jesus to do this – to share in His life and ministry. Today’s Feast gives us an opportunity to look back, and recognize the ways that we are already sharing in the life and ministry of Jesus Christ – and give Him thanks for the love, gifts, blessings and talents He is using to build up the kingdom. And we also look forward, with hope, to new ways that we can share in the life and ministry of Jesus. Pope Francis stated: “Don’t forget this! The Ascension of Jesus into heaven acquaints us with this deeply consoling reality on our journey: in Christ, true God and true man, our humanity was taken to God. Christ opened the path to us. He is like a roped guide climbing a mountain who, on reaching the summit, pulls us up to Him and leads us to God. If we entrust our life to Him, if we let ourselves be guided by Him, we are certain to be in safe hands, in the hands of our Saviour, of our Advocate.”
