Hear His call: We all have heard Jesus' call to Peter, "Feed my sheep." And subconsciously each of us breathes a sigh of relief that the call was not for us. Jesus obviously meant just Peter, not even the other disciples, right? A comfortable but inaccurate idea. Each of us is called to be a shepherd in some way. A parent is a shepherd to their child, a teacher to a student, a priest to a parishioner. A friend can often be a shepherd to a friend for they guide each other. We all share Peter's shepherd-hood in some way for we are all responsible one to another. As Peter watched Jesus to learn how a shepherd cares for His flock, we look to the shepherds in our life to learn as well. We read of Jesus in the Word, of the saints of history or those still here on earth. These signposts point us in the right direction, so that we can grow into the shepherds God needs. And willingly taking the mantle of a shepherd, whatever the size or content of our flock, is a sign of true Christian maturity.						1 10am—Stations of Cross & Rosary 6:30-7:00pm—Reconciliation 7:30 pm—Mass
