Humility and comfort What a joyous and humbling reminder these two feast days are! On All Saints we come face to face with the glorious, godly example of the saints of all ages, who served and sacrificed for our Lord. Who can feel anything but ashamed at our own meager offerings when such a group is displayed? Yet 24 hours later we rejoice in the unity of All Souls. We remember the humbler souls who have passed before and are waiting to be reunited with us at the resurrection. Although we are humbled by the saints, we are comforted by these souls who have gone to their rest, just as we will at the end of our journey.					1 All Saints Day            12:10pm —1st Friday            Mass followed by Adoration 	2            11am Rosary            6:30—7pm            Reconciliation            7:30pm Mass
