What would you do for LGBTQ+ people in your political area?
I would treat everyone with the same amount of dignity and respect, regardless of their sexual orientation.

What would you do to for LGBTQ students?
I would make sure LGBTQ students feel welcome in our schools and have the support and resources they need.

How would you vote on policies or laws regarding books in schools with LGBTQ+ characters?

I think it is important for LGBTQ students to have access to age-appropriate books in school that their own perspectives.

Would you vote for a policy or law similar to the Florida Don't Say Gay Bill or NC HB 755 at the school, state, or other government level?

No

Please explain your answer.

There's nothing wrong with explaining to a kindergartner what a gay person is. And u don't think those classroom exchanges should be dictated by legislators in Raleigh looking to score cheap political points.

Would you vote for a city, state, or state anti-discrimination ordinance or law that covers the protected classes including sexual orientation and gender identity (LGBTQ+) people?

Yes

Please explain your answer.

LGBTQ people should be able to go about their lives like everyone else, without fear of getting harassed or discriminated against.

How would you vote if Marriage or Relationship Equality becomes a state or local issue?

For

Please explain your answer.

LGBTQ people should have the same rights to get married as everyone else.

Please explain your current and past actions towards the LGBTQ+ community.

I've never held political office before, so I've never been in a official position to support the LGBTQ community, but I have long supported equality and inclusiveness for all people, including those who are LGBTQ.

I plan to attend the Candidate Meet-up.
