What would you do for LGBTQ+ people in your political area?

Ensure that we are working as a county to support LGBTQ+ students so that they feel connected and cared for in their community.

What would you do to for LGBTQ students?

I want to work to ensure our county has policies that support LGBTQ+ students in healthy ways including the ability to have after school clubs and events geared towards LGBTQ+ students.

How would you vote on policies or laws regarding books in schools with LGBTQ+ characters?

I believe that representation of all kinds of families and lifestyles is important in literature for students.

Would you vote for a policy or law similar to the Florida Don't Say Gay Bill or NC HB 755 at the school, state, or other government level?

No

Please explain your answer.

I believe policies like this are intended to cause harm to the LGBTQ+ communities and should never have a place in our society.

Would you vote for a city, state, or state anti-discrimination ordinance or law that covers the protected classes including sexual orientation and gender identity (LGBTQ+) people?

Yes

How would you vote if Marriage or Relationship Equality becomes a state or local issue?

For

Please explain your current and past actions towards the LGBTQ+ community.

I have supported the LGBTQ+ community since I was a child. My grandfather is openly gay as well as some of my cousins. It was never a question of accepting them for me. I work hard to make sure any event I throw or attend are inclusive and that there is support for the LGBTQ+ community. I also advocated for better support for LGBTQ+ students when I was a UCPS employee.

Please tell us anything else you would like the public to know about you and the LGBTQ+ community.

My goal is to help support and uplift the LGBTQ+ community while working to put policies in place that help support LGBTQ+ students in our community.

I plan to attend the Candidate Meet-up.

Yes
