

Waiting on God

A 4 Day Devotional

S. Pinard

Day 1

What Am I Waiting On?

What are the things that I have prayed on that I am waiting on God for? Sometimes we think we know what we want but have not done the work to truly know what it is we need.

Is it that I want my partner to realize they are wrong in this argument or that I feel they belittle my opinion and value? Is it I want my family to stay away from me or do I need to pray for the patience and strength to deal and heal our generational curses?

Take time to truly flesh out your prayer and the true need, not just the want. Ask God for His help in discernment.

- Jobs 34: 4
- Psalm 119: 66
- Romans 12: 2
- Philipians 1:9-11

Day 2

Have I Even Given God the same time
I've given to myself?

Abra-kadabra...appear!!! Nope. That's not how God works when we ask for things (though a trip would be nice about now). There are prayers that He seems to answer right away, then there are those that require... (say it with me)...time. How many years did it take you to create the problem you are now dealing with? So why are you expecting God to just take you out of it with a wave? You can be patient with yourself, but not with God?

Try giving Him at least the same amount of time it took to create the mindset; the family issue; the relationship barriers; the depression. Will it take God that long- no. But you can prolong the process if you are battling Him along the way.

- Psalm 27: 13-14
- James 5: 7-8
- 2 Peter 3: 9
- Micah 7:7

Day 3

How Am I Waiting on God?

While you wait with faith and expectation for the blessing that God has for you, what are you doing? How are you spending your time? Are you working on the character you need for the next level? Are you being the answer to someone else's prayer? Are you taking care of the temple that He has given you?

This time is not only meant for you to build patience amongst other attributes, but to be a servant of God. To show Him you can be trusted to answer His needs as you are asking Him to answer yours. Take some time to look at those around you and how you can help them as you wait on God- in both definitions of the word.

- Hebrews 6:10
- Galatians 5:13
- Matthew 23:11
- Mark 10:45

Day 4

Am I Prepared For the Answer?

If God just took you out of that bad situation, do you think you would be free of it? What about the mindset that still needs to be broken? You would be walking into blessings with an old, broken, hurt mind and unable to truly enjoy it.

Think of it like this- if you're walking into traffic with broken glasses on and someone leads you to a sidewalk but doesn't give you the time or takes you to the place to fix your glasses, where will you end up again?

And remember a blessing before its time is a curse.

- Job 11: 13
- 2 Timothy 2:21
- 1 Corinthians 2:9
- Hebrews 11: 17

Extra Reminders

The Story of Jonah

The Story of Noah

The Story of Joseph

The Story of Abraham and Sarah

The Story of Daniel's Fast

Remember how you wait is just important as the wait tself