THREE DAY DEVOTIONAL

S. PINARD

Day 1

WHICH ONE AM I?

Which Mary do you think you're most like at this present moment? Why is that? Is this based on what God has told you or what your environment has dictated? Take the time to identify with one of the Marys and write down why. Then read through the scriptures to get an idea of who you are based on your creator's views.

Day 2

WHICH I DO I WANT TO BE?

So you have identified who you are at this moment. Now who do you want to be? I think most people would assume that all want to be like Mary the mother of Jesus but, maybe that's not the path you feel is for you. Maybe you're the Mary you want to be and you just need to work on revisions in certain areas. Either is ok. All their lives had purpose and all submitted to God's will.

Take time to realize who you want to be according to God's will for your life so that you can gain direction. Know that as you walk in the purpose He has for you, the road will start to make sense on good and bad days.

Day 3

WHERE I AM NOW, IS OK

So we've identified which stage of your process you are in and where you would like to be. Great! But I would not want you leaving this feeling that this place is not good enough. God uses all things to work for the good of those who love Him. If you feel something is missing, look at what you have. I guarantee you have been overlooking a skill, opportunity, a person- that God has placed in your life for a reason. Take some time to create an inventory of those things/people in your life that you know God placed there. If you're having a tough time deciding if an item or person should be on that list, listen to the sermon I've listed below.

Focus on the story of Marys

- Luke 1:26-38 Jesus mom
- John 12: 1-8- washes feet
- John 8:1-11- the prostitute

Scholars still debate if Mary of Bethany is the same as the prostitute Jesus saved from being stoned.

Each woman seemed to embody one of the wills of God- ideal; consequential and the ultimate

Where do you think you fall into at this time in your life?

Do you think God has a purpose for this time?

What do you have that you are not paying attention to?
