

Crossroads Publishing, LLC - Book Submission Form

Please take the time to complete this form in its entirety. All of the information on this form is needed and important. If you have any questions, please email them to ceo@crossroadspublishingllc.com. Thank you in advance for time spent completing this form.

Name of Book: _____

Author Name: _____

Pen Name if being used: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

This book is part of a series Yes No

Series
Name: _____

This is book _____ in the series.

Book Format:

I would like my book considered for (multiple choices available):

- Paperback
- Hardback
- eBook/Kindle (separate form to complete after book contract is signed)
- Audiobook

Cover Information:

This book will need a cover design.

OR

My book already has a cover. I realize I need to send it with this book submission form. The cover design was done by:

Illustrations:

If your book needs illustrations, please return to the company website to find the Illustration Options information on the Submissions Guidelines page for illustrator options. It details their fees and has examples of their work. If your book does not need illustrations, or they have already been created, please see the second or third choice in this section below.

This book will need illustrations.

Name of Illustrator I would like to see a rough draft from first:

Name of Illustrator I would like to see a rough draft from second:

OR

My book already has illustrations. I realize I need to send them when I submit this form. The illustrator was:

OR

My book does not need illustrations.

Size I want this book to be considered for: 6x9 8.5x11 other _____

Editing:

I would like to request a certain Crossroads Publishing Editor.

Please Initial: My book has already been edited. Even so, I understand that it will be edited again by a Crossroads Publishing editor for integrity purposes. I understand that I will not be charged for this service.

Prior Publishing of Book:

The Author accepts that they are the sole creator of the Book and they have not published the book in any other form previously, neither have agreed to any other similar agreements governing the Book, and the Book is not in public domain previously.

If the book was previously published: yes no

_____ Publisher

_____ Date Published

_____ Prior Edition of the Book

I agree to provide a copy of my cancellation of agreement paperwork to Crossroads Publishing from my prior publisher when I send this submission form. I realize it must be included, or publishing with Crossroads Publishing, LLC will not move forward. If there is no actual cancellation document, some sort of proof must be provided. This can be by email, screen shot of text or any other form of verification sent with the submission form.

I was referred to Crossroads Publishing, LLC by _____.

Please Initial: If your book is selected for publishing, you will be asked to participate in a Zoom information meeting. This will be to go over publishing options, royalties and the publishing plan.

Signing With a Christian Company

When thinking about signing with a Christian company to publish your book, there are many things to consider.

Those could include the publishing process, the royalty percentage, the reviews, the final product produced and the foundation of the company.

In that consideration, the foundation of Crossroads Publishing is our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The owner, Pastor Tonya Andrews, has been in ministry for many years in many capacities. This brings aspects that need consideration. You do not have to be a Christian to sign with Crossroads Publishing. We just ask that you please consider the journey if you choose to.

In the Christian belief, there is definitely a separation of the good and the evil. When those who strive to live and exemplify unconditional love share that with others, evil fights back. It is an age-old concept that is no different with a Christian company. While the owner has absolutely no issue with those submitting who do not believe the same or have written something other than a Christian book (outside of erotica), there is still the spiritual battle that ensues on a daily basis. How this could affect anyone's journey specifically with Crossroads is not known. However, there may be instances that will be out of everyone's control in that spiritual battle.

The way to work together through this is understanding and patience, all the way around. This company has some staff beginning in their field, some staff with health issues and a collective that does their best with any of the books in process. In trying to make Crossroads a different kind of publishing company that extends to every part of the company involved. It is also realizing that Crossroads cannot control Amazon, KDP or any other company involved in the publishing process. There will be unexplained delays when dealing with many companies.

Please realize if you choose to allow Crossroads to publish your book, it will be from a patient, understanding point-of-view across the board. If situations need to be handled, rest assured, the owner will do what needs to be done, whether it be sincere apologies, a different course of action or just getting the work done herself.

Thank you very much for considering Crossroads for your publishing needs. We look forward to a possible partnership moving forward that will be beneficial for everyone involved. If you choose not to sign with Crossroads Publishing due to this information, we totally understand and wish you well.

Please Initial: I understand what it means to sign with a Christian company.

I have answered these questions to the best of my ability. I understand that false information will disqualify my book submission to Crossroads Publishing, LLC. I understand that Crossroads Publishing, LLC takes publishing very seriously and will do everything possible to communicate in a timely manner moving forward. I am giving my permission for my manuscript and/or cover and/or illustrations and/or author information to be used by Crossroads Publishing, LLC in the process and normal courses of publishing and marketing a book.

Author Signature

Date

Author Printed Name

Date