SONG

You write the lyrics to the song of my life. Let every note create a sweet refrain, in tune with your Word. Gently strum on my heart strings, allowing a soulful melody to flow out of a heart that is pure, producing a delightful, thrilling sound that resounds, uplifts, and fills the air with its blissful tune. Line by line, verse by verse, reveal your plan and purpose, as I lift my voice in a joyful chorus.

Let my heart, O God, be steadfast; so, I will sing and make music with all of my being (Ps. 108:1). Let me transcend boundaries and bring transformation in lives through the power given by You, the composer, filling space and time with the essence of your grace. I will sing praise to you; telling of all your wonderful acts (Ps. 105:2). I will declare your jubilant love, like a steady crescendo on life's highest hilltop and lowest of valleys.

Reflection

Think about your daily life

What areas of your life may not be fully in tune with God's Word?

How can you hand over the pen to God in all areas of your life?

Hearenly Father, I will allow you to create a beautiful melody with my life. I will set my heart to follow your purpose, trust your Word and find joy serving you daily.

Are you all in? Or in today, but out tomorrow? Being a disciple, a follower of Christ, is about relationship and living on purpose. Our relationship with God must be ongoing and active, with constant communication. This relationship affects and determines how we live out our life on a daily basis. Some people have a split personality when it comes to their relationship with God. They may allow Him to enter certain spheres of their lives but deny Him full access to direct other areas. They take Him to work, but not to social events. At social events, they take off their Christian masks and blend in seamlessly.

Remember who and whose you are. Never water down your standards or belief system to fit in. "Be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like" (James 1:22-24). Study the mirror, which is the bible, and become more like the man in the mirror - Jesus. Let His Word guide your actions and interactions. Go all in and commit to following His plan and purpose every day.

Reflection

Think about your relationship with God and your lifestyle

What areas in your life do you need to give God full access for you to become All In?

What lifestyle adjustments can you make to strengthen your relationship with God?

God, let my relationship with you grow stronger and let my lifestyle reflect your character. Help me to take you into every sphere. Be the center of my life, my conversations and be glorified through my actions.

Crush doubt, chase purpose and charge your world!

Is there a thought or desire you can't seem to escape? Could it be purpose silently screaming out to you? We all have an innate desire to live a fulfilled life. But the everyday grind of life itself can leave us tired, empty, distracted and living below our God given potential.

Choose to respond to that intense desire and chase after your purpose. Let it pump through your veins as it flows from the heart of God, to hands surrendered and to feet taking action.

In Chasing Purpose, Christina Persaud will captivate and challenge you to take a deeper look within and propel you to relentlessly pursue God's plan for your life.

Through these 50 devotions, reflective questions and prayers, you'll be inspired to:

- Effectively prepare to chase after a life of purpose by learning faith fundamentals and practical principles
- Activate and pursue God's plan for your life through personal self-assessment and reflection
- Persevere through difficult moments and bounce back with resilience by learning the secrets of remaining focused
- Implement strategies that will equip and propel you to live on purpose

Make no mistake, you were born for this. Your chase today will influence those running tomorrow.
