WHY DOES NOT GOD OBLITERATE EVIL AND THE DEVIL?

"Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the wealth is thine." 1 Chronicles 29:11

If God destroyed evil, God would destroy every opportunity for choice. And if God were to destroy every opportunity for choice, then God would destroy every opportunity for love. Therefore, God would destroy the highest good. For God to destroy evil would be evil. God doesn't destroy evil, instead God defeats evil. How? Calvary and the resurrection! God turns every hurt into a Hallelujah. Every defeat into victory! – Dr. Adrian Rogers

It Is Not Easy

To apologize, to begin over, to be unselfish, to admit error, to face sneer, to be charitable, to keep on trying, to be considerate, to avoid mistakes, to endure success, to profit by mistakes, to forgive and forget, to think and then act, to keep out of the rut, to make the best of little, to subdue an unruly temper, to maintain a high standard, to shoulder a deserved blame, to recognize the silver lining.

No, it is not easy; but it always pays.

THE FAMILY TREE

A lawyer discovered that one of his ancestors had been hanged for cattle stealing. To hide the fact, he rewrote his family history thus:

"Grandfather died while takin part in a public ceremony when the platform gave way"

Discovering that one of her progenitors had died in the electric chair, a New England aristocratic told her fine friends:

"Great Uncle Ezekiel occupied the chair of applied electricity in one of the great institutions of this country. He died in harness".
