BIOGRAPHY

Hollywood Roses, Undeniably the #1 "Authentic Guns n' Roses Experience." Has succeeded in captivating audiences for close to a decade with a 2 hour show that is so spot on, even members of Guns n' Roses have compared Hollywood Roses Shows and Colby Veil to the closest thing to hit the stage since they themselves Rocked the Sunset Strip.

The group started eight years ago in L.A. when a group of Hollywood Misfits, led by none other than Colby Veil "The Bastard Son of the Sunset Strip", realized Rock fans young and old, generations of Guns n' Roses fanatics, craved the dangerous, electric, intense show that Guns n' Roses were notorious for. Without question, Hollywood Roses has perfected the art of capturing the raw energy of a bygone era in Rock N' Roll, and gives to the fans the power and frenzy of a true 80's Guns and Roses show.

Lead singer Colby Veil's incredible likeness to Axl Rose both in both appearance as well as vocal prowess helped pave the way for Hollywood Roses to rise up to become "The Most Authentic Guns n' Roses Experience." There were no wigs and costumes, just a group of musicians who not only channeled the energy that Guns n' Roses had, but has always performed a show that is undeniably a true flashback in time.

Hollywood Roses have rocked numerous festivals including the debut year of "Rocklahoma" which had record breaking attendance and coverage in "Rolling Stone" and SXSW. Hollywood Roses has also toured the US, most notably playing high profile venues in Hollywood Las Vegas, Arizona, Texas, The Midwest and more.

In 2008, Colby Veil was hand-picked by Guns N Roses original drummer Steven Adler to lead Adler's Appetite for the 20th Anniversary of Appetite for Destruction. The tour kicked off at Hollywood's world famous Key Club. On stage, Colby was joined by none other than Izzy, Duff and of course Steven Adler, performing Guns N Roses hits to amazed fans. Celebrities were in attendance including guitar God Slash. This show launched the beginning of a world tour for "Adler's Appetite," which hit venues in South America and the U.S. Live Hollywood Roses delivers the ultimate tribute to the "Appetite for Destruction" era of Guns N Roses. Fans craving raw rock and roll, and an authentic Guns N Roses experience won't be disappointed by Hollywood Roses' exciting, spot-on performance.
