CODE OF CONDUCT FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERS OF THE SCOTTISH DANCING ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA

GENERAL BEHAVIOUR

1. Participants will display honesty, fairness, and equality of opportunity in all relationships.
2. Participants will not engage in behaviour which undermines the status and esteem of Highland Dancing.
3. Participants will recognise the authority of judges and examiners.
4. Participants will recognise the authority of all officials and treat them with courtesy.
5. Participants will treat all other participants with respect and show sportsmanship at all times.
6. Participants will not discriminate between other participants on the grounds of gender, ethnic background, religion, ability or sexual preference.
7. Participants should respect the competence of teachers, examiners and judges and should not engage in public criticism of other participants.
8. Participants will not compromise the integrity of any result by seeking to influence any official decision.
9. Participants will respect the confidentiality and privacy of all information as it pertains to participants.

WELLBEING OF DANCERS

10. Participants will recognise the safety and wellbeing of the dancer and accept that the health of the dancer is always more important than results.
11. Participants who become aware of conduct which causes concern, should report it to the President or Management Committee member immediately. Any reporting that is done in good faith will not be subject to retaliation, retribution or other recriminations for making that report.
