Rich's Transformational Talk: Discovering Your Purpose On The Planet

Ever since he was a young boy, Rich Fields told everyone that one day he would be working with Bob Barker at The Price Is Right. How could a young boy know in his soul what his destiny in life would be? The answer... Rich trusted his intuition, what he calls our Inner GPS. And by doing so he was able to manifest his way toward that Price Is Right intuitive mandate that was revealed to him at an early age. Rich's journey was not always linear and the pathway was not always clear (two bouts with cancer and finding himself homeless in Hollywood) but by trusting his intuition he was able to stay on the life-path that his soul knew he should be on.

"Rich Fields was riveting! One of the best speakers we've ever had! We've already booked him for next year."

John Mahaffey
