The 2021 ANA National Money Show in Phoenix, AZ has been cancelled.

At present, our Gallatin Coin Show is "up in the air."

Collector's Universe has bought PCGS including the sports card division. They allegedly paid five times what the share price was.

There will be a change in the U.S. quarter dollar in 2021. The obverse will revert back to the original style of 1932. The first reverse will depict Washington crossing the Delaware River.

Of the top ten coins sold in 2020, Stack's claims to have sold eight of them.

1804 Silver Dollar - over $3M
1894-S Barber Dime - over $1M
1794 Silver Dollar - over $1M

A motion was made by Scott Weaver to extend Jean Johnson's honorary membership through 2021 in recognition of her contributions to our Christmas Dinner events. The motion passed.

TREASURER'S REPORT - Balance $ 1,834.55

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Dave Osborn

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Jeff Gallup

DOOR PRIZE #4 WON BY Terry Hess

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: Jim Viken warned us that there is some dysfunction on the U.S. Mint's website. His order for 2021 Morgan / Peace replica dollars was lost. All club members should proceed with caution!

The supplies dealer that had signed up to attend the May 2021 Gallatin Coin Show broke down in his truck near Memphis and never made it to the show. We may have a line on a new supplies dealer to attend the upcoming December show.

The results of the May 2021 Gallatin Coin Show are in! The club made a $1,300 profit. We now have about $7,000 in the "Show Account." $4,700 of this balance is earned and the remaining $2,300 represents unearned prepayments. With the balance in the "Show Account", we might consider (a) increasing door prize values; (b) giving everyone a door prize, or (c) making a donation to the ANA.

We should give the Hendersonville Coin Club a donation for their participation in setting up the May Gallatin Coin Show. After a short discussion, it was decided that $50.00 would be given to the Hendersonville Coin Club.

There was some controversy over the amount to be paid to the Gallatin Civic Center. After the coin show concluded, they asked for $2,700 which was inconsistent with what they originally quoted. We finally agreed on $1,520 as the amount to be paid for lease of the gymnasium. For the May 2022 Gallatin Coin Show, we should expect a significant increase in price. Steven Meyer and Scott Weaver suggested that we get a firm price quote in advance of the December 2021 show.

Two candidates, Donald H. Kagan, PhD and Ralph W. Ross, PhD, are running for ANA president. The deadline for ballots is July 1st. Also, eight persons are running for seven Board of Governors positions.

The club voted by raising hands in favor of Ralph W. Ross.

It was suggested that the club vote for everyone running for the Board of Governors except Mark Lighterman. Since Mr. Lighterman will already be attending Board meetings in the capacity of parliamentarian, it seems redundant to elect him to be a governor as well.

The club agreed to vote for everyone running for the Board of Governors except Mark Lighterman.

Not all that many people brought their postcards to the Gallatin Coin Show. For the December Gallatin Coin Show, we might consider offering a 1/10 oz. gold eagle as a door prize at the show for attendees who turn in their postcards at the registration desk.

TREASURER'S REPORT - Balance $ 1,789.55

DOOR PRIZE #1 WON BY Jean Johnson

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Michael Sollman

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Dave Osborn

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: Tid-bits from Jim Viken:

Regarding the recent ANA election, our club submitted its votes about a week before the voting deadline. Ross was elected president by a narrow margin -- 2,749 to 2,732. The 7 individuals we voted for in the Board of Governors election were elected. A candidate from France did not get elected.

The parent company of NGC (Certified Collectibles Group - CCG) has now been acquired (in part) by Blackstone. The parent company of PCGS (Collectors Universe, Inc.) has now been acquired and taken private by D1 Capital Partners and Cohen Private Ventures. The sports card divisions in each company are the dominant assets. No word yet on whether there will be any changes in the way the coin divisions operate.

From the U.S. Mint, Silver Eagle Proofs, American Innovation Dollars and the American Gold Eagles will go on sale later in July.

Scott Weaver announced that he will be attending the upcoming Bessemer, AL Coin Show and anyone who has a preference for door prizes should let him know.

Jim Viken announced that the attendance at the Gallatin Coin Show was a little over 400. Only 138 out of approximately 1,400 postcards were returned to the show (10%). For our Gallatin Coin Show, we need the small coin envelopes to pass out at the registration tables. We need someone to do flyers and postcards for our next show.

Jim Viken, Chris Sollman and Steven Meyer had an informal discussion on whether our coin club should have a www.nashvillecoinclub.com website or a Facebook or Twitter account. Chris Sollman mentioned that you can bring up GoDaddy and find out if a website address is available.

The September meeting of the Nashville Coin Club (scheduled for Labor Day - Sept. 6th) will be deferred until September 13th.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS:

During the Hendersonville Coin Club meeting held on Monday, July 19th, Dave Osborn gave $50.00 to Jim Davis as agreed to for their participation in setting up and manning the registration table for the May Gallatin Coin Show.

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Steven Meyer

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: The club welcomed _____ as a new member.
He was a member of the club several years ago.

Jim Viken's "Tid Bits:" (i) The U.S. Mint will release their "S" and "D" mint Morgan Dollars on August 3rd. (ii) The U.S. Mint will release their "P" mint Morgan Dollars and Peace Dollars on Aug. 10th.

Aug. 27th - Aug 28th will be the "Cool Coins and Coppers Show and Convention" at the Drury Plaza Hotel in Franklin.

There is apparently some confusion about whether our next meeting will be held on Sept. 6th (the Labor Day holiday) or the next Monday, Sept. 13th.

Scott Weaver made a motion to have our next monthly meeting on Sept. 6th. The motion was seconded by Sam Johnson. The motion to have the meeting on Sept. 6th was passed by a showing of hands.

Jim Viken mentioned that our next Gallatin Coin Show in December 2021 may be in jeopardy due to the resurgence of Covid-19.

Our Nashville Coin Club website (www.nashvillecoinclub.com) is up and running. Chris Sollman donated $30 to start the website. The website is not currently findable on a Google search due to there being no metatags available. The site now includes a list of upcoming NCC meetings and Gallatin Coin Shows; NCC contact information, information on other upcoming Tennessee coin shows, and information regarding the Hendersonville Coin Club.

We anticipate including a condensed version of each month's club minutes and coin photos from any presentations on the site.

Dave Osborn volunteered to search other coin club websites for examples of their content.

TREASURER'S REPORT - Balance $ 1,710.55 (14 paid members)

DOOR PRIZE #1 WON BY Jim Viken

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Steven Meyer

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Scott Weaver

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: Dave Osborn has been researching coin club activities on the Collector's Universe website for the purpose of getting some ideas of what additional information we could (or should) provide on our nashvillecoinclub.com website:

- Offers of educational outreach to the public
- Monthly newsletter to be published on the website
- Announcement of next meeting's speaker and topic to be presented

It was agreed that these ideas were unsuitable for a club with a small membership as we presently have.

Some internet links were also suggested:

- ANA (www.money.org)
- TSNS (tsns.org)

Terry Hess pointed out that these organizations would likely require both permission and remuneration for the privilege of providing a link on our website to their websites.

- Coinflation (www.coinflation.com) An internet site where the current melt value of circulating silver and gold coinage can be determined.

It was agreed that this link may be suitable to place on our Nashville Coin Club website. We will ask Chris Sollman to do this at our next meeting.

Jim Viken mentioned that he received a call from Bill Davis (president of the Hendersonville Coin Club). Bill inquired about the feasibility of setting up a table at the December Gallatin Coin Show for the purpose of promoting new membership in the Hendersonville Coin Club.

A discussion of the pros and cons of this idea followed:

- Terry Hess suggested that we have literature for both clubs at this table.
- Steven Meyer pointed out that we may have difficulty getting enough volunteers to man both the registration table and the Coin Club membership table.
- Jim Viken mentioned that a decision needs to be made whether to charge HCC (or both NCC and HCC) for this table.

Jim Viken added that he is waiting for Bill Davis to get back to him concerning the table plans. No decisions were made about the promotional table during our meeting.

Jim Viken's Tid Bits:

The Jackson, TN Coin Show scheduled for next week has been cancelled.

There has been no word yet on whether the Cookeville Coin Show (Oct. 23rd) or our own Gallatin Coin Show (Dec.) will be held.

The East Ridge, TN (Chattanooga) Coin Show, scheduled for Nov. 12-14, will undoubtedly go on as scheduled. Every TSNS show scheduled since COVID began in February 2020 has been held as planned.

On Sept. 9th, the U.S. mint will accept orders for its "W mint" Silver Eagles.

DOOR PRIZE #4 WON BY Jeff Gallup

DOOR PRIZE #5 WON BY Steven Meyer

OLD BUSINESS: Steven Meyer said that he doesn't really see the need of having a table on the floor of the Gallatin Coin Show where coin club promotional literature was available and our customary registration table out in the hallway where coin club leaflets are available. Jim Viken said he is open to the idea of having both. This idea will be discussed when Bill Davis gets back to Jim Viken

NEW BUSINESS: Jim Viken's Tid Bits: Orders are now being taken for the American Innovation 4-Piece 2021 $1 Coin Set on the U.S. Mint website.

Coin Shows scheduled for the month of October:

Oct.

7-8-9 Louisville, KY

15-16 Rome, GA

Oct.

22-23-24 Gadsden, AL

23 Cookeville, TN

There still has been no word on whether the Gallatin Coin Show (Dec.) will be held.

Scott Weaver suggested that, for each meeting, we have a "theme." For example, "Ancients," "Canadian," etc.

Our next meeting will be Nov. 1st. During that meeting, we will gather volunteers for manning the registration table at the Dec. Gallatin Coin Show; setting up tables and chairs; and volunteers to bring specific food items and drinks to next month's Christmas party.
