TREASURER'S REPORT - Balance $ $ 1,628.55 (per 1/2/22 email)

DOOR PRIZE #1 WON BY Howard Thornton

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Jean Johnson

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY _____

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: Jim Viken solicited 2022 dues payments. The election of officers for the 2022 calendar year has been deferred to February 2022 due to insufficient attendance at this January meeting.

Terry Hess suggested that the Nashville Coin Club join the TSNS so we would be mentioned in their quarterly newsletter. TSNS dues are less than $40.

Jim Viken reported that the Nashville Coin Club had a profit of $2,398 ($7,610 income - $5,212 expenses) from the Dec '21 Gallatin Coin Show. The net profit from the May 2021 Gallatin Coin Show was $1,250. The May 2020 and December 2020 shows were cancelled due to COVID. There were approximately 65 tables and 40 dealers at the Dec '21 Gallatin Coin Show.

There was a seminar held in a separate room adjacent to the gymnasium at the Dec '21 Gallatin Coin Show. It was conducted by Dennis Fortier, a member of the Liberty Seated and Barber Collector's Society. Only two people attended. The seminar was advertised on flyers and on CoinZip.com.

Looking forward to the May 2022 Gallatin Coin Show, Jim Viken reported that, to date, $2,265 has been received from dealers to reserve tables.

Fred Davis suggested that a raffle be held at the May 2022 show. $1 per ticket, $6 for 5 tickets, etc..

Jim Viken asked that the members gather some "giveaway coins" from their vast collections and donate them for distribution to the attendees of the May show as they sign in.

DOOR PRIZE #1 WON BY Jean Johnson

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Terry Hess

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Scott Weaver

OLD BUSINESS: Jim Viken stated that the fee charged by the Gallatin Civic Center for the December Gallatin Coin Show will be held at the level they charged back in May 2021.

NEW BUSINESS: Jim Viken talked about a Fugio Cent he recently purchased.

Jim passed along a suggestion from Jim Everett that the Gallatin Coin Show be moved to Clarksville, TN for future dates.

Jim Viken announced that he did not intend to run for president of the Nashville Coin Club for the 2022 year. The membership needs to be thinking about who is willing to be president of NCC from this point going forward.

Fred Davis was a guest. He has been a member of HCC for years. Fred joined our club for the 2022 year.

Discussed food items to be furnished by each member at our December 6th Christmas meeting.

We will do the signup for setting up tables & chairs for the December Gallatin Coin Show. Literature furnished to Jim Viken from the Civic Center says we can set up from 5pm-8pm.

MINUTES OF PRECEDING MEETING

==> approved as presented or as amended by voice vote

The minutes from the 1/3/22 NCC meeting were amended as follows:

The statement, "Jim Viken asked that the members gather some 'giveaway coins' from their collections and donate them for distribution to the attendees of the May show as they sign in." should read....

"Jim Viken asked that the members gather some 'giveaway coins' from their collections for distribution to the attendees at the May show as they sign in."

TREASURER'S REPORT - Balance $ 1,685.50

DOOR PRIZE #1 WON BY Scott Weaver

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Bill Davis

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Jean Johnson

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: During the 1/3/22 NCC meeting, Terry Hess suggested that the NCC join the TSNS. A benefit of membership for our club is being mentioned in the TSNS quarterly newsletter. A motion was made by Fred Davis to have the club join the TSNS and the motion was seconded by Steven Meyer. The motion passed by a unanimous vote.

Scott Weaver suggested that, in recognition of Jean Johnson's contribution toward our Christmas dinner during this past December meeting, that she be granted an honorary membership for the 2022 calendar year. The motion passed unanimously.

Upcoming coin shows: Feb. 19 Cookeville, TN
Feb 25-27 Memphis, TN Coin Club
Mar 4-6 East Ridge, TN

Regarding the upcoming May Gallatin Coin Show, Jim Viken distributed a listing of tasks to be performed with chronological deadlines for each coin show the NCC sponsors. Jim said that he would be heavily involved in the upcoming May 2022 show but plans to be less involved in the upcoming Dec 2022 show. Members should let Jim know which tasks they are willing to devote time to.

Steven Meyer suggested that, at the upcoming May Gallatin Coin Show, we hang up a large " COIN SHOW -----> " sign out in the civic center aisleway during the Thursday evening setup to encourage attendance.

Fred Davis and Jeff Goodall suggested that we form a committee to develop a strategy to encourage new membership. Larger clubs in other cities have already done this.

An election of officers to serve during the 2022 calendar year was held. The results were:

President - Scott Weaver
Vice President - Michael Sollman
Secretary - Dave Osborn
Treasurer - Dave Osborn

TREASURER'S REPORT - Balance $ 3,629.55

During the meeting, the treasurer received a check in the amount of $2,000.00 from the Gallatin Coin Show account; a check in the amount of $1,591.55 from the outgoing treasurer, Scott Weaver; $12.00 cash from each of three members, representing annual dues for 2022; and $2.00 cash, representing auction income from the 3/7/22 meeting.

DOOR PRIZE #1 WON BY Jim Viken

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Terry Hess

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Fred Davis

DOOR PRIZE #4 WON BY Sam Johnson

DOOR PRIZE #5 WON BY Jeff Clark

OLD BUSINESS: At the 2/7/22 meeting, a motion was passed stating that our Nashville Coin Club would join the TSNS. Terry Hess will find out how to actually sign up for membership and then seek reimbursement from the club for the annual dues.

NEW BUSINESS: Scott Weaver suggested that the club subscribe to the Grey Sheet - $270 annually. Each month's issue of the Grey Sheet would be offered as a door prize. Scott Weaver raised the motion, Fred Davis seconded. The motion passed. Jim Viken will handle the subscription to the Grey Sheet and seek reimbursement from the club.

The Grey Sheet for April, May, June 2022 has our advertisement for the May 20-21 Gallatin Coin Show. Unfortunately, these dates conflict with the PAN Show in Pittsburgh, PA. Jim Viken has spoken with some of the dealers and they may place people at both our show and the PAN show.

REPORTS OR PRESENTATIONS (if any): Dr. Jeff Clark gave a presentation on Early Quarters (1815 - 1828).

DOOR PRIZE #4 WON BY Chris Sollman

OLD BUSINESS: We don't know if Terry Hess has found any more information about the possibility of the NCC joining the TSNS.

NEW BUSINESS: Before the NCC meeting, Terry Hess informed Jim Viken that the PAN Show (Pittsburgh, PA) just signed a five year contract to hold their show on the third weekend in May. The Gallatin Coin Show is also held on the third weekend in May. Jim Viken commented that we will probably be losing 5 or 6 dealers to the Pittsburgh show this year. The Augusta (GA) Coin Club Spring Coin Show also is held on the third weekend in May. We need to research (on Coinzip.com and other coin show listings) whether moving our Gallatin Coin Show to a different weekend in May would be desirable for the 2023 year and beyond.

May meeting minutes

To Dave Osborn LAST_NAME &lt;huskydad94@comcast.net&gt;

Hey Dave,
Here is what I have for the minutes:

We had 12 members present and 2 guest. Mason brought his Wife and daughter.

Scott Weaver gave a presentation on Nickel Hunting and we held our first competition coin roll hunt. Howard found the oldest nickel which was a 1948 p. The presentation was amazing we all learned so much.

Our July meeting is scheduled for the holiday, so we need to decide what to do about that at the June meeting.

Jim gave a report on the upcoming Gallatin Show and passed around a sign up sheet for those willing to work the tables. We did loose some dealers to the PAN show , but we have been able to replace them. Some of the big dealers that we have will be choosing the Pittsburg show over the Gallatin show going forward into the future.

There is a coin show in Owensboro this coming Saturday May 7th.

there was no Greysheet awarded as a door prize during the May 2nd meeting due to Jim Viken not receiving the Greysheet in the mail in time for the meeting.

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: As of July 1st, 2022, the state of Tennessee will no longer collect sales tax on the retail sales of coins, currency, and precious-metals bullion. To date, this change in the law has not been reflected in information currently available on the Ebay or Amazon websites. The last pronouncement on the subject was Tenn. Dept. of Revenue Notice #20-15, which requires marketplace facilitators (like Ebay and Amazon) to collect sales tax on sales of tangible personal property based on the shipped to or delivered to address of the customer.

Jim Viken reported the financial results of the Gallatin Coin Show. The May 2022 coin show was the second best, in terms of net profit, since Jim Viken first took charge of our coin shows..... Dec. 2021 est. $2,400; May 2022 est. $2,000. The cumulative net profit for the last five coin shows was an estimated $9,000.

Regarding our preparation for the upcoming Dec. 2022 coin show, Jim Viken reminded the members attending that he was no longer bourse chairman and he called on members to start working on show committee tasks and arrangements for the Dec. 2022 show.

Next month's meeting falls on the July 4th holiday. Steven Meyer made a motion to skip next month's coin club meeting. It was seconded by Terry Hess. The motion passed with a majority vote.

Jim Viken announced that he was awarding $100 to the Hendersonville Coin Club for the services its members provided during the May 2022 Gallatin Coin Show. Those services included helping with table and chair setup on the Thursday evening before the show and manning the registration table during the show. $100 cash was given to Fred Davis during the meeting and this remuneration was made from the coin show account maintained by Jim Viken.

The Blue Ridge Numismatic Association Coin Show in Dalton, GA is coming up in early August.

REPORTS OR PRESENTATIONS (if any): Scott Weaver passed out a group of five foreign coins to be passed along to each attending member. Each member wrote down the name of the country he or she thought each foreign coin was from. Several members tied at two correct identifications. Terry Hess won the drawing of the members who tied. The prize was a Washington-Carver Commemorative half dollar.

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Fred Davis

MONTHLY GREYSHEET PRIZE WON BY Scott Weaver

OLD BUSINESS: At the June 6th meeting, Jim Viken reminded the members attending that someone needed to assume the duties of bourse chairman for the upcoming Dec 2022 Gallatin Coin Show. To date, no one has stepped forward to volunteer for that job. Tasks associated with the bourse chairman's job must be performed well in advance of the show dates.

NEW BUSINESS: Treasurer, Dave Osborn, informed the members in attendance that he opened a Regions Bank checking account in the name of the Nashville Coin Club on June 10, 2022 and transferred all NCC funds into the new account. The treasurer felt that this action was necessary in that if the treasurer was no longer able to fulfill his duties due to illness, injury or death, the NCC president (or another designated individual) could gain immediate access to the funds and the NCC membership's money would be better protected. Due to the perceived urgency on the part of the treasurer, he took this action without the prior approval of the NCC membership.

Subsequently, there was a discussion of this matter by the membership including whether the club wanted to pay the $5.00 monthly fee associated with this checking account.

A motion was made and seconded to vote upon whether the club should keep this checking account to hold NCC funds, or whether the account should be closed and the NCC funds transferred elsewhere so as not to be subject to bank account fees and restrictions. The result of the vote was 6-2 in favor of keeping the existing club account at Regions Bank.

Treasurer, Dave Osborn, stated his preference to reimburse all fees charged to the club account to date from his own funds since he did not obtain the approval of the club membership before establishing the bank account. A motion was made and seconded to vote upon whether to absolve the treasurer of responsibility for paying the fees incurred to date. The motion was passed without a negative vote.
