DOOR PRIZE #1 WON BY Sam Johnson

DOOR PRIZE #2 WON BY Steven Shepherd (new member)

DOOR PRIZE #3 WON BY Jim Viken

GREYSHEET MONTHLY PRIZE Dave Osborn

OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS: Jim Viken informed us that Col. Steven Ellsworth would be putting on a new coin show to be held sometime in October 2023 at the Music City Convention Center in downtown Nashville. Tables are priced @ $950 each and they expect to rent 800 tables.

Chris Sollman announced that there were 617 visitors to the Nashville Coin Club's website during the 2022 calendar year.

Jim Viken told us that our club's Greysheet subscription would probably cost us more than the $150/yr that we spent in 2022. He will look into a Greysheet subscription for 2023.

Scott Weaver announced that we had a quorum and the election of officers would be held:

Scott Weaver ran unopposed for president.

Michael Sollman ran unopposed for vice president and, in addition, he agreed to assume the duties of Secretary for 2023.

Dave Osborn ran unopposed for treasurer.

Scott Weaver suggested that club member, Jean Johnson, in recognition of her furnishing prepared food for the club's Christmas dinner, be given an honorary membership for the 2023 year. All club members unanimously agreed.

Scott Weaver also suggested that club member, Mary Viken, in recognition of her work for the Gallatin Coin Show, be given an honorary membership for the 2023 year. All club members unanimously agreed.

Bill Denker will present a short 10 min. video presentation to the club at the March meeting.

Jim Viken announced the financial results of the December Gallatin Coin Show. Since he took over running the show from Tommy Davidson in 2019, this has been the most profitable show to date.

Revenue $9,550

Expenses 5,745

Profit $3,805

REPORTS OR PRESENTATIONS (if any): Scott Weaver asked the members to guess the retail prices of certain coins from his Redbook dated in the early 1970's. Coins included 1909-S VDB cent and 1950-D nickel.

A New World Class Money Convention

Nashville, Tennessee—Colonel Steven Ellsworth, ret. has announced the 1st Annual International Money Exposition. The convention and show will be held October 26th through 29th, 2023 at the Music City Center, Downtown Nashville, Tennessee. The event will be known as “IMEX”.

“This will not be just another coin show. It is destined to become a must attend event, held in a world class facility in the heart of one of the country’s top destination cities, Nashville, Tennessee, “Music City USA” Ellsworth stated.

Nashville is one of the top cities to visit on people’s bucket list, a world class destination and home to the Grand Ole Opry. Nashville’s BNA International Airports $1.2 Billion remodeling project is in construction making it one of the best and easiest centrally located airports to fly in and out of in the world.

Ellsworth headed a three year campaign to end sales tax on coins, currency and bullion in Tennessee. One consideration in July 2022, when it was signed into law by Governor Lee, was that Nashville would hold a major international numismatic event in the great city of Nashville. The International Money Exposition does just that. “We hope to attract the best dealers and firms in the United States, but also many from Europe and Asia. The Music City Center and the Visitor and Convention Corporation have been very helpful with the convention center and the hotel plans to support it” Ellsworth said and added, “We are still in the early planning stages of all the elements needed to put on what we hope to be the number one money convention in the world”.

COL Ellsworth has a long history in business and organizational skills running major events and is uniquely qualified through over 40 years of history in the numismatic field as President of the Butternut Company, past President of the Virginia Numismatic Association and the immediate past president of the American Numismatic Association. He has traveled extensively to conventions in Canada, Mexico, Central America and South America, Europe, Asia and Australia promoting numismatics and is known worldwide.

Steve Forbes, Noted Commentator and Chairman of Forbes Media, to Highlight the International Money Exposition in Nashville on Friday October 27, 2023

Nashville, Tennessee—IMEX Partner Gary Adkins has announced that Steve Forbes, nationally-known economic commentator, Chairman and Editor-in-Chief of Forbes Media, will speak at the opening ceremony of the International Money Exposition. Known as “IMEX,” the convention and show will be held October 26th through 28th, 2023 at the Music City Center, Downtown Nashville, Tennessee.

“We are extremely excited to have Steve Forbes at the International Money Exposition,” said IMEX partner Gary Adkins. “Steve is one the nation’s foremost thinkers on the subject of the economy, and a vigorous advocate of the principles of sound money. At this especially critical time, IMEX attendees will benefit from hearing Steve’s singular insights into where the nation is headed.”

Steve Forbes will be attending and speaking at the opening ceremonies on Friday October 27, 2023. Later at 1pm, Mr. Forbes will be signing his very timely new book “Inflation: What It Is, Why It’s Bad, and How To Fix It.” He will be joined at the book signing by co-authors Elizabeth Ames and Nathan Lewis. A special reception will be held for Mr. Forbes on Friday evening, followed by a Q & A session, with Ms. Ames and Mr. Lewis also participating. Tickets are limited.

The International Money Exposition has created a renewed excitement and hunger for a major event of this caliber, the first to come on the numismatic circuit in over 30 years. Nashville is one of the top destinations for fun and entertainment for the whole family. Safety and security is a top priority for the city. The climate and weather in the fall are generally ideal.

Some of the largest and most respected dealers have already claimed space for the event. It is destined to be an early sellout. The public is invited to this world class event on Friday October 27 and Saturday October 28, 2023. Early birds are available for Thursday! IMEX will have many exciting announcements over the next several weeks, all aimed at making IMEX the “don’t miss” event of 2023. Make your hotel reservations early!

The International Money Exposition (IMEX) has announced LEGEND AUCTIONS as the Official Auctioneer.

Nashville, Tennessee—Colonel Steven Ellsworth, ret. is proud to announce that Legend Rare Coin Auctions has been selected as the Official Auctioneer for the International Money Exposition. The convention and show will be held October 26th through 29th, 2023 at the Music City Center, Downtown Nashville, Tennessee. The event is known as “IMEX”.

“We are excited about the Legend Rare Coin Auctions selection. We wanted a new world class convention, held in the heart of America, and Nashville offers just that, with a southern flair and the excitement of Music City USA”, Jessica Berkman, President of Legend Rare Coin Auctions stated. “Our boutique style will compliment this really exciting new show”. “We already have a great anchor collection to offer at this event”, said Laura Sperber, founder of Legend Rare Coin Auctions. “Mr. Perfection” as he is known, has consigned his world class Capped Bust Quarter Set. This is an exciting collection and we are honored to offer it at IMEX”.

Regency Auction 61 will be billed as the official sale by Legend Rare Coin Auctions and will have all the lots for viewing starting Thursday, October 26th through Saturday, October 28, 2023. The Auction will be conducted the following week on Thursday, November 2, 2023 in the firm’s Red Bank, NJ offices. In addition, there are a number of exciting promotions scheduled during IMEX to include Steve Forbes, Editor in Chief, Forbes Magazine.

The International Money Exposition has created a renewed excitement for a major world class event, the first to come on the circuit in over 30 years. Nashville is one of the top destinations for fun and entertainment for the whole family. Safety is a top priority for the city, and climate and weather in the spring and fall are generally ideal. “Gary Adkins, my partner in IMEX, and I are very pleased and excited that Legend is our Official Auctioneer for IMEX 2023”, Ellsworth stated.

Many of the most respected and largest dealers have already purchased space for the event and there has been strong interest from overseas as well. The public is invited to this world class event on Friday and Saturday, October 27 – 28, 2023. Early Bird badges are available as well.
