February 2026

Newsletter & Calendar

Dear Beloved of God,

January has flown by and Lent is just around the corner. I am very excited about Lent this year. St. John's leadership reached out and asked if we could do Lent together. At the same time their new maintenance person, Thomas asked if he could prepare a soup and salad meal for our mid-week Lenten programs. We have a pastor and they have a chef! This could be fun! With that we will be offering a Tuesday Lunch and Lenten program in the hall, and on Wednesday evenings, we will have supper in the hall followed by an evening service in the church. See the schedule in this newsletter. We will need some help with set up and clean up. Maybe that could be your Lenten commitment which inspires you to participate. More on all of that soon.

We'll kick the season off with a Shrove Tuesday pancake dinner! Shrove Tuesday was our first event with St. John's in 2024. Who could have imaged all that God had in store for all of us?

for more information.

St. Paul's Book Club

Our next meeting is
February 26, 2026 - 11:00

Join us for a discussion of the novel, The Painted House, by John Grisham. This is not his usual legal thriller. This is a story set in rural Arkansas in 1952, told from the perspective of 7 year old Luke Chandler. It includes faith, baseball, murder, a mysteriously painted house, and "picnic on the ground". Join us whether you read the book or not!

Location: Our Place Clearwater
1101 S. Missouri Ave., Clearwater, FL 33756
