James William Gaddy, age 81, of Arcadia, FL, passed away Sunday morning, November 18, 2018 at home with his family.

He was the only son of James Hovey and Olive McKenzie Gaddy of Dillon, SC. He is survived by his wife, Patricia "Pat" Gaddy, Arcadia, FL, son, Robert Gaddy, of Arcadia, FL, son, Henry (Richard Ryan) Gaddy, Saint Petersburg, FL, granddaughter, Brandy (Garrett) Johnson, Parish, FL and a grandson, Schuyler Gaddy of Port Charlotte, FL; along with two great grandchildren Grady and Colton.

William was born on October 30, 1937 in Dillon, SC and worked together as a home builder of Gaddy & Son, in the Carolinas with his father.

Once married, he moved with his wife Pat to Lumberton, NC where they began White Wing Farms, farming chickens, producing feed, along with a processing facility allowing shipment of eggs all over the eastern United States.

After retiring from the chicken farming in NC, he moved his family to Arcadia, FL to live on 75 acres of wilderness along the Peace River in 1982. Shortly hereafter, William, his wife Pat, and son Robert, planned and later built "Little Willie's RV Park" in Arcadia to accommodate winter residents from the north during the winter months.

Once retired from that venture, William went back to farming, raising fresh produce and cattle for a short period of time, thus allowing him and his wife to travel the United States. Shortly thereafter, William and his wife relocated to a property on Kings Highway, where he lived out his final years with his wife of nearly 57 years.

William was one of a kind.

A visitation will be conducted on Friday, November 23, 2018 from 7:00 until 8:00 pm, at the chapel of Ponger-Kays-Grady Funeral Home, 50 No. Hillsborough Avenue, Arcadia, FL.

Funeral services will be conducted on Saturday, November 24, 2018 at 11:00 AM at the chapel of Ponger-Kays-Grady Funeral Homes, 50 N. Hillsborough Ave., Arcadia, FL, with Rev. George Pettigrew officiating. Burial will follow at Joshua Creek Cemetery.

Online condolences may be made at pongerkaysgrady.com

Ponger-Kays-Grady Funeral Home and Cremation Services, Arcadia, FL is in charge of arrangements.

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth,

As it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

The power,

and the glory,

Forever and ever.

Amen.

A professional NFL team, the Philadelphia Eagles, had just finished their daily practice session when a large turkey came strutting onto the field. While the players gazed in amazement, the turkey walked up to the head coach and demanded to be given a chance to play at tight end.

Everyone stared in silence as the turkey caught pass after pass and ran right through the defensive line. When the turkey returned to the sidelines, the coach shouted, 'You're superb. Sign up for the season, and I'll see to it that you get a huge bonus.'

'Forget the bonus,' replied the turkey, 'What I want to know is, does your season go past Thanksgiving Day?'

“There is one day that is ours. There is one day when all we Americans who are not self-made go back to the old home to eat saleratus biscuits and marvel how much nearer to the porch the old pump looks than it used to. Thanksgiving Day is the one day that is purely American.”

JOHN & POCAHONTAS

“Hey John, how can I get the Peace River Shopper Subscription?” “Pocahontas, all you have to do is email angie@dancollins.biz and every Monday afternoon before the Shopper comes out, you will get the link emailed to you. All you do is click on the link and there you go, your very own shopper to read at your convenience.” “That sounds easy Johny, can you write that down for me please?” “Sure Pocahontas. “Although Thanksgiving comes but once a year, every day should be a day of Thanks. Among all the challenges that we face as people with hearing loss there are certainly brighter moments in every day – moments that deserve to be recorded in our Gratitude Journal.” – Monique Hammond

The first Thanksgiving after moving overseas, I decided to treat my family to a traditional turkey dinner.

I went to the closest store, which happened to be French-speaking, and approached the area where a variety of meats were laid out. Not being fluent in French, I looked and tried to determine on my own whether the large poultry breasts I saw were turkey or goose.

The butcher indicated that he was ready to help me. I asked in broken French if he spoke English; he replied, 'No.' I tried again, asking if he spoke German; again, he replied, 'No.'

I pointed at the poultry breasts, then tucked my thumbs in my armpits, flapped my arms, and said, 'Gobble, gobble?' The butcher broke into a smile as he replied, 'Oui.'

Embarrassing, sure, but I ended up with a turkey and the butcher got a laugh!

"A STRANGE REQUEST"

A short time ago, one of my wife's cousins passed away. He had been battling cancer and we all know how bad things can get. He fought and fought that stuff with everything he had. He even went against all odds and advice from the doctors and went up to Georgia to go hunting with my wife's brothers. They had been hunting together since their early days and he just wanted to go one last time. His words were, "If I am alive, I will be there". Sure enough he was and sure enough he was there. I knew all this before he passed away, but what I didn't know was what his wife told me when we walked up to her at his viewing. She asked me if I had a Peace River Shopper with me. It just so happened that I didn't. We had dropped the last ones off at Sonny's in Port Charlotte and I did not keep one. I assumed that she asked me for one to see how the obituary turned out. I assured her that we would get her as many as she wanted and told her that his obituary looked good. The strange thing to me was what she said then. "Oh no, I wanted one to put in his casket with him" she said. As we were all looking at each other, she continued. "Every week when the Shopper comes out, my husband makes sure he gets one to read. Every week when he gets it, he sits down and says that he is going to read the obituaries. That way if his name wasn't in there, he would know that he was still alive. Well, this week he is in there, and I want to put one in his casket with him so he can read it for himself." I didn't know what to say. I wanted to cry. To think that our Shopper was so important to be put in a casket, was very flattering to me. I had never thought that way about the Shopper before. That was a couple of weeks ago now, but I can still hear her words as she told me that story. I still have a hard time with it, but I couldn't just let it go, I had to say something about it. This Thanksgiving, this man will not be with his family.

For the first time in a really long time, he won't be eating dinner around the table and making jokes as he always did, but maybe you will. Maybe you will have your family, and you will sit around the table enjoying and thanking God for his blessings. Thanksgiving is a day for the family. A special day that we can see people that we haven't seen in a long time, so don't miss this chance. Here at the Shopper, I would just like to thank all of you for your readership and your friendship all these years. I want to let you know that we will always be here for you, and will try to be something that you look forward to reading. Thank you, and May God Bless you all...

 "Happy Thanksgiving!!"
