Marble Statue: My dear brother, marble tile, Don't you remember we are actually from the same cave.

Marble Tile: Yes! I do, that is why i feel it is even more unfair. Both of us were born from the same cave and yet the world treats us so differently now. This is so unfair!

Marble Statue: Yes you are right my brother. But, do you still remember the day when the sculptor tried to work on you but you resisted his tools.

Marble Tiles: Yes, I despise that guy. How could he use those nasty tools on me.

Marble Statue: Well, Since you resisted his tools he couldn't work on you. When he decided to give up on you, he started working on me instead. I knew at once that i would be something different and unique after his efforts. I bore all the painful tools he used on me and allowed him craft me as he wanted!

Marble Tiles: But those tools were so painful.

Marble Statue: My brother, there is a price for everything in life. Since, you decided to resist and gave up half way, you can't blame anybody who steps on you now.!

The marble tiles silently listened to his brothers words. and started to reflect on it.

Moral: The harder the knocks you go through in life, the more you learn and put them to use in the future! Do not be discouraged by setbacks and failures! Keep trying to be better.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

One day the young Thomas Edison came home and handed a paper to his mother from his school. He told her, "My teacher gave this paper to me and told me to give it only to you."

His mother's eyes were tearful as she read the letter out loud to her son. "Your son is a genius. This school is too small for him and doesn't have good teachers for training him. Please teach him yourself."

After years, Edison's mother died and he was renowned as one of the greatest inventors of the century. One day he was going through his old family things. Suddenly, he noticed a folded paper in the corner of a drawer. He took it and opened it up.

On the paper was written: "Your son is addled. We won't let him come to school any more."

Thomas Edison cried for hours and then he wrote in his diary: "Thomas Alva Edison was an addled child that, by a hero mother, became the genius of the century."

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

1	4	5	6	9	7	2	3	8
6	7	8	2	4	3	5	1	9
2	3	6	5	1	8	4	9	7
3	6	2	1	7	9	8	4	5
5	8	7	4	3	2	1	6	9

OBITUARIES

Chester Ray Johson Jr.

On Tuesday, February 16, 2021, Chester Ray Johnson Jr., loving husband, father and grandfather, passed away at the age of 63. Chester was born on April 16, 1957 in Bartow, FL to Chester, Sr. and Irene Johnson. He was raised with two siblings (Stephen and Susan), in DeSoto County, FL. In 1974, he joined the United States Air Force. In 1979, after moving back to DeSoto County, he met and married the love of his life, Nita Ann Boone. They raised two children, a son, Jeremiah, and a daughter, Samantha.

Chester loved to travel, attend baseball games with his son and was an avid reader. His family would often take day trips to the beach where he would hunt for the best shark teeth. In 1992, Chester rededicated his life to Jesus Christ at First Baptist Church of Arcadia. He remained an active member, was a Deacon, and a follower of Christ for the remainder of his days. He was involved in many different church committees throughout his years but what impacted his life the most was the Children's Church, which he taught with his wife. He loved helping children learn about Christ and grow in their faith.

Chester was preceded in death by his mother, Irene, his father, Chester, Sr., and his sister, Susan. He is survived by his wife, Nita, his children, Jeremiah and Samantha, his grandchildren, Isabelle and Connor, his brother, Stephen (Lorna), and several cousins, nieces, and nephews.

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Our Father,
who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day, our daily bread.
And forgive us
our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not
into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Two archeologists, exploring a remote mountain in Tibet came across a huge granite statue which resembled a sitting man. It stood almost 400 foot tall, and its bodily details were accurate down to the fingernails and teeth.

“It looks real enough to talk,” says one.

“Lets try,” says the other and turning to the statue he asks it its name.

No answer.

“How old are you?”

No answer.

Finally, one shouts out, “What is the square root of 64?”

Suddenly, the mountain shakes as the giant statue rises onto its feet and puts its hand on its chin. Then after about ten seconds, the statue answers in a roaring voice, “Eight.”

“Of course!” says the scientist, “... It only stands to reason.”

} Chapter 9

Henry loved living in the woods. He had done it just about all of his life, wandering around sometimes setting up camp and living near the creek and the old caves for longer periods of time. He wanted so much to find Bruce but he knew that might be impossible now. He had no idea where Bruce was or how to find him. Days went by and Henry did not see a clue to help him find Bruce. One day he ran across an old timer that was on his way from one town to another. They stopped and made a pot of coffee and discussed things like the weather and when the snow storm might hit. As they were talking the old timer ask Henry how long it had been since he had stopped at the old grocery to get some supplies? Well, Henry said, about 4 days or so ago. The old timers goes on and wants to know if Henry knew about the terrible thing that happened to the old store and its owners? Henry told him no, I haven't heard a thing. Well let me tell you something, I have heard of massacres before like back when they use to have Indian raids, but nothing like this was ever done. The old timer went on to tell him that there wasn't one board left on top of the other on the house or the barn. Everything was destroyed. They found the owner and it looked like a big grizzly had come along and tore him to pieces. They looked for days, but never found a sign of the daughter, she is still missing. They don't know if she ran off or had been kidnapped. Either way, she is gone. Someone told the town people that they saw a gargoyle leaving as they came up. Wonder what he was doing there? Henry was shocked. He wondered what could have happened to those poor folks. After a little while the old timer moved on and Henry began to think about what he thought might have happened. Bruce must have been very mad when he left. He could have gone and got some help and gone back. What a terrible thing to have done to that old man and his daughter. But he just couldn't stop thinking about the gargoyle skull and skins that he had seen in that old barn. Really, how could he blame Bruce. That had to be some of his family in there. What was really going on? Were they killing gargoyles and selling their hides? Henry was sure that the people of that old town would be after whoever did that. You can't just let that kind of thing go on, someone has to answer for this crime. He had to find Bruce for sure now. He needed to let him know what was going on and to see if he could help the gargoyles. But first he needed to go back to the old barn and look around. Maybe the town people didn't know to look for gargoyle bodies. They might have been too busy looking for the old man and his daughter.
