Guess Who?

I am an actress born in New York on April 12, 1979. I made my film debut in 1994 in an adaptation of a book about women. My popular TV series about teenage angst only lasted one season, but I've had a successful career nonetheless.

Answer: Claire Danes

WHY IS REVELATION 17:15-18 SO IMPORTANT TO OUR FUTURE?

This scripture says the waters which you saw where the Harlot sits, are peoples and nations and different tongues. The 10 horses which you saw (10 nations) will hate this harlot and will make her desolate and naked and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire. This Harlot is the City of Rome who reigns over and controls the kings of the earth.

Folks these are all tools of Satan to use against God's creatures. Satan has great power but no authority. Jesus Christ is the only with authority. He is the Lord of all Lords and King of all Kings. Folks remember this, our world is an universal satanic system. Everyone is part of it unless they are sealed by the Holy Spirit. Folks you are either a Christian for Christ or you belong to Satan. Many in our world are turning from God to Satan and his worldly sins.

All nations would rather choose Satan's way of life over God's. Many will take his mark 666 and will serve him. Satan's way of life ruins people's minds to do these things which are evil. Wickedness, greed, evil, envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice, gossipers, slanderers, haters of God, love to do evil, disobedient to parents, without understanding, untrustworthy, no love for anyone but themselves.

Folks does any of these evil things mark your lives? Those who practice any of these things are worthy of death. Folks remember the 4 horsemen of Revelations 6:1-8? They are still at work. Satan's evil never stops. Folks read Revelation Chapter 6 of the Bible and find out what is coming to our world if it is not already here. God allows this punishment to our world because our world has rejected his son.

CHAPTER 8

Finally, morning came. I remember exactly what time he warmed up. It was 6 minutes till 7 am. They came in and checked all his vitals, nothing so far. It was complete silence, except for the beep of the monitor. We were so scared. What now? What happens now? Well, slowly at first, then a little more we noticed that his heart rate was not changing. His blood pressure was not going up or down, but staying constant. Was this a good sign, was this a bad sign? The doctor came in and made us go out of the room. He checked over his chart and looked over my son. He then came out of the room into the hallway and told us that everything was holding good, but... We just knew it was going to be bad. We hung on every word that came out of his mouth. Then he says, we need to get him down stairs and get that scan of his brain, because he had swelling of the brain when he came in and he wanted to see if there was any change. So now we are waiting on this scan. Remember they had him hooked up to about 6 IVs and at least 2 tubes. We did not see him go down. We waited, but they must have gone while we were back in the ICU waiting room praying. The time was going so slow. I walked down the hallway toward the ICU when one of the respiratory girls came out of the side door. I wasn't sure where the door went, but I thought it went downstairs and was just for staff. She had a big smile on her face and said to me in passing, "It's going to be a good day". I just smiled thinking I sure hope you are right lady; I sure hope you are right. Well, she must have thought I didn't get it, so she said, "He opened his eyes". I wasn't sure we were on the same page, but I asked who opened his eyes? The way she looked at me, I knew she was talking right to me. I said MY SON'S? She smiled and said YES. Well, I'm sorry, but I have to stop for a minute... She then just turned and continued walking toward the ICU. I was in full crying mode when the elevator behind me opened and there was my son with about 4 nurses. It looked like a parade. There were some holding tubes and some holding IV lines. One of the nurses that had been so good to us was at his head. She then looked at me with a big smile and said that during the scan he opened his eyes and that she was going to call the Doctor right now. Well, I just stood there for a minute crying like a baby. My wife and daughter-in-law were coming out of the waiting room and saw me. My son had already been carried into the ICU so they didn't see him. They came running up to me and said what's wrong, what's wrong. I'm sure they thought something bad happened and were already beginning to cry. I was crying so hard I could barely get the words out of my mouth. He opened his eyes I said. He opened his eyes. They even asked, who opened their eyes? I said, Shawn opened his eyes. We were crying so hard; everyone began to come out and join in. What a moment. We were not out of the woods, but my son was still there...
