

'Tis truly the season

This Advent season, you will have four chances to see your choir perform, in addition to the weekly worship services. Attending the concert at our own location on Saturday December 7th and purchasing a ticket for $15 will provide the added advantage of financially supporting your church.

However, the choir has been working diligently for several months at preparing the repertoire and we are grateful to Andrew for arranging three additional chances for us to strut our stuff. So, take a look, and pick your favoured dates to mark your calendar and enjoy some early Christmas music. Whether featured guests or in combination with others, our choir will perform some of our repertoire at each venue.

Please note some are on Saturday and some on Sunday
