

SNAPSHOT STUDIES

TERMS AND CONDITIONS - SNAPSHOT STUDIES 2022

1. Individual applicants only, no joint or organisation applications are permitted.
2. Closing date is non-negotiable. Submission date for final study is the 10th September, 2022. If your study includes a planned visit or course past the submission date, please make us aware in your initial application. If you require a later submission date, please email ambassador@tfctt.co.uk at the earliest opportunity.
3. No individual feedback will be available on successful or unsuccessful applications.
4. Funding awarded will be between £1,000 and £2,000 – only one application per person. Own time is not an allowable expense. Funding for professional advice such as coaching as an example, needs to be invoiced.
5. A budget template form (available from the website) will need to be completed and uploaded at application stage. Actual spend needs to be recorded on this budget and may be asked for on submission of your study along with appropriate receipts/invoices. Any underspend will need to be returned to the Trust within one week of submission of your final study.
6. Referee – Should be someone connected to your organisation, should you not have an organisation connection, please use a referee from one of the following organisations as an example (Member of the Farmers Club, NFU representative, College or University, Lawyer etc.)
7. Use of the final study – The Farmers Club Charitable Trust reserves the right to use the study submission freely, this maybe on social media, websites, events or other appropriate situations.
8. Funding will be released on the following terms: -
 - i) 80% at the start of your study
 - ii) 20% on submission of your 3 mins. study video
 - iii) Should you need to cancel your uptake of the study, or not submit your final study, funding should be returned immediately, but no later than one week past the submission closing date.
