

Home

Words and Music by Timothy Carman/Leon Ellis

For so long I walked this road
Time again my stories told
Times like these they never grow old
The more we change the more we don't

Hoping that you'll come my way
Looking for you everyday
Gee I wish that you could see
Just how much you mean to me

Hey- is it over yet?
Hell- is the place you can't forget
Hope- is a knocking on your front door
Won't you join me on my way-
Back home

Thank you for the thoughts you send
You are my one true friend
Guess I'll see you after a while
Just thinking 'bout you makes me smile

For so long I walked this road
Time again my stories told
Times like these they never grow old
The more we change the more we don't

Hey- is it over yet?
Hell- is the place you can't forget
Hope- is a knocking on your front door
Won't you join me on my way-
Back home
(Repeat)