

Worried Mind

Words and Music by Timothy Carman/Leon Ellis

Looks like I've nowhere left to go
Even though I think I should know
I need something for my worried mind
Just another stitch in time

I'm wondering just what to do
Tired of doing it all tired of being you
I need something for my worried mind
All the time to see me through

I live as the spirits on the road
And that's not something I need be told
But every now and then I'm fine
I've lost my way

I'm wondering just what I will do
And how I'm gonna see this through
Well I guess well I don't know quite yet
So my prayers will see me through

I guess I'll go out on the road
And see what fortunes will be told
I'm wondering just where it will be
But faith tells me to believe
