Words and Music by Timothy Carman/Leon Ellis

All the timings on the phone
They don't leave me alone
All the difference in the world
Won't take me down

All the difference on the wall
It don't bother me at all
Oh its too much to me
Gonna take you down

Oh look at everything
Don't you know
It don't mean a thing
I can tell you from the heart
I'm gonna take you down

Oh you know it's up to me
Carrying all insanities
All the truth was just to know
Gotta lot of not to say

Paint my weddings on the throne
It don't bother me at all
I can tell you for awhile
Clearly still the voice

I will get you on the phone
You will never be alone
Get my sesa-salami sandwich
Get it with a side of fries

All the difference made to me
It's the only way to be
I can make it from the start
You never get dawn remade

Exercise your will and choice
That will be your only voice
I can live in all the zones
Gotta say it served me well

Oh you know it's up to me
And you stake your charity
Someone gonna find a way

Ain't no worries ain't okay
Only time I wait to change
I can only take so much
I've actually found the way to go
Banking on the way to go

Makes no difference to me
It's my keystone fantasy
I will tell you fair thee well
Cauliflower agrees
With Mr Keppracorn
Riding down the line
Wishing for a better way a better way
And on and on and on and on and on

All indifference comes to me
In the best harmony
And you know you never know
Shared it all all really well
