

The Archangel

Words and Music by Timothy Carman/Leon Ellis

In a time when there was law and order
In a time when we're all feeling fine
Was a place in our hearts for each other

(CHORUS)

Why do you stay so long?
Why do you stay so long?
Why do you stay so long, so long?
Why do you stay so long?

T'was a place of dreams and magic
In a place of Light Divine
Where the saints could call on each other

(CHORUS)

(REFRAIN)

On the eve of destruction
Searching for the light
Blinded by self-absorption

(CHORUS)

If we share in our times of greatness
Don't forget about those left behind
We are here to take care of each other

(CHORUS)

Stop and look at the hands of your brothers
'Tis the same as you and I
The difference you see isn't real

(CHORUS)

(REFRAIN 2)

All this time- all this suffering
All the beauty left behind
Men of war oh so righteous

(CHORUS)

In a time of dreams and magic
In a place of light divine
Where the saints could call on each other

(CHORUS) (x2)
