

Bullying in sport

Across

4 According to O'Neill (2013) most high-performance school-age athletes attend what type of schools? (10)

6 When specific bullying actions target (insert word) performers it is often referred to as the tall poppy syndrome (10)

8 Verbal or physical aggression are what types of bullying? (8)

9 Which group of students were responsible for the majority of the bullying received by the female athletes? (6)

13 Who has identified 10 tips to promote resilience of character for people who feel they are being bullied? (6)

14 The ramifications of bullying for school-age female athletes by girl culture can lead to negative consequences such as social withdrawal or (insert word). (10)

15 How many of the participants in the study were homeschooled? (3)

17 What method was used to collect data from the participants? (9)

21 Marginalizing and spreading misinformation is known as what type of bullying? (6)

22 How many high-performance athletes were included in the study? (8)

23 Being (insert word) at school may make or break school-aged athletes. (7)

Down

1 Bullying of talented athletes is (insert word) across all school types and mirrors the prevalence of tall poppy syndrome behaviors in Australian culture (6)

2 The best athlete-friendly schools identify a distinct teacher with a pastoral (insert word) role who understands the challenges and issues confronting these athletes. (4)

3 O'Neill et al. suggest that the apparent lack of bullying through the nonresponses by these male athletes in the study requires further (insert word). (13)

5 The egalitarian nature of Australian society has led to culture of (insert word) towards successful individuals. (10)

7 Fuller (2012a) suggested schools have a responsibility to provide what type of training? (10)

10 The type of marginalised behavior exhibited towards female athletes in this study may also be attributed to what type of aggression by girls? (7)

11 All high-performance school-age athletes need to be monitored at school for excessive (insert word). (6)

12 Did the female participants experience bullying? (3)

16 Two female athletes reported withdrawing from school activities to escape bullying is a characteristic (insert word) strategy. (9)

18 Between 1 in 4, and 1 in 6 students are bullied in schools on a (insert word) basis. (6)

19 Regular and frequent communication between teachers, (insert word), and the coaches is vital (7)

20 Did the male participants experience bullying? (2)