Wednesday, November 9, 2022

6:00 p.m.

Purdue Cooperative Extension

2291 N. Main St.

Crown Point, IN 46307

Nathanael Pilla will be discussing the spectacular flora of the Indiana Dunes. Get to know a few of your floral neighbors!

Nathanael Pilla

Botanist, Orbis Environmental Consulting, Author, & Host of the "Botany and Beer" YouTube Channel

Nathanael is well versed in the flora of the Chicago region bringing his knowledge and charisma with him in and outside the workplace. He has experience in botanical research and plant identification. Using that knowledge he has co-authored the book

Wildflowers of the Indiana Dunes National Park along with Scott Namestnik.- an asset to the casual hiker of Indiana Dunes National Park, a useful tool to the experienced botanist, and a delight to anyone interested in wildflowers.

He has years of habitat management experience that include applied techniques in invasive species control and re-vegetation, prescribed fire application, vegetation surveys, greenhouse and nursery management, plant installation, seed mix design and rare plant monitoring. He has trained and led restoration crews, interns and volunteers in wetland restoration practices, and actively engages in environmental outreach and stewardship.
