

Director's Corner

Hi Gang,

Summer is here and the weather is fine!

You can see on the front page that we have a brand new rider all geared up and ready. Our Granddaughter, Adalynn has been waiting for years. She had to be big enough to touch the foot pegs and now she can.

I took her helmet shopping for her birthday. She didn't know where we were going. As we neared State 8 Motorcycles, she said, "Grandpa, I see a motorcycle but he's not wearing all his gear." I said, "He has a helmet on doesn't he?" Addy said, "Yes, but no jacket or gloves". (I was one proud grandpa). I told her she was absolutely right and we better pull in and buy her the right gear! She was more than surprised. We were unable to get a helmet with pink stripes but Addy made sure I knew that the green stripes are complementary to pink and would be fine. I'm wiring her helmet intercom now so she can be a proper Copilot!

One unexpected problem is her little sister Iyla wants to do everything that her big sister does. Hope we can hold her off for a few years!

Your Director,

Ron Good
