

Director's Corner

Hi Gang,

The Summer heat is in full swing. Hope everyone is enjoying the season. I've been grounded from my Goldwing for a while due to surgery.

Sitting on the sidelines, watching everything go on around me gives a perspective I don't often get when in the midst of everyday life.

A long motorcycle ride gives that same perspective, especially a long solo ride. You run out of things to occupy your thoughts and what really matters rises to the surface.

When you strip away all the rides, jobs, dinners, responsibilities and everyday interactions life throws at us, a clear look at life and how your time is spent rises to the surface.

Of course, on the material side of things you want to feel you have accomplished something worthwhile to pass on to your family and those you care about most. Maybe there's even the desire to leave something special behind for the world. If the ride is long enough, even those thoughts subside and you are left with how you have treated yourself and others.

When all is said and done, we are living our best lives when sharing unconditional love with those around us. It's all you need to do to make the world a better place. It's all that really matters and it's the best gift you can give!

Ride on my friends 🏍️

Your Director,

Ron Good
