The Athenians

The Athenians have appeared in both private and public events throughout the US and internationally. Based in New York City, The Athenians have built a reputation for their high-caliber performances presenting the best of opera, Broadway and the Great American Songbook.

AMF Concert Series

Featuring exceptional artists in imaginative and innovative programs, our concerts are performed in historic and dynamic venues like Carnegie Hall, the Kosciuszko Foundation House, the Lobero Theatre, and Swing 46.

Education

Young performers have the opportunity to appear alongside professional artists. Athena Music Foundation honors the capacity of each young person to create meaning and engender artistic imagination rooted in culturally responsive and inclusive practices.

Our Mission

Athena Music Foundation introduces new and diverse audiences to the power and beauty of opera and classical music by presenting thrilling performances showcasing great artistic talent in intimate and imaginative public and private venues. At Athena, we envision a world in which opera and classical music can be seen, heard, and enjoyed by growing audiences.
