

FINE ARTS

SUMMARY

Fine arts refer to the usage of art as a form and requires passion for imagining or creating. Its focus is on creating objects using concepts and ideas which bring out the aesthetics of that object. A professional degree in Fine Arts enables the students to gain knowledge and education pertaining to visual and performing arts. A student of fine arts can pursue majors in either design, sculpture, drama, music, pottery, painting and/or any other similar subject. Today, there are immense opportunities in the sector of Fine Arts with high income, popularity and prestige.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES IN FINE ARTS

- Art Studios
- Advertising Companies
- Graphic Arts
- Fashion Houses
- Print Making
- Publishing Houses
- Freelance Working
- Electronic Industry
- Animation
- Textile Industry
- Films and Theatre
- Art Teacher / Professor
- Multimedia Artist

HOW TO PURSUE A CAREER IN FINE ARTS

	Stream	Graduation	After Graduation	After Post Graduation
Path 1	Clear Class XII in Any stream	Pursue Bachelors in Fine or Visual Arts for 3 years	Pursue Masters in Fine or Visual Arts / PG Diploma / Study Abroad for 2 years	-
Path 2	Clear Class XII in Any stream	Pursue Diploma in Visual /Fine Arts For 1 year	Pursue PG Diploma in Fine Arts or Study Abroad for 2 years	-

IMPORTANT FACTS

- Person with entering knowledge of any form of art can perform better in the field of Fine Arts.
- Most college have eligibility criteria performance score of minimum 50% aggregate marks in Class XII
- Some colleges/ universities also have an age limit.
- Some colleges require English as a mandatory subject in class XII.
- Portfolio creation necessary for admission in some colleges.

TOP FINE ARTS INSTITUTES IN THE WORLD

Institution	Location
Royal College for Art	London, UK
Parsons School of Design	US
Rhode Island School of Design	RI, USA
Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT)	US
Pratt Institute	US
School of Art Institute of Chicago	US
Glasgow school of art	UK

WORK DESCRIPTION

- Create artwork in the form of sketches, paintings, sculptures or craft.
- Specialise in the 2D, 3D or 4D forms of art.
- Apply the knowledge of colours, texture, drawing, design, material, etc, to their creation.
- Work with editors, authors, art directors, technicians, designers to build and install creations.
- Sell the created artwork through galleries, exhibitions, shops, craft markets and trade fairs.
- Modify the products as per the requirements of the client or the organisation.
- Promote one's artwork to gain popularity.
- Build or join the network of group of artists.

PROS & CONS OF A CAREER IN FINE ARTS

PROS

- This course will provide you a solid foundation for self-expression.
- Provides endless opportunity for creativity.
- This course trains you to become skilled visual communicator.

CONS

- One should be ready for criticism as creativity is not always appreciated.
- Salary and perks are not high in initial stages of career.
- A lot of time investment is needed, so often family gets neglected.