

INTERIOR DESIGN

SUMMARY

People are becoming interested in customizing their homes as per their needs and choice in the urban as well as rural areas. This is where the interior designer steps in. The task of the Interior designer is to help clients in designing and decorating their homes & offices. They ensure that available space is utilized to the optimum level. Aesthetic and technical skills are applied to achieve the result. High levels of creativity and good spatial intelligence are required to have an enriching career as an interior designer.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES IN INTERIOR DESIGN

- Architectural firms
- Construction Firms
- Town and city planning bureaus
- Hotels and health resorts
- Design Studios
- Real estate companies
- Independent, self- employed interior designers
- Teaching in an institute that offers courses in interior designing

HOW TO BECOME AN INTERIOR DESIGNER

	Stream	Graduation	After Graduation	After Post Graduation
Path 1	Pass Class XII in Any Stream	Pursue B. Des. Interior Design for 3- 4 years	Pursue M.A. Des. in Interior Design for 2 years	-

	Stream	Graduation	After Graduation	After Post Graduation
Path 2	Pass Class XII in Any Stream	Pursue Diploma in Interior Designing for 1 year	Pursue Post Graduate Diploma in Interior Designing	-

IMPORTANT FACTS

Practical, industrial experience is a must. This can be achieved via internships or upon getting a job.

TOP INTERIOR DESIGN INSTITUTES IN THE WORLD

Institution	Location	Website
New York School of Fashion Design	New York	www.nysid.edu Copy
Pratt Institute	Brooklyn, New York	www.pratt.edu Copy
Florence Design Academy	Italy	www.florence设计academy.com Copy
Harrington College of Design	Chicago, Illinois	www.harrington.edu Copy
University of California (UCLA)	Los Angeles	www.universityofcalifornia.edu Copy

WORK DESCRIPTION

- Draw out preliminary designing plans, including electrical layouts.
- Present design and ideas to clients as per their needs and budgets.
- Design final plans and layouts using designing software.
- Define timelines for the interior design project and estimate associated project costs.
- Work closely with architects, structural & mechanical engineers to determine how interior spaces will look and be furnished.

- Coordinate and oversee the progress of the entire project.
- Source relevant materials and oversee the installation of the design elements.
- Stay abreast of recent progress in the design industry.

PROS & CONS OF A CAREER IN INTERIOR DESIGN

PROS

- Being an interior designer is a creative process. You will get immense pleasure when your customers appreciate your designs.
- The field will give you opportunities to meet different people.
- You get paid well if your skills are on point.

CONS

- If an interior designer is new in the market, they must set their cost at a lower level.
- You may be required to work for longer hours to meet the deadlines.
- You are required to read every individual's taste and customize accordingly.