

The World Turned Upside Down

Song written by Leon Rosselson and covered by Billy Bragg about the Diggers, a group of religious and political dissidents in 17th century England associated with agrarian socialism. Chords bolded above the lyrics, further notes on the music below. Sing along chorus bolded in italics. Billy Bragg version here.

E

In 1649

B

To St. George's Hill

A

A ragged band they called the Diggers

Came to show the people's will

They defied the landlords

They defied the law

They were the dispossessed

Reclaiming what was theirs.

Chorus:

We come in peace they said

To dig and sow

We come to work the lands in common

And to make the wastegrounds grow

This earth divided

We will make whole

So it will be a common treasury for all.

(instrumental)

The sin of property

We do disdain

No one has any right to buy and sell

The earth for private gain

By theft and murder

They took the land

Now everywhere the walls spring up at their command

They make the laws
To chain us well
They try to dazzle us with heaven
Or they damn us into hell
We will not worship
The god they serve
The god of greed that feeds the rich while people starve

(instrumental)

We work we eat together
We need no swords
We will not bow to the masters
Or pay rent to the lords
We are free
Though we are poor
You Diggers all stand up for glory stand up now.

(solos)

From the men of property
The orders came
They sent the hired men and troopers
To wipe out the Diggers claim
Tear down their cottages
Destroy their corn
They were dispersed but still the vision lingers on

(chorus)

(instrumental)

You poor take courage
You rich take care
This earth was made a common treasury
For everyone to share
All things in common
All people one
We come in peace the orders came to cut them down.
