Purpose, Power & Production Program

Our groundbreaking program empowers inmates through avenues of personal, professional, and purposeful development, facilitating their seamless reintegration into society, by offering vocational training and mentorship.

Our initiative not only enhances reentry success but also fosters entrepreneurship, enabling individuals to establish businesses and overcome past employment barriers.

Why Choose Us

- + Our program enhances access to services, improves mental health and reduces recidivism by nurturing self-discovery and setting concrete goals.
- + We address childhood trauma, promote self-love, and prepare inmates for successful reentry with discipline, intentionality, and purpose.
