2016 Royal Oak Arts Beats and Eats performance:

This group of young musicians are beyond their years in both talent and professionalism. They bring a raw energy to the stage that captures the attention of all in earshot. A for sure "Not-to-be-Missed!"

2016 Sandusky Lawn Chair Music Series performance:

Over the last 10 years we have produced 48 concerts for our community. When considering sound quality, professionalism and general entertainment, 3rd Degree Burns' performance ranked as one the top three ever put on in our series. Our audience just loved them!

2019 Paint Creek Center for the Arts – Art & Apples Festival:

*Hi Gary,
WOW is the correct word! They were fantastic! Such a joy to watch and have at our festival. Thank you very much for showing us how terrific 3rd Degree Burns is!! You definitely proved yourselves! Such great talent from their awesome voices, excellent instrument playing, and their passionate enthusiasm displayed by each and every band member!*

Obviously, I would love to have them back next year; however, we typically go through a group decision-making process of all applicants in May. However, I do know that everyone thought you were great! I will see what I can do about getting you an answer, sooner than May, regarding tentatively placing our festival on your schedule.

Thank you again for an unforgettable, outstanding performance!

*Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

We had the privilege to work with band 3rd Degree Burns and their director Gary Burns this past year during our 33rd Frankenmuth Auto Fest. We have several different bands playing throughout the city of Frankenmuth during the Big Block Party, and 3rd Degree Burns had one of the larger crowds listening and dancing to their music.

From the start, Gary was very pleasant to work with and the students' opportunity to play remained his first priority. With over 80,000 people walking up and down the streets that night, this band definitely made people stop, listen, and recognize how much talent these young adults had. They played classic rock and other genres that made all ages get off their feet and dance.

They were outstanding this past year, and blew our expectations out of the water. We already have booked them for next year, and we highly recommend them to play at your next event as well.

If you have any question, don't hesitate to call our office at (989) 652-6964.

Thank you,
