STAR House Progress Update

A huge thank you to JCorp Design Build for helping us navigate the building code requirements! An architect has drafted the plans and is in conversations with the city on the final code review. Next step when this is complete - on to the egress!

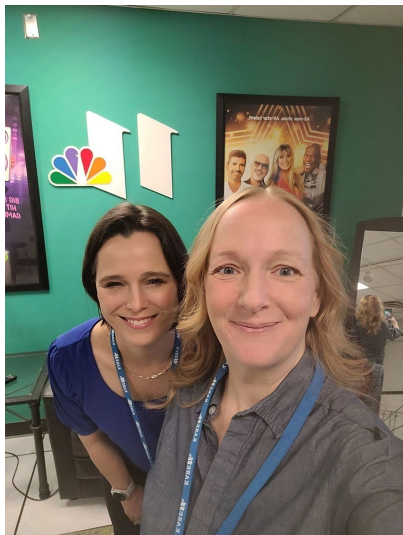

How You Can Help

As we work diligently to meet the new building zone requirements and secure our final licensing, we invite you to be part of this crucial journey by making a financial donation. Your donation directly supports the installation of our egress window!

We're 47% of the way to our goal!
