What is a credit report?	A credit report is a record of your credit history. It includes information about whether you pay your bills on time and how much you owe to creditors.
How did we use your credit report?	We used information from your credit report to set the terms of the credit we are offering you, such as the Annual Percentage Rate.  The terms offered to you may be less favorable than the terms offered to consumers who have better credit histories.
What if there are mistakes in your credit report?	You have the right to dispute any inaccurate information in your credit report.  If you find mistakes on your credit report, contact Transunion, which is the consumer reporting agency from which we obtained your credit report.  It is a good idea to check your credit report to make sure the information it contains is

Notice to Cosigner Form

Principal borrower is
NOTICE TO COSIGNER
You are being asked to guarantee this debt. Think carefully before you do. If the borrower does not pay the debt, you will have to do so. Be sure you can afford to pay if you have to, and that you want to accept this responsibility.
You may have to pay up to the full amount of the debt if the borrower does not pay. You may also have to pay late fees or collection costs, which increases this amount.
The creditor can collect this debt from you without first trying to collect from the borrower. The creditor can use the same collection methods against you that can be used against the borrower, such as suing you, garnishing your wages, etc. If this debt is ever in default, that fact may become a part of you credit record.
This notice is not the contract that makes you liable for the debt.
