AxMltax by the numbers: a discussion

AxMltax is ballot proposal designed to eliminate property taxes in Michigan. Proponents claim it will save people's homes and stimulate the economy, while skeptics say the effects are not vetted and are unsustainable. We will examine the numeric value of AxMltax and determine specific fiscal effects of passing this proposal.

Special 8 p.m. guest: Meghan Reckling

Meghan will provide an overview of all ballot proposals submitted and currently circulating, as well as information on those her company, Victory Field Operations, are involved with.
