RECEIVER GEOFF WINKLER'S CORRECTED MOTION TO APPROVE
SETTLEMENT WITH WELLS FARGO
BANK, N.A.¹

Geoff Winkler (the "Receiver"), as Court-appointed receiver for J&J Consulting Services, ¹ The Receiver files this corrected Motion to attach a copy of the Settlement Agreement.

1 Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J
2 Purchasing LLC, a Florida limited liability company (the “Receivership Entities”), moves for 3 preliminary approval of a proposed settlement with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Wells Fargo”) and 4 Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly,
5 and Clint and Dan McDaniel (the “Class Plaintiffs”), individually and as class representatives in the 6 pending class action case captioned In re J&J Investment Litigation, No. 2:22-cv-00529 (D. Nev.)
7 (the “Class Action”). A true and correct copy of the Class Action and Receiver Settlement
8 Agreement and Release (the “Settlement Agreement”) is attached as Exhibit 3 hereto.²

9 INTRODUCTION

10 After three years of hard-fought litigation against Wells Fargo and three mediation sessions,
11 the Receiver seeks the Court’s approval of a $50 million settlement (the “Settlement”). In the case
12 captioned Winkler v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 2:23-cv-00703 (D. Nev.) (the “Receiver Action”), 13 the Receiver alleged, among other things, that Wells Fargo aided and abetted the Ponzi scheme at 14 issue in this Action (the “J&J Investment Scheme”), to the detriment of the Receivership Entities.
15 In the Class Action, the Class Plaintiffs made similar allegations, seeking recovery on a class-wide
16 basis for the net losses of investors in the J&J Investment Scheme. Wells Fargo denies these 17 allegations and has vigorously defended itself in both lawsuits. The Settlement, if approved by the 18 Court in this Action and in the Class Action, would resolve both lawsuits.

19 The Receiver will use the net proceeds from the $50 million settlement to make distributions
20 to Class, which is defined as persons who invested in the J&J Investment Scheme and who suffered
21 a loss of their principal investment. In other words, the Class Members are the net losing investors 22 who will be entitled to distributions based on the previously approved claims and notice process.
23 [ECF 821, 845]. The Receiver will make these distributions to Class Members based on their claims 24 submitted and determined in this Action, pursuant to the anticipated plan of distribution. The 25 recovery here will therefore provide a quick and substantial benefit to investors and reduce the 26 overall claims against the Receivership Estate.

27
28 ² Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms in this Motion shall have the meaning attributed to them in the Settlement Agreement.

1 In exchange for its $50 million payment, Wells Fargo wants protection from future
2 allegations that it improperly participated in J&J Investment Scheme. The proposed Settlement is 3 thus structured as a global settlement of the Receiver Action and the Class Action. The Settlement
4 would resolve claims by the Receiver, claims by anyone claiming through or in connection with the 5 Receivership Entities, and class-wide claims by investors who lost money. To memorialize the 6 “global peace” required by the Settlement, the Receiver and Wells Fargo also seek a Bar Order
7 enjoining creditors, non-class member investors, and persons or entities affiliated with the 8 Receivership Entities from bringing claims against Wells Fargo arising from Beasley’s Ponzi
9 scheme. These individuals and entities, which are identified on the Bar Order Notice List, will 10 receive notice of the proposed Bar Order and the opportunity to exclude themselves from its scope.³

11 Based on the sizable settlement payment, the nature of the claims, and the attendant litigation
12 risks, the Receiver submits that the Settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate.
13 Through this Motion, the Receiver seeks preliminary approval of the Settlement by the Court in this
14 Action.⁴ The Settlement requires as a condition precedent entry of a preliminary approval order
15 substantially in the form of Exhibit 4 thereto. Preliminary approval here entails a preliminary finding 16 that the Settlement is fair and equitable, preliminary approval of the form of the Bar Order, approval
17 of the notice to those on the Bar Order Notice List, establishment of a procedure for those individuals
18 to exclude themselves, and the scheduling of a hearing at which the Court will consider whether to 19 grant final approval to the Settlement and enter the Bar Order.

20 If the Court grants preliminary approval, the parties and the Settlement Administrator will 21 proceed with the required notice and administrative processes. Class Members and those on the Bar
22 Order Notice List will then have the option of objecting or opting out of the Settlement. Following 23 that and in anticipation of the final approval hearings, the Receiver and the Class Plaintiffs will 24 move in their respective cases for final approval. The Receiver therefore asks that the Court grant
25

26 ³ As explained below, if the Bar Order is not entered or if a certain number of persons exclude 27 themselves from the scope of the Bar Order, Wells Fargo will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the Settlement.

28 ⁴ In the Class Action, the Class Plaintiffs are contemporaneously seeking preliminary approval of the Settlement, but under Rule 23(e).

preliminary approval of the Settlement and set that process in motion.

BACKGROUND

This Action, the Receiver Action, and the Class Action arise from the J&J Investment Scheme. As the Court is aware, attorney Matthew Beasley is alleged to have orchestrated a massive Ponzi scheme using promoters operating under Jeffrey Judd and J&J Consulting Services, Inc. [See generally ECF 792-1 (forensic accounting report)]. The settlement contracts in which investors were ostensibly buying interests simply did not exist. [Id. at 19-20]. According to the Receiver's forensic analysis led by John B. Hall, the J&J Investment Scheme resulted in investor losses exceeding $240 million and losses to over 900 investors. [Id. at 9].

I. The Litigation

In the Receiver Action, filed May 2023, the Receiver prosecuted four counts against Wells Fargo: (I) aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty; (II) aiding and abetting fraud; (III) aiding and abetting conversion; and (IV) violation of the Nevada Uniform Fiduciaries Act. Receiver Action, ECF 1 ¶¶ 179-225. The Receiver alleged that Wells Fargo knowingly assisted and encouraged Beasley's mismanagement and diversion of investment funds, which should have been deployed by the Receivership Entities for investment purposes. E.g., id. ¶¶ 1-12. Accordingly, the Receiver, on behalf of the Receivership Entities, sought damages for Wells Fargo's alleged participation in the J&J Investment Scheme. Id. ¶ 178.

The Class Plaintiffs⁵ brought similar claims against Wells Fargo. Class Action, ECF 37. They alleged that Wells Fargo aided and abetted Beasley's Ponzi scheme, resulting in damages to investors in the J&J Investment Scheme. Id. ¶¶ 37-91. There, Wells Fargo moved to dismiss the claims and moved to stay discovery. Class Action, ECF 39, 44. Magistrate Judge Koppe denied the motion to stay discovery on September 28, 2022. Class Action, ECF No. 53. And Judge Navarro largely denied Wells Fargo's motion to dismiss on March 18, 2023. Class Action, ECF No. 74.

The Receiver, Class Plaintiffs, and Wells Fargo then agreed to coordinate discovery across cases. Receiver Action, ECF 22. All told, Plaintiffs' counsel reviewed tens of thousands of documents and deposed 17 current and former Wells Fargo employees and Wells Fargo's Rule 30(b)(6) designee. Joint Declaration of Counsel ("Counsel Decl."), attached as Exhibit 1, ¶ 12. These depositions took place from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to Bend, Oregon and New York to Las Vegas. Id. Plaintiffs' counsel collectively served seven sets of requests for production, six sets of interrogatories, and four sets of requests for admission. Id. For its part, Wells Fargo served Plaintiffs with ten sets of requests for production, five sets of interrogatories, and two sets of requests for admission. Id. ¶¶ 13-15. The Receiver produced hundreds of thousands of pages of documents. Id. ¶ 15. Wells Fargo deposed the Receiver, his forensic accountant, and all eight Class Plaintiffs. Id. ¶¶ 13, 15-16. Wells Fargo also served third-party discovery on the former named class plaintiffs (who were not named in the Consolidated Class Action Complaint), on the LLCs some Class Plaintiffs formed for investment purposes, and on other investors in the Ponzi scheme. Id. ¶ 14. Class Counsel represented these non-parties for discovery purposes. Id. During discovery, the parties held dozens of meet-and-confer discussions. Id. ¶¶ 12-15. Through those efforts, they were able to resolve a number of issues, but ultimately filed six discovery motions before Magistrate Judge Koppe, with decisions in Plaintiffs' favor on some and Wells Fargo's on others. Id. ¶¶ 12, 15; see also Class Action, ECF Nos. 62, 69, 96, 148, 172, 268.

Concurrently with fact discovery, Class Plaintiffs and the Receiver retained a banking-industry expert; an expert in the proper use of IOLTAs; and the Receiver's chief forensic accountant as an expert on damages. Counsel Decl. ¶ 16. Wells Fargo retained a banking-industry expert and a forensic accounting expert. Id. The parties exchanged opening and rebuttal reports and deposed each of the opposing party's experts. Id.

After the completion of fact and expert discovery, the parties fully briefed Wells Fargo's motion for summary judgment on the Receiver's claims. Receiver Action, ECF 137, 140, 147. The parties also briefed Class Plaintiffs' motion for class certification. Class Action, ECF No. 188. Wells Fargo moved to strike the declaration of Receiver Geoff Winkler (filed in support of Class Plaintiffs' class certification motion) and moved for summary judgment on the Class Plaintiffs' claims. Class Action, ECF 204, 219. The parties briefed four motions to exclude expert testimony. See Class Action, ECF Nos. 246, 201, 208, 264. These motions remained pending as of August 27, 2025, the

1 date that the Court granted the parties' joint stipulation to stay the cases to mediate. Receiver Action,
2 ECF No. 158.

3 II. The Settlement Efforts

4 Over the course of the litigation, the parties in both the Receiver Action and the Class Action
5 participated in three separate mediation sessions with Robert A. Meyer, Esq., of JAMS. Counsel
6 Decl. ¶ 19. After mediating unsuccessfully in October 2023 and February 2024, the parties mediated
7 again with Mr. Meyer on October 1, 2025. Id. The parties reached an agreement in principle at the 8 close of the final session. Id. Following that initial agreement, the parties negotiated the Settlement
9 Agreement, and related documents, along with the logistics of settlement approval. Id. ¶ 20. On 10 April 21, 2026, the parties executed the Settlement Agreement.

11 THE SETTLEMENT

12 The Settlement is among Class Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class Members, the Receiver, and 13 Wells Fargo, and, if approved, disposes of all the claims in the Class Action and Receiver Action.
14 The Settlement is subject to review and approval by the Court in this Action and the Class Action.

15 I. Material Terms

16 The Settlement calls for Wells Fargo to pay $50 million to the Receiver to be distributed,
17 net of court-approved attorneys' fees and costs, to the Settlement Class Members, pro rata according 18 to their respective loss, as determined by the Receiver's distribution plan in this Action. Settlement
19 §§ 3.1, 5.1. In exchange, Class Plaintiffs, Settlement Class Members, and the Receiver will release
20 and be barred from reasserting claims against Wells Fargo "that in any way concern, arise out of, or 21 relate to in any way to the following: any claims arising from or relating to the J&J Investment
22 Scheme, including the claims, events, transactions, or circumstances that were or could have been 23 alleged in the Class Action, the Receiver Action, or the SEC Action, based on the facts alleged or 24 which arise out of or relate to facts alleged." Id. §§ 1.45, 10.1. The Receiver's release includes 25 claims he holds as receiver as well as those of the Receivership Entities. Id. § 1.47.

26 A material component of the Settlement is the Bar Order, which would enjoin those on the 27 Bar Order Notice List from bringing claims against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment
28 Scheme. Id. §§ 1.3-1.6, 2.7.2. The Bar Order Notice List includes creditors, non-class member investors, and persons or entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities. Id. § 1.6. Members of the Bar Order Notice List, however, will have the opportunity to exclude themselves from the Bar Order or object to the Bar Order. Id. §§ 11.2, 12.2. If the Bar Order is not entered or if more than the specified number of persons (as set forth in a confidential side agreement) opt out from the Bar Order, Wells Fargo has the right, but no obligation, to terminate the Settlement. Id. § 13.4.

The Settlement also resolves the claims of Settlement Class Members, which includes “All natural and legal persons who invested in a J&J Entity lawsuit settlement contract between January 2017 and March 2022 and who incurred a loss of their principal investment (in whole or in part) as determined by the Receiver pursuant to his court-appointed duties and as identified in the Receiver’s official records submitted to the Court in the SEC Action.” Id. § 1.12. Thus, the Settlement Class definition ensures that only those who actually lost money in the scheme (“net losers”) recover, and those who profited from their investments (“net winners”) do not. These net losers are the same persons who will be entitled to distributions by the Receiver pursuant to the SEC Distribution Plan, but the Settlement allows net losers who did not previously submit a claim with the Receiver to do so, but only as to distributions from the Settlement Fund. Id. §§ 1.10, 1.52, 5.1.

II. Notice and Final Approval Process

Because of the Bar Order and Rule 23(e) components, the Settlement is subject to approval by the Court in this Action and in the Class Action, both for preliminary and final approval. Id. §§ 2.4, 2.7. The Settlement requires appointment of Stretto, Inc. as Settlement Administrator to distribute (i) the Bar Order Notice to those on the Bar Order Notice List and (ii) the Class Notice to those on the Class Notice List.⁶ Id. §§ 2.5-2.6. As to timing and coordination of the approval processes in each court, to avoid potentially confusing class members, the parties propose that the Bar Order Notice and the Class Notice only issue upon the later of an order granting preliminary approval in the Class Action and an order granting preliminary approval in this Action. Id. §§ 1.7, 1.22.

The Class Members, i.e., net loser investors known from the Receiver’s records, will be ⁶ Retaining Stretto, rather than another vendor, makes sense here because the Receiver is already employing Stretto for administrative support associated with the Receivership. Receiver Decl. ¶ 13.

1 notified of the Settlement, their right to opt out or object, and their right to submit a claim to the 2 Settlement Fund in the event they did not previously submit a claim pursuant to the Receiver's
 3 claims process. Id. § 7.1, Ex. 1. Those on the Bar Order Notice List will be advised of the Settlement,
 4 the effect of the Bar Order, and their right to opt out or object. Id. § 7.2, Ex. 3. The proposed notices
 5 are written in plain English and clearly explain the consequences of the Settlement and the affected
 6 parties' rights. See id., Exs. 1, 3. The Settlement Administrator will be responsible for giving notice
 7 and then receiving and processing opt outs and objections, as well as other administrative tasks. Id.
 8 § 6. Following the notice, opt out, and objection periods, the Receiver will move in this Action for 9 final approval of the Settlement. Id. § 15.1. The Court would then consider at the SEC Final 10 Approval Hearing whether to approve the Settlement. Id. § 1.53.

11 III. Attorneys' Fees and Costs

12 The Settlement allows Plaintiffs' counsel to seek up to 33.33% of the Settlement Fund, or 13 $16.6 million, as attorneys' fees, along with up to $900,000 in litigation expenses.⁷ Id. § 16.1. The 14 Class Plaintiffs will move for individual awards of $10,000 each in recognition of their service. Id.
 15 §§ 16.1, 16.4. Class Counsel will move for such awards in the Class Action 30 days after notice is 16 mailed and in advance of the final approval hearing, providing the Court with additional information
 17 to assess the propriety of the requests and class members sufficient time to react to the motion. Id.
 18 § 16.2. The Receiver's counsel will share in the fee award and expense reimbursement to Class
 19 Counsel. Id. § 1.2.

20 ARGUMENT

21 I. Legal Standard

22 "The power of a district court to impose a receivership . . . derives from the inherent power
 23 of a court of equity to fashion effective relief." SEC v. Wencke, 622 F.2d 1363, 1369 (9th Cir. 1980).
 24 "The primary purpose of equity receiverships is to promote orderly and efficient administration of 25 the Receivership Estate by the district court for the benefit of creditors." SEC v. Hardy, 803 F.2d
 26 1034, 1038 (9th Cir. 1986). "[T]he practice in administering an estate by a receiver . . . must accord

28 ⁷ This award of attorneys' fees also includes the fees for counsel in the Class Action and counsel in the Receiver Action.

1 with the historical practice in federal courts or with a local rule.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 66.

2 As the Ninth Circuit explained:

3 A district court’s power to supervise an equity receivership and to 4 determine the appropriate action to be taken in the administration of 5 the receivership is extremely broad. The district court has broad 6 powers and wide discretion to determine the appropriate relief in an
7 equity receivership. The basis for this broad deference to the district
8 court’s supervisory role in equity receiverships arises out of the fact
9 that most receiverships involve multiple parties and complex
10 transactions.

11 SEC v. Cap. Consultants, LLC, 397 F.3d 733, 738 (9th Cir. 2005) (citations omitted); see also CFTC
12 v. Topworth Int’l, Ltd., 205 F.3d 1107, 1115 (9th Cir. 1999) (“This court affords ‘broad deference’
13 to the court’s supervisory role, and ‘we generally uphold reasonable procedures instituted by the 14 district court that serve th[e] purpose of orderly and efficient administration of the receivership for 15 the benefit of creditors.’”).

16 Based on this framework, the Ninth Circuit will “generally uphold reasonable procedures
17 instituted by the district court that serve this purpose.” See Hardy, 803 F.2d at 1038. Under this 18 authority, the Court has the inherent authority to approve settlements involving the Receiver and the 19 Receivership Estate and provide ancillary relief. See SEC v. Peterson, 129 F.4th 599, 610-11 (9th 20 Cir. 2025). For example, the Court has discretion to bar or extinguish claims of third parties when 21 necessary to effectuate a fair and reasonable settlement that is in the best interests of the estate. See 22 id.

23 To approve such a settlement, the Court must find that it is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
24 United States v. Edwards, 595 F.3d 1004, 1012 (9th Cir. 2010) (“Before approving a settlement
25 agreement, the bankruptcy court is charged with considering the ‘fairness, reasonableness, and 26 adequacy’ of the agreement.”).⁸ Factors the Court should consider include:

27 (a) The probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if any, to be 28 encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the ⁸ Because the goals of a receivership are similar to bankruptcy proceedings, receivership courts look to bankruptcy principles and procedure for guidance. See SEC v. Cap. Cove Bancorp LLC, No. 815CV00980JLSJCX, 2017 WL 11643414, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Mar. 16, 2017) (applying Edwards standard for approval of settlement in receivership); SEC v. Ruderman, No. CV 09–02974 ODW (JCx), 2011 WL 5857452, at *3–*4 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2011) (same).

1 premises.

2 Id. (quoting In re A & C Props., 784 F.2d 1377, 1380–81 (9th Cir. 1986)). Moreover, compromises
3 are generally favored, and courts generally defer to the receiver’s business judgment in resolving
4 claims. See Cap. Cove Bancorp LLC, 2017 WL 11643414, at *2. While the Court should not
5 “rubber-stamp” receiver settlements, the Court “need not conduct an exhaustive investigation, hold 6 a mini-trial on the merits of the claims sought to be compromised, or require that the settlement be 7 the best that could possibly be achieved.” Ruderman, 2011 WL 5857452, at *4.

8 In approving receiver settlements and as part of the Court’s authority to equitably distribute 9 assets, the Court is empowered to issue bar orders enjoining third party claims. See SEC v. Peterson,
10 129 F.4th 599, 607-08 (9th Cir. 2025); see also Wenke, 622 F.2d at 1369-71 (approving third party
11 litigation stays in federal equity receiverships). Courts may do so when the claims are not 12 independent of the receivership and do not involve assets claimed by the receivership. See id. at 608.
13 Thus, if there is (i) substantial overlap between the receivership claims being compromised and the 14 third-party claims and (ii) the bar order is necessary to protect the receivership assets, the Court may 15 enter such a bar order. See id. at 608-09.

16 The first prong is satisfied when a receiver and the claimants both seek to recover from the 17 same third party for losses stemming from the same conduct, even if the receiver and the barred 18 claimants assert different legal theories of recovery. Id. at 608–09. The second prong may be 19 satisfied in a few ways. First, a bar order protects receivership assets when it is “a necessary 20 condition” of a settlement. Id. at 610. Similarly, a bar order implicates receivership assets when the 21 proposed settlement and bar order would avoid the additional expenditure of receivership resources
22 litigating against the defendant, avoid the possibility of the receiver being brought into other 23 litigation, or avoid the possibility of an indemnification claim by the defendant against the 24 receivership following a third party’s claims. Id. at 610-11. Based on those concerns and the Court’s
25 exclusive jurisdiction over receivership property, the Court has the authority to enter bar orders in 26 connection with receivership settlements. Id. at 613.

II. The Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

The Receiver submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and should be approved by the Court. Declaration of Geoff Winkler (the “Receiver Decl.”), attached as Exhibit 2, ¶ 17. The $50 million Settlement provides immediate and significant value to the receivership estate, as opposed to continuing the litigation for several more years and risking a lower recovery or none at all. Further, as explained above, the Settlement is the product of extensive adversarial litigation coordinated with the parallel Class Action. See Counsel Decl. ¶¶ 6-18. That litigation involved exhaustive discovery, motion practice, damages analyses, and expert matters. Id. The Settlement resulted from detailed and informed assessments of the claims by the Receiver and Class Plaintiffs and three mediation sessions with experienced mediator Robert A. Meyer. Id. ¶ 19. The entire time, Wells Fargo’s sophisticated counsel mounted a determined defense. Wells Fargo maintains it owed no duty to investors and did nothing wrong. The Settlement therefore constitutes a good faith, non-collusive, and arms-length agreement following years of intense litigation.

A. The Litigation Was Risky and Complex

The Edwards factors first focus on the claims that are being resolved.⁹ See Edwards, 595 F.3d at 1012 (“(a) The probability of success in the litigation; . . . (c) the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it”). While the Receiver is confident in the merits of his claims and his forensic accountant’s damages model, proceeding with litigation was inherently risky. Both the Receiver Action and Class Action are exceedingly complex cases requiring proof that Wells Fargo knowingly assisted Beasley in his fraud, attaching a timeframe to such knowing assistance, and quantifying damages flowing from such assistance. In the Receiver Action, the Receiver faced additional defenses challenging his standing and the damages recoverable by the Receivership Entities. In the Class Action, Class Plaintiffs faced challenges to class certification. These issues presented a complex and fact-heavy burden of proof as well as disputed legal questions with authority going both ways.

⁹ As for the other Edwards factor—difficulties in collection—the Receiver does not contend there would be attempts by Wells Fargo to disregard a money judgment or that Wells Fargo would be unable to satisfy such a judgment. See Edwards, 595 F.3d at 1012.

1 Wells Fargo focused on these issues and asserted them in connection with motions that, if
2 successful, would have effectively terminated the litigation. In the Receiver Action, Wells Fargo's
3 motion for summary judgment, along with motions to strike or exclude expert testimony, remained
4 pending. Counsel Decl. ¶ 17-18, 26. In the Class Action, similar motions, plus Class Plaintiffs'
5 certification motion, remained pending. Id. In both cases, Plaintiffs were awaiting these decisive
6 rulings and preparing for trial when the Court granted stays to allow for the third mediation. Id. Had 7 Wells Fargo been successful in one or more of these motions, the recovery would have been 8 jeopardized. Put simply, there were many ways in which Plaintiffs could have lost the case or had 9 their recoverable damages severely limited by court rulings.

10 After offsets for amounts recovered by the Receiver, and starting from the point in time when 11 Plaintiffs believe they stood a fair chance of proving a sufficient degree of knowledge on the part of 12 Wells Fargo to support aiding and abetting claims, Plaintiffs' Counsel estimate their recoverable
13 damage at trial in the range of approximately $121.95 million. Id. ¶ 27. Based on that assessment,
14 the $50 million recovery for the Settlement Class represents what is, in counsel's estimation, 41%
15 of the damages most likely to have been awarded at trial. Id. It bears emphasis that a jury at trial
16 (assuming Plaintiffs survived summary judgment, prevailed on class certification, and overcame 17 Wells Fargo's Daubert motions) could return a verdict for less or a defense verdict.

18 Even with a favorable verdict and judgment, the Receiver and investors would not be assured
19 a recovery anytime soon. Wells Fargo would have certainly moved for a new trial and, if not 20 successful, proceeded with appeals. Based on current statistics, the Ninth Circuit's median time for 21 disposition of an appeal is over 11 months.¹⁰ And of course, there always is some risk that the Court
22 of Appeals may reverse or vacate a judgment.

23 The Settlement here acknowledges the complexity, risks, and delays associated with 24 litigation. In fact, the recovery here compares rather favorably with past settlements in similar cases.
25 In most cases arising from fraudulent investment schemes, the settlement recovery has been 25% or

In short, the Settlement “provides a recovery that is proportionate to the successful prosecution of this action when discounts are factored in for the risk, time, and expense of fully litigating the case, and maximizes the funds available for distribution to creditors.” Cap. Cove Bancorp LLC, 2017 WL 11643414, at *2.

B. The Interests of the Estate

The Court also should focus on the significant benefit to the receivership estate created by the Settlement. See Edwards, 595 F.3d at 1012. The Settlement is structured so that net settlement proceeds will be distributed by the Receiver to Class Members, the same net loser investors entitled to distribution pursuant to the SEC Distribution Plan. Even if, for whatever reason, such an investor did not make a claim within the time period allowed by the Court’s Order Granting Motion for Order in Aid of Receivership (1) Setting a Claims Bar Date, (2) Approving Proposed Claim Form, and (3) Approving Summary Claim Procedures [ECF 845], that investor gets a second chance under the Settlement to submit a claim solely as to the Settlement Fund. Settlement §§ 1.10, 1.54, 5.1.

The net proceeds from the Settlement thus stand to benefit the investors for whom the Receiver works. See SEC v. TLC Invs. & Trade Co., 147 F. Supp. 2d 1031, 1037 (C.D. Cal. 2001) (“The Receiver, an arm of the Court, represents the interests of all the investors.”). Considering the tens of millions of dollars from the Settlement that will be available for distribution, the best interest of the estate will be served by approval of the Settlement to secure the recovery. See Ruderman, 2011 WL 5857452 at *4 (considering value of settlement to investors alongside “at least two of four scenarios [that] could result in the Receiver obtaining nothing”). Moreover, while only net loser investors stand to receive distributions from the Settlement Fund, Wells Fargo’s payment will necessarily reduce the overall claims against the receivership estate, thus allowing other claimants, if any, a greater pro rata share in general distributions and a greater chance for all claimants to ²² ECF No. 472 at 14-15.

1 maximize recovery on their loss. The receivership estate therefore realizes a significant benefit from
2 the Settlement.

3 III. The Proposed Bar Order, Notice, and Approval Process are Appropriate and 4 Necessary

5 The Bar Order is a condition of the Settlement, giving Wells Fargo the option to terminate
6 the Settlement if the Bar Order is not entered. Settlement § 13.4. The Bar Order will enjoin creditors,
7 non-class member investors, and persons or entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities, as set
8 forth in the Bar Order Notice List, from bringing claims arising from the J&J Investment Scheme.
9 Id. §§ 1.3-1.6, 2.7.2. Based on the proposed effect of the Bar Order, those on the Bar Order Notice
10 List will, following preliminary approval, receive via mail or email the Bar Order Notice attached
11 to the Settlement Agreement at Exhibit 3. Id. §§ 1.4, 2.4.2. The Bar Order Notice clearly explains
12 to recipients the nature of the Settlement, why they are included on the Bar Order Notice List, the 13 scope and effect of the Bar Order, their right to opt out of or object to the Bar Order, and how to 14 exercise their rights. See id. at Ex. 3. The Bar Order Notice uses plain English, with bold and 15 capitalized font where appropriate, and includes sections for key dates, recipients' options, and 16 common questions. See id. The Bar Order Notice will be mailed and emailed by the Settlement
17 Administrator no later than 30 days after the later of this Court granting preliminary and the Court
18 in the Class Action granting preliminary approval. Id. §§ 1.5, 1.7. Recipients of the Bar Order Notice
19 will then have a 60-day period within which to opt out of or object to the Bar Order. Id. §§ 1.8-1.9.

20 The Bar Order requested here is in line with the Ninth Circuit's guidance in Peterson. It is 21 an integral part of the Settlement because, along with the release by Settlement Class Members, the 22 Bar Order reduces the prospects of further litigation against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J
23 Scheme. Wells Fargo willingness to pay $50 million to conclude the litigation is conditioned on 24 achieving complete peace. Based on the nature of the claims compromised by the Receiver and 25 Wells Fargo's alleged role in the J&J Investment Scheme, the barred claims against Wells Fargo
26 necessarily arise from the same alleged conduct alleged in the Receiver Action. See Peterson, 129
27 F. 4th at 608-09. Any claim against Wells Fargo in connection with the J&J Investment Scheme by 28 a member of the Bar Order Notice List would have to allege the same conduct and seek the same

1 type of damages for allegedly facilitating the scheme. See id. Indeed, the Bar Order expressly covers
2 only claims against Wells Fargo that arise from the J&J Investment Scheme. Settlement § 1.3. Thus,
3 there is substantial overlap between the claims the Receiver is settling and the barred claims.

4 The Bar Order also is necessary to protect receivership assets. First, it is “a necessary
5 condition” of the Settlement. Peterson, 129 F. 4th at 610. The Bar Order is an express condition of 6 the Settlement; if it is not entered or if a certain number of persons opt out, Wells Fargo has the 7 option to terminate the Settlement. Settlement § 13.4. Similarly, the Bar Order protects receivership
8 assets because, absent the Settlement, the Receiver would continue expending resources in the 9 Receiver Action and there would exist the possibility of the Receiver being brought into related
10 litigation against Wells Fargo or subject to indemnification claims. See Peterson, 129 F. 4th at 610-
11 11. At bottom, the Bar Order is key to “enable the Receiver to collect as many assets as possible for 12 distribution among all defrauded investors.” SEC v. Kaleta, No. CIV.A. 4:09-3674, 2012 WL
13 401069, at *7 (S.D. Tex. Feb. 7, 2012), aff’d 530 F. App’x 360 (5th Cir. 2013).

14 The Bar Order notice and approval process also provide those on the Bar Order Notice List
15 with the “all the process due: notice and opportunity to be heard on the proposed settlement and bar
16 orders.” Zacarias v. Stanford Int’l Bank, Ltd., 945 F.3d 883, 903 (5th Cir. 2019); see also SEC v.
17 Elliott, 953 F.2d 1560, 1566 (11th Cir. 1992) (“Due process requires notice and an opportunity to 18 be heard.”). The Bar Order Notice and the process to disseminate it give due notice to those on the 19 Bar Order Notice List and the right to either object or opt out. See SEC v. Champion-Cain, No. 19-
20 cv-1628-LAB-AHG, 2022 WL 22912794, at *7 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 23, 2022). The proposed Bar Order
21 is thus appropriate and complies with due process.

22 IV. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Settlement and Establish the 23 Procedure and Timeline for Final Approval in this Action

24 As set forth above, the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and respects the rights
25 of persons affected by the Bar Order. The Receiver exercised his business judgment in 26 compromising the claims, and the receivership estate stands to benefit from tens of millions of 27 dollars in Settlement proceeds. The Receiver therefore asks the Court to enter the SEC Preliminary 28 Approval Order to set in motion the notice and final approval process. The SEC Preliminary Approval Order appoints the Settlement Administrator, approves and directs the form, manner, and method of notice, sets the key deadlines, and sets the SEC Final Approval Hearing. See Settlement at Ex. 4. The relevant approval dates in this Action, as contemplated in the Settlement Agreement, are as follows:

Event(s)	Deadline Under Settlement Agreement
Bar Order Notice Mailing Date	30 days after the later of entry of SEC Preliminary Approval Order or Class Preliminary Approval Order
Receiver to update website to contain Settlement Agreement, notices, and filings	Same as Bar Order Notice Mailing Date
Bar Order Objection Deadline and Bar Order Opt-Out Deadline	60 days after Bar Order Notice Mailing Date but not later than 30 days before SEC Final Approval Hearing
Deadline to file motion for entry of SEC Final Approval Order	14 days before SEC Final Approval Hearing
Deadline for responses to motion for final approval of Settlement	7 days before SEC Final Approval Hearing
SEC Final Approval Hearing	At least 121 days following later of SEC Preliminary Approval Order or Class Preliminary Approval Order

In the meantime, Class Plaintiffs seek similar relief under Rule 23, so all the conditions precedent to the Settlement are met. Following these preliminary approvals and satisfaction of the noticing obligations, the parties will move for final approval of the Settlement. The Receiver thus asks the Court to enter the SEC Preliminary Approval Order so the parties may proceed with the Settlement.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Receiver respectfully requests entry of the SEC Preliminary Approval Order, along with such other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Interim Co-Lead Counsel

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

In re J&J Investment Litigation

Case No.: 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK

JOINT DECLARATION OF PLAINTIFFS' COUNSEL IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY
APPROVAL OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

We, Daniel C. Girard of Girard Sharp LLP, David Stein of Gibbs Mura LLP, and Robert L. Brace of Law Offices of Robert L. Brace (collectively, “Class Counsel”), and Jeffrey C. Schneider of Levine Kellogg Lehman Schneider + Grossman LLP (“Receiver Counsel”), submit this Joint Declaration in support of the motions for preliminary approval of Plaintiffs’ settlement (the “Settlement”) with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.

I. Introduction

1. Class Counsel serves as interim co-lead counsel for Plaintiffs Barrett Henzel, Allan L. Carso, Gary W. Lundin, Joshua Luekenga, Brye Kelly, Craig Rodney Michaelis, and Clint and Dan McDaniel (“Class Plaintiffs”) in In re J&J Investment Litigation, No. 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK (D. Nev.) (the “Class Action”).

2. Receiver Counsel serves as counsel for Plaintiff Geoff Winkler, as court-appointed receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, Florida limited liability company, in Winkler v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 2:23-cv-00703-GMN-NJK (D. Nev.) (the “Receiver Action”).

3. We submit this Joint Declaration based on our personal knowledge, information obtained during the course of the Class Action and Receiver Action, and review of our firms’ files related to these actions. If called as a witness, each could and would competently testify to the below facts.

4. After years of litigation, including three mediation sessions, Class Plaintiffs and the Receiver reached a settlement to resolve the Class Action and Receiver Action, both pending against Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Wells Fargo”). A true and correct copy of the Settlement Agreement and Release is attached as Exhibit 1 to the motion for preliminary approval.¹

5. The Settlement, if approved by the applicable courts, will result in a $50,000,000 payment for the benefit of the Settlement Class and the receivership estate.

¹ Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings identified in the Settlement Agreement and Release.

II. Litigation Efforts of Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel

6. On March 25, 2022, the Class Action was commenced against Jeffrey Judd, J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada corporation, J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation, J&J Purchasing, LLC, Matthew Beasley, and Beasley Law Group PC as Henzel v. Judd. Following the commencement of the Class Action, three additional lawsuits were brought arising out of the collapse of Beasley’s alleged Ponzi scheme: Dowdy v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 2:22-cv-00631-GMN-NJK (D. Nev.); PMM3, LLC v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 2:22-cv-00654-GMN-NJK (D. Nev.); and Lewis v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 2:22-cv-00658-GMN-NJK (D. Nev.). On June 3, 2022, the parties in the four actions moved to consolidate the cases and to appoint interim class counsel. The same day, the Court granted the motion and retitled the Class Action In re J&J Investment Litigation.

7. On April 12, 2022, the Securities and Exchange Commission sued Beasley, Judd, their affiliated entities, and other individuals associated with the alleged Ponzi scheme and, shortly thereafter, obtained an order appointing the Receiver. See SEC v. Beasley, No. 2: 22-cv-0062-CDS-EJY (D. Nev.) (the “SEC Action”).

8. Class Plaintiffs filed a consolidated class action complaint against Wells Fargo on July 5, 2022, asserting claims for (1) violations of the Uniform Fiduciaries Act, Nev. Rev. Stat. Ann. §§ 162.010, et seq., (2) aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, (3) aiding and abetting fraud, and (4) negligence.

9. In August 2022, Wells Fargo moved to dismiss Class Plaintiffs’ complaint and moved to stay discovery pending its motion to dismiss. The Court denied the motion to stay in September 2022. The Court then largely denied Wells Fargo’s motion to dismiss in March 2023—dismissing only Class Plaintiffs’ negligence claim.

10. The Receiver brought the Receiver Action against Wells Fargo in May 2023, asserting claims for (1) aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, (2) aiding and abetting fraud, (3) aiding and abetting conversion, and (4) negligence. The Receiver voluntarily dismissed his negligence claim.

1 11. In the interest of judicial economy, the Receiver, Class Plaintiffs, and Wells Fargo
2 agreed to coordinate discovery between the Class Action and the Receiver Action. Class Counsel
3 and Receive Counsel additionally coordinated their efforts to avoid duplicative labor and, where 4 appropriate and permitted, shared information relevant to Class Plaintiffs' claims and the 5 Receiver's claims.

6 12. The Parties engaged in significant, contested fact discovery. Class Plaintiffs served
7 Wells Fargo with five sets of requests for production, five sets of interrogatories, and three sets of 8 requests for admission, and the Receiver served two sets of requests for production, a set of 9 interrogatories, and a set of requests for admission. Plaintiffs' Counsel met and conferred at length
10 with Wells Fargo's counsel, and filed three motions to compel in January 2023, October 2024
11 (joined by the Receiver), and August 2025. Plaintiffs' Counsel reviewed, sorted, and tagged tens 12 of thousands of pages of documents produced by Wells Fargo, using many of these documents to 13 examine witnesses and build their case. Plaintiffs' Counsel deposed 17 current and former Wells 14 Fargo employees and Wells Fargo's Rule 30(b)(6) designee. These depositions took place from 15 Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to Bend, Oregon and New York City, New York, to Las Vegas, Nevada.

16 13. Wells Fargo served five sets of requests for production, four sets of interrogatories, 17 and a set of requests for admission on Class Plaintiffs. Class Counsel devoted significant time and 18 resources to preparing responses to these requests. Class Counsel negotiated the scope of these 19 discovery requests with Wells Fargo's counsel and opposed Wells Fargo's motion to compel
20 discovery from Class Plaintiffs, filed in June 2023. The Court largely denied Wells Fargo's 21 motion. Class Plaintiffs, in consultation with Class Counsel, produced thousands of pages of 22 documents and served responses to interrogatories. Additionally, each of the Class Plaintiffs 23 appeared for a full-day deposition.

24 14. Wells Fargo served document subpoenas on the former named plaintiffs, who were 25 not named in the Consolidated Class Action Complaint, on the Class Plaintiffs' entities, and on 26 certain investors in Beasley's scheme. Class Counsel represented these third parties for the 27 purposes of Wells Fargo's discovery requests. Class Counsel engaged in meet-and-confer efforts
28 for this third-party discovery and successfully defended Wells Fargo's motion to compel subpoena

1 responses from the former named plaintiffs, filed in February 2023. For their part, Class Counsel
2 subpoenaed former Wells Fargo employees, third-party banks, the State Bar of Nevada, and the 3 Department of Justice.

4 15. Likewise, Receiver Counsel expended significant effort to respond to Wells
5 Fargo's discovery requests. Wells Fargo served five sets of requests for production, a set of 6 interrogatories, and a set of requests for admission on the Receiver. These requests also resulted in 7 hours of meet-and-confer efforts and Wells Fargo filing a motion to compel documents from the 8 Receiver. The Receiver ultimately produced hundreds of thousands of pages of documents,
9 including all documents produced in the SEC Action, and answered interrogatories. The Receiver
10 also sat for a full-day deposition.

11 16. In addition to fact discovery, the Parties completed expert discovery. Plaintiffs'
12 Counsel retained Kenneth Simmons, a banking-industry expert; David Clark, a member of the 13 Nevada Bar and an expert in the proper use of attorney trust accounts (or IOLTAs); and John Hall,
14 the Receiver's forensic accountant, who led the forensic investigation to calculate Class Plaintiffs'
15 and the Receiver's damages. Wells Fargo, for its part, retained a banking-industry expert and a
16 forensic accounting expert. The Parties exchanged reports on October 31, 2024, and rebuttal
17 reports on December 20, 2024. Wells Fargo's experts were then deposed by Plaintiffs, and 18 Plaintiffs' experts were deposed by Wells Fargo.

19 17. After the close of fact discovery, Class Plaintiffs moved for certification in 20 February 2025. Wells Fargo then moved for summary judgment in both the Class Action and the 21 Receiver Action in April 2025. The Parties also filed five Daubert motions to exclude expert 22 opinions during this period.

23 18. Seven substantive motions were fully briefed and pending before the Court (with 24 accompanying motions to seal), four motions had been filed and not yet fully briefed, and 25 Plaintiffs' Counsel had begun preparing for trial when the Parties agreed to a mediation session. In 26 August 2025, the Parties requested that the Court stay the cases pending mediation. The Court
27 granted the stay and denied the Parties' motions without prejudice in light of the stay.
28

1 19. The Parties held three mediation sessions with Robert A. Meyer, Esq., of JAMS.
 2 The first two sessions—held in October 2023 and February 2024—were unsuccessful. Following
 3 the third mediation session, held on October 1, 2025, the parties agreed in principle to the present
 4 $50 million settlement.

5 20. After the Parties reached agreement in principle, they negotiated the settlement
 6 agreement and worked cooperatively to finalize the supporting documents and necessary filings.

7 III. The Settlement

8 21. The Settlement, memorialized in Exhibit 1, calls for a global settlement among 9 Class Plaintiffs on a class-wide basis, the Receiver, and Wells Fargo.

10 22. The Settlement requires approval by the Court in the Class Action as a class
 11 settlement under Rule 23 and approval in the SEC Action.

12 23. The Settlement contemplates distribution of net proceeds by the Receiver based on 13 his distribution plan, which will be submitted for approval in the SEC Action. It also requires the 14 Receiver, who has identified contact information for investors, to provide this contact information
 15 to Stretto Inc. Stretto, who has previously worked with the Receiver to provide notices to investors
 16 and creditors in the SEC Action, will give notice to Class Members for purposes of the Class
 17 Action and in accordance with approval of the Court in the SEC Action.

18 24. The Court in the SEC Action will hear any objections from individuals other than 19 Class Members (such as creditors and net-winning investors), and the Court in the Class Action
 20 will hear any Class Member objections. To the extent that there are any objections in either the 21 SEC Action or the Class Action, the parties will inform the other court.

22 25. As part of the Settlement, the Parties have entered into a confidential Opt-Out
 23 Termination Agreement that allows Wells Fargo to terminate the Settlement if a sufficient number
 24 of Class Members or members of the Bar Order Notice List opt out of the Settlement. The Parties
 25 will not file this agreement in the public record but will provide it to the Court for in camera
 26 review upon request.

27 26. We, as Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel, consider the Settlement fair and 28 reasonable. While we believe Plaintiffs had a strong case on liability and class certification, we

1 acknowledge the risk and delay that would have resulted from continued litigation. If the
2 Settlement is not approved and the parties resume litigation, we would have to resubmit briefing
3 on class certification, summary judgment, and Daubert motions for the Court's adjudication and 4 complete briefing on Class Plaintiffs' motion to compel and Wells Fargo's motion to exclude the 5 opinions of Kenneth Simmons. Additionally, we would have to brief any additional Daubert and 6 in limine motions and begin to prepare for trial.

7 27. As calculated by Plaintiffs' expert and the lead forensic accountant for the 8 Receiver, John Hall, and assuming Wells Fargo receives the benefit of offsets for amounts 9 recovered through the Receivership, Plaintiffs estimate their recoverable damage at approximately 10 $121.95 million. The $50 million recovery represents approximately 41% of the damages
11 Plaintiffs believe were recoverable at trial. Wells Fargo believes Plaintiffs' damages, if any, are 12 much lower.

13 IV. Litigation Fees and Costs and Service Awards

14 28. Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel will jointly request an award of attorneys'
15 fees not to exceed $16.665 million, or 33.33% of the total $50,000,000 payment from Wells
16 Fargo.

17 29. The requested fee and cost reimbursement for Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel
18 will be the only source of compensation for Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel in connection
19 with the recovery resulting from the Settlement and the claims against Wells Fargo.

20 30. Under Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 23(h), Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel will submit a 21 detailed motion for attorneys' fees and expenses in conjunction with their motion for final 22 settlement approval. Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel have expended over 19,000 hours in 23 attorney time (amounting to over $14.5 million at counsel's hourly rates) to prosecute this 24 litigation. Any multiplier on the requested fee is likely to be modest.

25 31. Additionally, Class Counsel will request a service award of $10,000 each for the 26 Class Plaintiffs. Class Plaintiffs' service was not conditioned on receiving such awards, and they 27 understand that the receipt of any award is entirely within the Court's discretion.

28

V. Adequacy of Plaintiffs and Class Counsel

32. Class Plaintiff Barrett Henzel has been involved in prosecuting the Class Action since its inception in March 2022. Class Plaintiffs Allan L. Carso, Gary W. Lundin, Joshua Luekenga, Brye Kelly, Craig Rodney Michaelis, and Clint and Dan McDaniel were added to the case through Class Plaintiffs' July 5, 2022, Consolidated Class Action Complaint. Class Plaintiffs have devoted dozens of hours to provide Class Counsel information and documents in support of their claims, review and confirm discovery responses and allegations, sit for a deposition, and otherwise provide Class Counsel whatever is necessary for the prosecution of the class claims. To the best of our knowledge, there is no conflict between any Class Plaintiff and any other members of the proposed Settlement Class, and no Settlement Class Members have filed individual actions. Class Plaintiffs have been in regular contact with Class Counsel regarding the status of their case and, most recently, in connection with the Settlement. Class Plaintiffs have reviewed and approved the terms of the Settlement.

33. Attached as composite Exhibit A are the firm resumes of Class Counsel. Class Counsel have significant experience prosecuting class actions, particularly in the context of investor and consumer claims. Class Counsel also has experience bringing similar claims alongside or on behalf of court-appointed fiduciaries, resulting in comprehensive settlements like the one in this matter. See, e.g., In re Peregrine Fin. Grp. Customer Litig., No. 1:12-cv-5546 (N.D. Ill.) ($75 million in settlements from defendants on behalf of victim investors); In re Woodbridge Invests. Litig., No. 18-cv-00103 (C.D. Cal) ($54.2 million settlement for investor victims); In re GWG Holdings Sec. Litig., No. 3:22-cv-00410-B (N.D. Tex.) ($50.95 million settlement for retail bondholders); In re Silvergate Cap. Corp., No. 3:23-cv-01406-RBM-BLM (S.D. Cal.) ($10 million settlement of aiding and abetting claims against insolvent bank and holding company); Todd Benjamin Int'l, Ltd. v. Grant Thornton Cayman Islands, No. 20-21808-civ (S.D. Fla.) ($26.49 million settlement arising out of a fraudulent investment scheme); Camenisch v. Umpqua Bank, No. 5:20-cv-5905 (N.D. Cal.) ($55 million settlement for investor victims); In re: Chase Bank USA, N.A. "Check Loan" Cont. Litig., No. 3:09-md-2032 MMC

1 (N.D. Cal.) ($100 million settlement); Daccache v. Raymond James & Associates, Inc., No.: 16-
2 cv-21575 (S.D. Fla) ($150 million settlement).

3 34. The Receiver, having worked with Class Counsel and being acquainted with their 4 work, supports the appointment of Class Counsel for purposes of the Settlement.

DENA SHARP

Dena Sharp is a trial lawyer who is dedicated to finding common-sense solutions in even the most complex litigation. She recently served as co-lead counsel in the Juul Labs Inc. multidistrict litigation, which resulted in recoveries of nearly $2 billion for individual consumers, school districts, municipalities, and Native American tribes. The final $235 million settlement with Altria was reached after she rested the plaintiff's case in a bellwether jury trial, underscoring her skill in high-stakes litigation.

Dena tries cutting-edge cases. In a first-of-its-kind jury trial, Dena and team represented clients whose eggs and embryos were in a freezer tank at a fertility clinic that failed. After a nearly four-week bellwether trial, the jury returned a $15 million verdict for the plaintiffs, leading to a global resolution with the tank manufacturer for the dozens of households represented by Girard Sharp.

Dena has built a record of significant antitrust recoveries. She recently secured nearly $200 million in settlements for drug purchasers as co-lead counsel on the eve of trial in In re Xyrem Antitrust Litigation, and previously led a team to a $104.75 million recovery in In re Lidoderm Antitrust Litigation, a "pay-for-delay" antitrust class action. Xyrem and Lidoderm are among the largest end-payor recoveries in these notoriously complex generic pharmaceutical delay cases. Dena also serves as a member of the End-Payer Steering Committee in the massive In re Generic Pharmaceuticals Pricing Antitrust Litigation.

On the privacy front, Dena serves as counsel preparing for trial the *In re BetterHelp, Inc. Cox Medical Centers, 376 S.W.3d 633 (Mo. 2012) – Andre successfully argued that a state law limiting compensatory damages in medical malpractice cases violated his client's right to trial by jury. In re Adobe Systems Inc. Privacy Litigation – Key member of the litigation team that succeeded in reversing a long line of decisions adverse to consumers whose personal information was stolen in data breaches. Judge Koh issued a 41-page decision in plaintiffs' favor and the settlement resulted in a comprehensive reform of Adobe's data security practices. Linda Lam | Partner

Linda Lam focuses her practice on representing individuals who have been harmed by corporate misconduct. She has recovered tens of millions of dollars for consumers and investors by prosecuting fraud, breach of contract, and breach of fiduciary duty cases against large banks and insurance companies.

Linda regularly represents investors who have lost substantial sums of money as a result of fraud, including most recently in Camenisch v. Umpqua Bank. There, the plaintiffs alleged that Umpqua aided and abetted a fraudulent scheme based in Marin County that caused investors, many of whom are senior citizens, to lose hundreds of millions of dollars. After a four-week trial that ended in a hung jury, the case settled for $55 million.

Linda has also been an advocate for borrowers who suffered foreclosures during the Great Recession. She represented a certified class of over 1,200 borrowers who lost their homes after Wells Fargo wrongfully denied them trial mortgage modifications. The case settled for $40 million, resulting in significant payments to each class member.

In addition to prosecuting class actions, Linda also represents individual clients in personal injury cases. Most recently, she achieved a favorable settlement for a student who suffered a traumatic brain injury as a result of peer-on-peer harassment at a Bay Area school. She has also represented individuals in automobile and pedestrian accident cases, as well as medical malpractice cases.

Before joining Gibbs Mura, Linda represented workers and retirees in cases concerning employee benefits.

Litigation Highlights

Camenisch v. Umpqua Bank – One of the trial lawyers who represented over 1,200 class members in a four-week jury trial against Umpqua Bank (now known as Columbia Bank). The plaintiff class alleged that Umpqua aided and abetted a fraudulent investment scheme by Professional Financial Investors (PFI). Plaintiffs argued that PFI ran a fraudulent scheme that used investor money to personally benefit PFI's executives, including its principals Ken Casey and Lewis Wallach, pay other investors, and cover recurring shortages across its dozens of accounts at Umpqua. Ultimately, the jury could not reach a unanimous decision, and the court declared a mistrial. The parties reached a $55 million settlement weeks later, and the Court granted final approval on September 11, 2025. Judge P. Casey Pitts, who oversaw the trial, called the settlement an "excellent" outcome for the class.

Hernandez v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. – Represented a certified class of more than 1,200 mortgage borrowers who lost their homes to foreclosure after Wells Fargo erroneously denied them trial mortgage modifications. The case settled in two phases for a total of $40.3 million. Judge William Alsup, who oversaw the case, praised the settlement as bringing "significant" relief to each class member and noted the amount was "greater than those approved by other courts in this district involving similar claims concerning loan modifications."

Steven Cooper v. United States of America – Represented a veteran of the United States Army who alleged that he received negligent medical care at a VA facility, resulting in a delayed diagnosis of aggressive prostate cancer. The plaintiff alleged that by the time the cancer was discovered and diagnosed, it had become incurable. Linda was part of the trial team that won a $2.5 million judgment for the plaintiff.

Asokan et. al. v. American General Ins. Co. – Litigated this insurance and investment fraud case against American General Insurance Co, an AIG subsidiary. Linda represented six plaintiffs who were marketed an investment involving a specialized American General whole life policy that, when purchased through a particular defined benefit plan, would supposedly provide a multitude of tax benefits. Plaintiffs alleged that American General knew but concealed from them that its attorney had advised that these plans no longer complied with the law. Plaintiffs suffered substantial losses as a result of this alleged fraudulent concealment. The case settled for a confidential sum eight days into the jury trial.

Amy Zeman | Partner

Amy's tenacious trial advocacy in class actions and mass torts ensures her clients' voices are heard and respected. She led a multi-million-dollar Ponzi Scheme class action through a four-week trial against Umpqua Bank, ultimately securing a $55 million settlement on behalf of defrauded investors. Amy also achieved a $14.975 million dollar jury verdict as co-lead trial counsel on behalf of Pacific Fertility Center patients whose genetic material was destroyed in a catastrophic cryo-preservation tank failure; the Washington Post hailed the outcome as "a historic verdict." And Amy's work led to a $73 million settlement from UCLA on behalf of sexual assault survivors who brought claims against gynecologist Dr. James Heaps. Her tenacious style has delivered outstanding results and justice to consumers, victims of personal injuries, and sexual assault survivors in class action and mass tort litigation.

Lawdragon has selected Amy to both its Leading Plaintiffs Consumer Lawyer and Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyer lists for 2025, and she was previously honored as one of the Top Women Lawyers in California by the Daily Journal in 2023. Amy has previously served in leadership roles for the American Association for Justice's Class Action and Qui Tam Litigation Groups.

As a leader of the firm's whistleblower attorney practice group, Amy represents the first-to-file relator in U.S. ex rel. Ronda Osinek v. Kaiser Permanente, et al., which led to an historic $556 million settlement from Kaiser Permanente in January of 2026, described as the largest False Claims Act recovery in the history of the Medicare Advantage program by Law360.

Amy is a distinguished litigator in consumer protection and mass injury matters. She represented service members injured by 3M's Combat Arms earplugs in the largest multi-district proceeding in U.S. history. She has litigated successful class actions on behalf of Nissan Altima owners, Ducati motorcyclists, Chase Bank credit card holders, and more. She has also represented individuals harmed by the chemotherapy drug Taxotere (docetaxel), by transvaginal mesh, the birth control medications Yaz and Yasmin, the diabetes drug Actos, and the antipsychotic medication Risperdal.

Prior to attending law school, Amy pursued a career in the financial sector, serving as the Accounting and Compliance Manager for the Marin County Federal Credit Union for almost seven years. Amy was a spring 2010 extern for the Honorable Marilyn Hall Patel of the United States District Court, Northern District of California. She received her J.D. magna cum laude from the University of California at Hastings and her two B.A. degrees summa cum laude from the University of Missouri.

Litigation Highlights

Camenisch v. Umpqua Bank – Amy served as lead trial counsel in a four-week jury trial on behalf of over 1,200 class members who alleged that Umpqua Bank (now known as Columbia Bank) aided and abetted a fraudulent investment scheme by Professional Financial Investors (PFI). Plaintiffs argued that PFI ran a fraudulent scheme that used investor money to personally benefit PFI's executives, including its principals Ken Casey and Lewis Wallach, pay other investors, and cover recurring shortages across its dozens of accounts at Umpqua. Ultimately, the jury could not reach a unanimous decision, and the court declared a mistrial. The parties reached a $55 million settlement weeks later, and the Court granted final approval on September 11, 2025. Judge P. Casey Pitts, who oversaw the trial, called the settlement an "excellent" outcome for the class.

Pacific Fertility Center Litigation – Amy served as co-lead trial counsel in a three-week trial on behalf of several patients who tragically lost eggs and embryos in a catastrophic cryo-preservation tank failure at San Francisco’s Pacific Fertility Center in 2018. The jury found the cryogenic tank manufacturer, Chart Inc., liable on all claims, and awarded $14.975 million in aggregate damages to the five plaintiffs. Amy led the Gibbs Mura team, which first filed the lawsuit in March 2018 with co-counsel, and represented dozens of PFC patients whose frozen eggs and embryos were harmed or destroyed as a result of the tank failure. The 2021 trial was to be the first of over 30 trials in the consolidated litigation and led to a significant aggregate settlement that resolved hundreds of cases pending in federal and state court.

A.B. v. The Regents of the University of California – Amy served as plaintiffs’ counsel representing patients of former UCLA OB-GYN Dr. James Heaps in a class action lawsuit alleging assault, abuse, and sexual harassment against both Dr. Heaps and UCLA. The litigation resulted in a $73 million dollar settlement to compensate over 5,500 women who received treatment from Dr. Heaps, as well as mandatory reforms to UCLA’s patient safety measures. The settlement received final approval in July 2021.

Kaiser Medicare Qui Tam Litigation – Amy and Gibbs Mura filed a qui tam lawsuit on behalf of a relator stating whistleblower allegations that Kaiser Permanente overcharged Medicare through improper diagnostic coding. On July 31, 2021, the Attorney General’s office and the Department of Justice elected to intervene in this litigation, and it was brought out from under seal into the public record. Kaiser Permanent agreed to pay $556 million to settle the lawsuit in January 2026.

Sanborn, et al. v. Nissan North America, Inc. – appointed as class counsel with Eric Gibbs and others. Obtained a settlement 11 days before trial was set to begin on claims that the dashboards in certain Nissan vehicles were melting into a shiny, sticky surface that produced a dangerous glare. The settlement allowed class members to obtain a $1500-$2000 dashboard replacement for just $250, or equivalent reimbursement for prior replacements.

Chase Bank U.S.A., N.A. “Check Loan” Contract Litigation – key member of the litigation team in this multidistrict case alleging that Chase Bank wronged consumers by offering long-term fixed-rate loans, only to later more-than-double the required loan payments. The litigation resulted in a $100 million settlement eight weeks prior to trial.

Sugarman v. Ducati North America, Inc., - represented Ducati motorcycle owners whose fuel tanks on their motorcycles degraded and deformed due to incompatibility with the motorcycles’ fuel. In January 2012, the Court approved a settlement that provided an extended warranty and repairs, writing, “The Court recognizes that class counsel assumed substantial risks and burdens in this litigation. Representation was professional and competent; in the Court’s opinion, counsel obtained an excellent result for the class.”

The plaintiff class alleged that Umpqua aided and abetted a fraudulent investment scheme by Professional Financial Investors (PFI). Plaintiffs argued that PFI ran a fraudulent scheme that used investor money to personally benefit PFI's executives, including its principals Ken Casey and Lewis Wallach, pay other investors, and cover recurring shortages across its dozens of accounts at Umpqua. Ultimately, the jury could not reach a unanimous decision. Later, the parties reached a $55 million settlement weeks later, and the Court granted final approval on September 11, 2025. Judge P. Casey Pitts, who oversaw the trial, called the settlement an "excellent" outcome for the class.

Kaiser Whistleblower Qui Tam Lawsuit – Part of the litigation team representing a whistleblower client against Kaiser Permanente for allegedly defrauding the United States through a sophisticated scheme to up-code diagnoses to ensure Medicare payments for reimbursable, high-value conditions. The litigation is ongoing.

SIGNIFICANT RECOVERIES

Some examples of the cases in which our lawyers played a significant role are described below:

Deceptive Marketing

Hyundai and Kia Fuel Economy Litigation, No. 2:13-md-2424 (C.D. Cal.). In a lawsuit alleging false advertising of vehicle fuel efficiency, the court appointed Eric Gibbs as liaison counsel. Mr. Gibbs regularly reported to the Court, coordinated a wide-ranging discovery process, and advanced the view of plaintiffs seeking relief under the laws of over twenty states. Ultimately Mr. Gibbs helped negotiate a revised nationwide class action settlement with an estimated value of up to $210 million. The Honorable George H. Wu wrote that Mr. Gibbs had “efficiently managed the requests from well over 20 different law firms and effectively represented the interests of Non-Settling Plaintiffs throughout this litigation. This included actively participating in revisions to the proposed settlement in a manner that addressed many weaknesses in the original proposed settlement.”

In re Mercedes-Benz Tele Aid Contract Litigation, MDL No. 1914, No. 07-cv-02720 (D.N.J.). Gibbs Mura attorneys and co-counsel served as co-lead class counsel on behalf of consumers who were not told their vehicles’ navigation systems were on the verge of becoming obsolete. Counsel successfully certified a nationwide litigation class, before negotiating a settlement valued between approximately $25 million and $50 million. In approving the settlement, the court acknowledged that the case “involved years of difficult and hard-fought litigation by able counsel on both sides” and that “the attorneys who handled the case were particularly skilled by virtue of their ability and experience.”

In re Providian Credit Card Cases, JCCP No. 4085 (Cal. Super. Ct. San Francisco Cty). Mr. Gibbs played a prominent role in this nationwide class action suit brought on behalf of Providian credit card holders. The lawsuit alleged that Providian engaged in unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business practices in connection with the marketing and fee assessments for its credit cards. The Honorable Stuart Pollack approved a $105 million settlement, plus injunctive relief—one of the largest class action recoveries in the United States arising out of consumer credit card litigation.

In re Hyundai and Kia Horsepower Litigation, No. 02CC00287 (Cal. Super. Ct. Orange Cty). In a class action on behalf of U.S. Hyundai and Kia owners and lessees, contending that Hyundai advertised false horsepower ratings in the United States, attorneys from Gibbs Mura negotiated a class action settlement valued at between $75 million and $125 million which provided owners nationwide with cash payments and dealer credits.

Skold v. Intel Corp., No. 1-05-cv-039231 (Cal. Super. Ct. Santa Clara Cty.). Gibbs Mura attorneys represented Intel consumers through a decade of hard-fought litigation, ultimately certifying a nationwide class under an innovative “price inflation” theory and negotiating a settlement that provided refunds and $4 million in cy pres donations. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

In re J&J Investment Litigation
GEOFF WINKLER, as court-appointed receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, Florida limited liability company, Plaintiff, v. WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A., Defendant.

Case No.: 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK

Case No.: 2:23-cv-00703-GMN-NJK

DECLARATION OF GEOFF WINKLER IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

I, Geoff Winkler, in my capacity as Receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation, J&J Consulting Services Inc., a Nevada corporation, and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida limited liability company (collectively, the “Receivership Entities”), declare as follows

1. I submit this Declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Class Preliminary Approval in In re J&J Investment Litigation, Case No.: 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK (D. Nev.) (the “Class Action”) and my Motion to Approve Settlement with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. in SEC v. Beasley et al., No. 2:22-cv-00612-CDS-EJY (D. Nev.) (the “SEC Action”), and if called as a witness I could and would testify truthfully to such matters.

2. I am a founding member of American Fiduciary Services, LLC and the Court-appointed receiver (“Receiver”) for the Receivership Entities and certain assets pursuant to a June 3, 2022, Order Appointing Receiver, entered in the SEC Action, as amended by the July 28, 2022, Order Amending Receivership Order. In my capacity as Receiver, I am also the Plaintiff in the case brought against Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. captioned Winkler v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Case No. 2:23-cv-00703-GMN-NJK (D. Nev.) (the “Receiver Action”) and I am a party to the Class Action and Receiver Settlement Agreement and Release (the “Settlement Agreement”).¹

3. Based on my investigation, the Ponzi-investment scheme (the “J&J Investment Scheme”) at issue in the SEC Action originated with Matthew Beasley’s false claim that he had assembled a network of personal injury attorneys through which Mr. Beasley could purchase interests in settlement proceeds. Investors believed they could profit by advancing money to personal-injury plaintiffs who were owed settlement payments. In truth, Mr. Beasley and his associates used the investment funds to gamble, purchase real estate, expensive cars, and other luxury goods, and to pay false “returns” to earlier investors. The J&J Investment Scheme originated in the Las Vegas area and targeted investors in Nevada and nearby states. Between January 2017 and March 2022, the vast majority of investor funds passed through Mr. Beasley’s attorney trust account at Wells Fargo.

4. My authority and responsibilities as Receiver include, among other things, taking

¹ Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings identified in the Settlement Agreement.

1 possession of all assets of the Receivership Entities, preserving and maximizing the value of such
2 assets, managing and operating the Receivership Entities and their property, securing any records
3 of the Receivership Entities, investigating the affairs of the Receivership Entities, and prosecuting
4 and defending claims of the Receivership Entities.

5 5. My investigation into the affairs of the Receivership Entities has included a 6 forensic accounting of transactions of the Receivership Entities' accounts, and related accounts. In 7 my role as Receiver, I have directed my team to analyze and reconstruct the activity in the bank
8 accounts of the Receivership Entities, Mr. Beasley's accounts, and various other promoter
9 accounts. John B. Hall of American Fiduciary Services, LLC, is the lead professional for the 10 forensic accounting conducted at my direction.

11 6. The purposes of the forensic accounting include, but are not limited to, establishing 12 a database of transactions to trace all monies that were transferred to or for the benefit of the 13 Receivership Entities, and to determine their ultimate disposition. This reconstruction process has 14 identified the investors in the J&J Investment Scheme, the immediate use of the money they 15 invested, including the initial movement of funds received into Receivership Entity bank accounts, 16 and how the money was ultimately applied, including payment of returns to investors, payments to 17 promoters in the J&J Investment Scheme, and purchases for the personal benefit of the individuals
18 controlling the Receivership Entities.

19 7. As set forth in my forensic accounting report, my office identified 1,213
20 individuals and entities who invested in the J&J Investment Scheme. Of those, we identified 948
21 individuals and entities who invested more than they received in returns, on an aggregate basis,
22 making those investors net "losers." The class representatives in the Class Action (whom I
23 understand to be Allan Carso, Barrett Henzel, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Bryce Kelly, Gary Lundin, 24 Joshua Luekenga, Clint McDaniel, and Dan McDaniel) are among these net losing investors.

25 8. My team and I created and maintain a database of investors in the J&J Investment
26 Scheme, which includes, to the extent possible, contact information (email addresses and mailing 27 addresses). My professionals and I have been in contact with investors since my appointment,
28 including providing them updates regarding the SEC Action. As part of that effort, I maintain a

1 website (www.jjconsulting-receivership.com) that provides information and updates on the SEC
2 Action and the litigation against Wells Fargo.

3 9. On July 14, 2025, in my capacity as Receiver, I filed a motion in the SEC Action
4 seeking an order (1) setting a claims bar date; (2) approving a proposed claim form; and (3)
5 approving summary claims procedures. On August 22, 2025, the Court in the SEC Action granted
6 that motion and approved the proposed claims procedure and claim form. My team subsequently 7 gave notice to 1,735 investors and interested parties of the claims process via email and U.S. mail.
8 My team also provided notice via my receivership website, the website of my designated claims
9 administrator, Stretto, and by publication in USA Today, the Las Vegas Review-Journal and the 10 Salt Lake Tribune. Investors had between September 1, 2025, and December 1, 2025, to file a 11 claim. During that period, 979 claims were filed. My team and I continue to work with investors to 12 resolve any issues arising in connection with their claims. If a claim determination is contested
13 and not resolved informally, the dispute will be submitted for resolution to Judge Cristina D.
14 Silva, the presiding judge in the SEC Action.

15 10. Members of the Settlement Class who have an approved claim in the SEC Action
16 will not need to make a separate claim to receive payment from the Settlement Fund. To the extent
17 that a Settlement Class member did not submit a claim during the claims process in the SEC
18 Action, those investors will be afforded the opportunity to submit a claim using the same claim
19 form. Any such investors will be entitled only to proceeds from the Settlement Fund only, not a 20 general distribution from receivership funds in the SEC Action.

21 11. Once all outstanding issues with the claims process have been resolved, I intend to 22 file a motion in the SEC Action to approve a plan to make distributions to investors based on a pro
23 rata method. I am prepared to make a distribution using proceeds from the Settlement Fund 24 consistent with the terms of the proposed settlement and the distribution plan to be approved and 25 supervised by Judge Silva in the SEC Action.

26 12. In addition, based on my investigation as receiver and responses to the claims
27 process, I have compiled a list of the known creditors, non-class member investors, and persons or 28 entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities (the "Bar Order Notice List").

NOTICE PLAN

13. I understand that the parties agreed that I, as Receiver, will provide the list of Settlement Class Members (i.e., net losing investors) to the Settlement Administrator to give notice of the settlement to the members of the Settlement Class. I further understand that the parties also agreed that I will provide the Bar Order Notice List to the Settlement Administrator, in order to give the persons on that list notice of the proposed bar order sought as part of the settlement. I further understand that the parties agree to use Stretto, Inc. as Settlement Administrator for administrative tasks relating to settlement administration. I believe and understand that Stretto is already providing services in the receivership. In my professional opinion, using Stretto for these additional settlement administration tasks is the most efficient course, rather than retaining an additional vendor. In my experience, Stretto's charges have been consistent with industry standards and company personnel have performed their duties proficiently. I understand that the parties also agreed that, as Receiver, I will distribute settlement proceeds consistent with orders in the SEC Action regarding claims and distributions. The settlement calls for sending the notice within 30 days of the later of the SEC Action's and the Class Action's preliminary approval by first-class U.S. mail and otherwise by email. In my role as Receiver, I am in possession of the last-known mailing addresses and email addresses for virtually all members of the settlement class or their representatives.

14. My professionals and I previously sent notice to all net-losing investors by sending notice via email or by mailing the notice via U.S. mail to all investors (their representatives), which notice was approved by the SEC Action Court. Based on those past efforts, I am confident that the notice of the settlement should reach virtually every member of the settlement class or their representatives, and constitutes the "best notice practicable" in this case.

15. The settlement also calls for the notices, the Settlement Agreements and certain filings to be posted on my website (www.jjconsulting-receivership.com). I will ensure that the notices of the settlement, in the form attached as Exhibit 1 to the Settlement Agreement, the Claim Form, and all other required documents will be posted continually on the website beginning no later than 30 days after the later of the SEC Action's and the Class Action's preliminary approval and continuing through the effective date of the Settlement. I will revise my website's home page to announce the settlement and add a link to a separate page where information on the Settlement can be found. Personnel or third-party vendors under my direction will be prepared to promptly respond to any questions received about the Settlement from members of the settlement class.

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

16. The Settlement Agreement requires approval of the bar order by the court in the SEC Action. I am submitting a preliminary approval motion in the SEC Action concurrently with Class Plaintiffs' filing of their motion to approve the settlement. I support the Class Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary approval as part of the Settlement.

17. I believe the settlement to be fair, adequate, and reasonable. The settlement would allow me to distribute tens of millions of dollars to net losing investors in the J&J Investment Scheme. In light of the litigation risks described in the approval motions, I believe the settlement is in the best interests of the receivership estate. I ask that the Court grant preliminary approval in both the SEC Action and the Class Action.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

V. On or about November 4, 2025, the Parties signed a binding term sheet, providing for the joint settlement of the Class Action and the Receiver Action.

W. Based upon their investigation and evaluation of the facts and law relating to the matters in the pleadings, mediation with Robert A. Meyer, Esq., JAMS, and fruitful, well informed settlement discussions, the Parties have agreed to settle the Class Action and the Receiver Action pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

X. Wells Fargo has denied and continues to deny each and every allegation of liability, wrongdoing, and damages, as it has factual and legal defenses to all claims and class allegations asserted in the Class Action and Receiver Action. Wells Fargo has always maintained, and continues to maintain, that it has acted in accordance with governing law. The Class Representatives and the Receiver likewise maintain the strength of their positions and the validity of their claims. This Agreement shall in no event be construed as, or deemed to be evidence of, an admission or concession on the part of the Parties with respect to any claim by any Class Member or the Receiver, any fault, liability, wrongdoing or damage, or any defenses asserted by Wells Fargo. The Parties nonetheless have concluded that continuing the Class Action and Receiver Action would pose continued litigation uncertainty and be protracted, expensive, and disruptive to their business and/or lives. They therefore have decided that it is desirable to fully and finally settle the Class Action and Receiver Action on the terms and conditions set forth herein to avoid further expense, inconvenience, and distraction and to dispel any related uncertainty.

Y. By this Agreement, and recognizing the consideration provided for under this Agreement, the Class Representatives, Class Counsel, the Receiver, and Receiver Counsel intend to fully and finally resolve the remaining claims against Wells Fargo in connection with the Litigation, as more fully set forth herein.

Z. The Class Representatives, Class Counsel, the Receiver, and Receiver Counsel recognize the expense and length of proceedings necessary to continue the litigation through further motion practice, trial, and any possible appeals. They have taken into account the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. They are also aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability and damages for the claims alleged in the Class Action and Receiver Action, and the defenses thereto.

AA. Based upon their evaluation, the Class Representatives, Class Counsel, the Receiver, and Receiver Counsel have determined that the settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interests of the Class Representatives, the Settlement Class, and the Receiver, and is fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the following substantial benefits that the settlement bestows, including:

- i. Wells Fargo will pay $50,000,000 into the Receiver's Qualified Settlement Fund ("Settlement Fund") for the benefit of the Settlement Class in the Class Action and Receiver Action for the purposes of implementing this settlement, which will be used to provide monetary relief to Settlement Class Members, as described below, to pay Incentive Payments to the Class Representatives, to pay the Settlement Administrator's costs associated with administration of the Settlement, and to pay Attorneys' Fees and Expenses incurred by the Settlement Class through Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel, all as approved by the Court;
- ii. Those Settlement Class Members who do not opt out will be entitled to a cash benefit in accordance with the Receiver's court-approved plan of distribution, after deduction of the Incentive Payments, Settlement Administration costs, and Attorneys' Fees and Expenses.

BB. This Agreement and all associated exhibits or attachments are made for the sole purpose of attempting to consummate settlement of this Litigation on a class-wide and global basis. This Agreement and the Settlement it evidences are made in compromise of disputed claims. Because the Class Action is pled as a class action and the Receiver Action is brought by the Receiver, this Settlement must receive preliminary and final approval by the Court. Accordingly, the Class Representatives, Receiver, and Defendant enter into this Agreement and associated settlement on a conditional basis. In the event that Defendant exercises a right herein to terminate or rescind this Agreement, the Court does not execute and file the Final Approval Orders, or the associated Judgments do not become Final for any reason, this Agreement shall be deemed null and void ab initio, it shall be of no force or effect whatsoever, it shall not be utilized for any purpose whatsoever by anyone, and the negotiation, terms, and entry of this Agreement shall remain subject to the provisions of Federal Rule of Evidence 408, any and all state or Federal statutes or rules of a similar nature, and the mediation privilege. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Defendant may use, offer, admit, or refer to the Agreement and to the Settlement reached therein where necessary to defend itself in any other action, or in any judicial, administrative, regulatory, arbitration, or other proceeding.

CC. The Parties expressly reserve all rights, claims, and defenses and do not waive any such rights, claims, or defenses in the event that the Agreement is not approved for any reason. The Parties agree that they each retain and reserve all rights and agree not to take a position to the contrary. The Class Representatives, Class Counsel, the Receiver, and Receiver Counsel agree not to argue or present any argument, and hereby waive any argument, that Wells Fargo could not contest class certification and/or proceed collectively on any grounds if the Litigation were to proceed, or that this Agreement is evidence of or constitutes an admission that class certification may be appropriate.

1. Definitions.

As used in all parts of this Agreement, including the recitals above, and the exhibits hereto, the following terms have the meanings specified below:

1.1. “Agreement” or “Settlement Agreement” means this Settlement Agreement and Release and all of its attachments and exhibits, which the Class Representatives, Receiver, and Wells Fargo understand and agree sets forth all material terms and conditions of the settlement of the Class Action and Receiver Action between them and which is subject to Court approval. This Agreement is contingent on the issuance of the Bar Order, and Wells Fargo shall have the option to terminate the settlement pursuant to the confidential side agreement referenced in Section 13.3 hereof. There shall be an option for the persons and entities on the Bar Order Notice List to opt-out of the Bar Order following Bar Order Notice as described below.

process and in connection with the SEC Distribution Plan (SEC Action, ECF 821, 845). Class Members who did not participate in the SEC Action pursuant to the Receiver's claims process will have the opportunity to submit a Claim to the Settlement Fund, and the Class Notice shall so inform Class Members.

1.12. "Class" means All natural and legal persons who invested in a J&J Entity lawsuit settlement contract between January 2017 and March 2022 and who incurred a loss of their principal investment (in whole or in part) as determined by the Receiver pursuant to his court-appointed duties and as identified in the Receiver's official records submitted to the Court in the SEC Action. Excluded from the class are Wells Fargo and the Relevant Non-Parties as defined in the Class Action Complaint; their parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, legal representatives, predecessors, successors, assigns, and employees; and any judge to whom the Class Action or Receiver Action is assigned, his or her spouse, and all persons within the third degree of relationship to either of them, as well as the spouses of such persons.

Class Members who did not participate in the SEC Action pursuant to the Receiver's claims process will have the opportunity to submit a Claim. The Class Notice shall include a statement that Class Members who did not submit a Claim in the SEC Action pursuant to the SEC Claims Order may make a Claim in connection with this Settlement. The Class Notice shall state that, any such Claim Form must be submitted by the Objection Deadline, and that except for the lapsed submission deadline, the submission of a Claim Form shall be governed by the SEC Claims Order and a resulting Claim, if allowed, shall entitle the Settlement Class Member only to proceeds of the Settlement Fund and not a general distribution from receivership funds in the SEC Action.

5.1.3 Any Class Member: (1) who is included on the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons list maintained by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC"), (2) whom Wells Fargo has determined is otherwise a blocked person under U.S. sanctions laws and regulations administered by OFAC (“OFAC sanctions”), or (3) to whom Wells Fargo has determined the making of a payment under this Settlement would otherwise be prohibited by OFAC sanctions, is not eligible to receive payments under this Settlement.

5.1.4 Within sixty days of the Effective Date or the approval of the SEC Distribution Plan, whichever is later, the Receiver shall remit payment to the Settlement Class Members with valid Claims in accordance with Section 3.1.3 above (the “Distribution Date”).

5.1.5 For Settlement Class Members whose checks are returned by the U.S. Postal Service for lack of current correct address, the Receiver shall seek an address correction via an advanced address search or skip tracing, and then re-send their checks to any subsequently obtained address that the Receiver reasonably believes to be valid. After one re-mailing, neither the , the Receiver, nor Wells Fargo shall have any further obligation to locate any particular Settlement Class Member.

5.1.6 Payments to the Settlement Class Members shall be made by the Receiver in the same manner and method approved in the SEC Distribution Plan. Wells Fargo shall have no further responsibility for paying the costs of administration, except as stated here.

5.4 If there is any balance remaining in the Settlement Fund (whether by reason of tax refunds, uncashed checks, or otherwise) following the final accounting, the funds shall revert to the Receiver for redistribution among validated Settlement Class Members. If the Receiver determines in his sole discretion that any balance remaining in the Settlement Fund is insufficient to justify redistribution among Settlement Class Members, the Receiver may treat such remaining funds as general receivership funds administered in the SEC Action.

6. Retention and Duties of Settlement Administrator.

6.1 The Settlement Administrator shall administer the Settlement pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. The Settlement Administrator shall be responsible for the Class Notice and Bar Order Notice (including data standardization and de-duplication of the Class Notice List and Bar Order Notice List including updating addresses through National Change of Address System or similar database ("NCOA"), reasonable efforts to update addresses for undeliverable notices, and printing and mailing the Class Notice), drafting and submitting the CAFA notice with direction from Defense Counsel, status reporting, and responding to inquiries from Settlement Class

7.6 Unless the Settlement Administrator receives a Class Notice or Bar Order Notice returned from the United States Postal Service for reasons discussed below in this Paragraph, a Class Notice or Bar Order Notice shall be deemed mailed and received by the individual to whom it was sent five days after mailing. In the event that subsequent to the first mailing of a Class Notice or Bar Order Notice, and prior to fourteen days before the Opt-Out Deadline, the Class Notice or Bar Order Notice is returned to the Settlement Administrator by the United States Postal Service with a forwarding address for the recipient, the Settlement Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice or Bar Order Notice to that address, and the Class Notice or Bar Order Notice will be deemed mailed at that point. 9.3 The Parties, and each of them on his, her, or its own behalf only, represent and warrant that they are voluntarily entering into the Settlement Agreement as a result of arm's-length negotiations and mediation sessions among their counsel and with mediator Robert Meyer, Esq., that in executing the Settlement Agreement, they are relying solely upon their own judgment, belief, and knowledge, and the advice and recommendations of their own independently selected counsel, concerning the nature, extent and duration of their rights and claims hereunder and regarding all matters which relate in any way to the subject matter hereof; and that, except as provided herein, they have not been influenced to any extent whatsoever in executing the Settlement Agreement by representations, statements or omissions pertaining to any of the foregoing matters by any Party or by any person representing any party to the Settlement Agreement. Each of the Parties assumes the risk of mistake as to facts or law.

10. Releases.

California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

In that case, no further payments shall be made by Wells Fargo to anyone in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Parties will bear their own costs and fees with regard to the efforts to obtain Court approval, and this Agreement shall be deemed null and void with no effect on the Class Action or Receiver Action whatsoever. Reductions in the amount of the requested Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses shall not be deemed a substantial change necessitating termination of the Settlement.

13.2 If any material portion of the Agreement, Class Final Approval Order, or SEC Final Approval Order is vacated, modified, or otherwise altered on appeal, Wells Fargo may, in its sole discretion, within fourteen calendar days of such appellate ruling, declare that the Agreement has failed to become effective, and in such circumstances the Agreement shall cease to be of any force and effect.

13.3 In the event that a certain portion of Class Members exclude themselves from the Settlement Class, or more than a specific dollar amount of Class Members' claims opt-out of the Settlement Class (both as set forth in a confidential side agreement), Wells Fargo shall have the absolute discretionary right (but not obligation) to terminate this Settlement and Agreement and in such case, each and every one of Wells Fargo's obligations under this Agreement shall terminate, and this Agreement and any orders entered into in connection therewith shall be vacated (except for any provision included in the Class Preliminary Approval Order and SEC Preliminary Approval Order substantially similar to Paragraph 23 of the Class Preliminary Approval Order and Paragraph 19 of the SEC Preliminary Approval Order attached as Exhibits 2 and 4). If Wells Fargo exercises this option, the Parties shall return to the status quo in the Action as if the Parties had not entered into this Agreement. In addition, in such event, the Agreement and all negotiations, Court orders, and proceedings relating thereto shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Parties, and each of them, and evidence relating to the Agreement and all negotiations shall not be admissible or discoverable in the Class Action or Receiver Action or in any other proceeding. Wells Fargo must exercise this option pursuant to this Paragraph within ten days after receiving the list of timely Opt-Out Requests and at least three days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, by giving written notice of such exercise to Class Counsel.

13.4 In the event that the Bar Order is not entered in the SEC Action, or if more than the specified number of persons (as set forth in a confidential side agreement) appearing on the Bar Order Opt-Out List opt-out from the Bar Order, Wells Fargo shall have the right (but not the obligation) to terminate this Settlement and Agreement and in such case, each and every one of Wells Fargo's obligations under this Agreement shall terminate, and this Agreement and any orders entered into in connection therewith shall be vacated (except for any provision included in the Class Preliminary Approval Order and SEC Preliminary Approval Order substantially similar to Paragraph 23 of the Class Preliminary Approval Order and Paragraph 19 of the SEC Preliminary Approval Order attached as Exhibits 2 and 4). If Wells Fargo exercises this option, the Parties shall return to the status quo in the Action as if the Parties had not entered into this Agreement. In addition, in such event, the Agreement and all negotiations, Court orders, and proceedings relating thereto shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Parties, and each of them, and evidence relating to the Agreement and all negotiations shall not be admissible or discoverable in the Class Action or Receiver Action or in any other proceeding. Wells Fargo must exercise this option pursuant to this Paragraph within ten days after receiving the list of timely Bar Order Opt-Out Requests or within 10 days of entry of the SEC Final Approval Order without the Bar Order, by giving written notice of such exercise to Class Counsel.

13.5 Simultaneously herewith, the Parties are executing a supplemental agreement, which gives Wells Fargo the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the Settlement in the event that a certain portion of the Class ("Class Opt-Out Threshold") delivers timely and valid requests for exclusion from the Class or in the event that a certain portion of the members of the Bar Order Notice List ("Bar Order Opt-Out Threshold") delivers timely and valid requests for exclusion from the Bar Order. The Parties will keep the Class Opt-Out Threshold and the Bar Order Opt-Out

Threshold confidential, except if compelled by judicial process to disclose it. If the Court requests to see the Class Opt-Out Threshold and/or the Bar Order Opt-Out Threshold, the Parties will seek to submit the Class Opt-Out Threshold and/or the Bar Order Opt-Out Threshold to the Court for in camera review.

13.6 If one of the Parties exercises a right herein to terminate or rescind this Agreement or this Agreement is not approved by the Court in both the Class Action and the SEC Action pursuant to the proposed Class Final Approval Order and SEC Final Approval Order, this Agreement, the Settlement proposed herein (including any modifications made with the consent of the Parties), and any action taken or to be taken in connection therewith shall be terminated and shall become null and void and have no further force or effect, the Class Preliminary Approval Order and SEC Preliminary Approval Order shall be vacated (except for any provision included in the Class Preliminary Approval Order and SEC Preliminary Approval Order substantially similar to Paragraph 23 of the Class Preliminary Approval Order and Paragraph 19 of the SEC Preliminary Approval Order attached as Exhibits 2 and 4), the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions existing prior to the execution of this Agreement and the Parties' rights and obligations with respect to the use of this Agreement and the Settlement contemplated hereby will be subject to Section 18 hereof. In addition, neither this Agreement, the preliminary certification of the Class, the Class Preliminary Approval Order, nor any other document in any way relating to any of the foregoing, shall be relied on, referred to, or used by anyone in any way for any purpose in connection with any further proceedings in this Action and/or any action, lawsuit, arbitration, or proceeding involving a Released Claim. Finally, all evidence relating to the Agreement and all negotiations shall not be admissible or discoverable in the Action or in any other proceeding.

14. Certification of Settlement Class For Settlement Purposes.

14.1 Within thirty days of the Class Notice Mailing Date, the Class Representative shall move for Final Approval of the Settlement and entry of Final Judgment and shall request that the preliminary certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes be made final. Class Counsel shall provide a draft of the Motion for Final Approval to Defense Counsel for review at least three business days in advance of when it is filed. Any responsive papers shall be filed and served no later than seven calendar days prior to the Final Approval Hearing.

14.2 If the Settlement is not granted final approval in the Class Action or SEC Action and the Class Final Approval Order or SEC Final Approval Order is not entered in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit 5 and 6, the certification of the above-described Settlement Class shall be automatically vacated and shall not constitute evidence or a binding determination that the requirements for certification of a class for any other purposes in this or any other action can be or have been satisfied. In such circumstances, Wells Fargo reserves and shall have all rights to challenge certification of a Settlement Class or any other class for any other purpose in the Action or any other action on all available grounds as if no Settlement Class had been certified.

15. Final Approval and Bar Order in SEC Action.

15.1 After the SEC Preliminary Approval Order and no later than fourteen days before the SEC Final Approval Hearing, the Receiver shall move for Final Approval of the Settlement and entry of Final Judgment and shall request entry of the Bar Order. The Receiver shall provide a draft of the Motion for Final Approval to Defense Counsel for review and comment at least three business days before it is filed. Any responsive papers shall be filed and served no later than seven calendar days prior to the SEC Final Approval Hearing.

16. Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs, and Incentive Payments.

16.1 Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel intend to seek an award of attorneys' fees not to exceed 33.33% of the Settlement Fund and reimbursement of litigation expenses not to exceed $900,000.00. Wells Fargo takes no position on Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel moving the Court for an award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses in the Class Action or the amount of any Attorneys' Fees and Expenses award.

16.2 Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel's application for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses shall be filed during the pendency of the Class Notice period and within thirty days of the Class Notice Mailing Date. Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel agree that the amounts of such costs and fees awarded shall compensate them for all legal work in the Action up to and including the date of Final Judgment, including any appeal of the Judgment, as well as for all legal work and costs that may be incurred in the Action after the date of Effective Date. Any award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund. In no event shall Wells Fargo be obligated to pay more than that which it will deposit into the Settlement Fund pursuant to Section 3.2.

16.3 Within seven days after the funding of the Settlement Fund or entry of an order approving the application for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses (whichever is later), the Receiver shall make payment of the Attorneys' Fees and Expenses awarded by the Court to Class Counsel, pursuant to payment instructions in writing from Class Counsel. In accepting this payment, the Class Representatives, Class Counsel, and Receiver Counsel, on behalf of themselves and all Settlement Class Members, acknowledge that the payment are in full satisfaction of any and all claims, rights, and demands that Class Counsel, Receiver Counsel, the Class Representatives, or the Settlement Class had, have, or may claim to have in the future for attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, or any other payment in connection with this Action or this Agreement, up to the date of final judgment. Wells Fargo shall have no responsibility for allocation or distribution of the award among Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel.

16.4 Class Counsel shall be entitled, subject to Court approval, to apply to the Court for Incentive Payments to the Class Representatives in an amount not to exceed $10,000 each, subject to Court approval. Wells Fargo will not oppose the request for the Incentive Payments provided it is consistent with this Agreement. The Court denying any or all of Incentive Payments requested shall not be grounds to terminate the Settlement.

16.5 Within seven days after the funding of the Settlement Fund or entry of an order approving the application for the Incentive Payments to the Class Representatives (whichever is later), and upon the Class Representatives' submission of a Form W-9 to the Settlement Administrator and/or Receiver, the Receiver shall make payment of the Incentive Payments awarded by the Court from the Settlement Fund pursuant to written payment instructions from Class Counsel. Class Counsel shall be responsible for delivering the Incentive Payments to the Class Representative after receipt of payment from the Receiver. A Form 1099 for the payment of any Incentive Payment will be filed.

16.6 A Form 1099 for these payments may be filed by Wells Fargo and/or the Settlement Administrator or Receiver. Class Counsel shall cooperate with Wells Fargo and the Settlement Administrator or Receiver to provide all information necessary to process any such payments including completing any requested tax forms (e.g., IRS Form W-9 and applicable tax identification numbers). Wells Fargo shall have no responsibility for, and no liability whatsoever with respect to, any tax obligations or any allocation among the Class Representatives and Class Counsel or Receiver Counsel, and/or any other person who may assert some claim thereto, of any award or payment made in this Action or pursuant to this Agreement, including but not limited to any award or payment pursuant to this Section 15. Class Counsel, Receiver Counsel, and the Class Representatives shall alone be responsible for the reporting and payment of any federal, state, and/or local income or other form of tax on any payment made pursuant to this Section 15. No party shall be deemed the prevailing party for any other purposes of the Action.

16.7 Neither Wells Fargo nor the Releasees shall have any responsibility for any application of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses and Incentive Payments submitted by Class Counsel and Receiver Counsel. The procedure for and the grant or denial or disallowance by the Court of the application for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses and Incentive Payments is to be considered by the Court independently of the Court's consideration of the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the Settlement, and any order or proceedings relating to the applications for Attorney's Fees and Expenses and Incentive Payment or any appeal from any order relating thereto or reversal or modification thereof, will not operate to terminate or cancel this Agreement, or affect or delay the Finality of Judgment approving the Agreement and the Settlement, except as provided for in Section 13.

17. Stay of Discovery and Other Proceedings.

17.1 To the extent the Class Action and Receiver Action have not already been stayed by the Court, upon execution of this Agreement, the Parties shall discontinue all discovery activity or related proceedings in the Litigation.

17.2 Upon the Effective Date, and notwithstanding any of the other provisions in this Agreement, the Defendants shall have no obligation to preserve documents and evidence with respect to Released Claims, and the Class Representatives, Class Counsel, Receiver, and Receiver Counsel shall not pursue any spoliation claims or other actions or sanctions against Defendants with respect to documents or evidence related to the Released Claims.

18. Return/Destruction of Discovery Materials.

18.1 The Parties agree that the terms of the Protective Order govern the dealings of the Parties with respect to materials produced in discovery in the Class Action and Receiver Action and shall continue in force after the Effective Date of the Settlement. Accordingly, within thirty days of the Effective Date, the Parties and their counsel of record, and any consultants or experts retained by the Parties or their counsel of record, shall use their best efforts to locate all Protected Material (as the term is defined in the Protective Order) produced in the Action and return such Protected Material to counsel of record for the producing party or properly destroy all originals or reproductions (whether in electronic, hard copy, or other form) of the Protected Material.

18.2 Within sixty days of the Effective Date, counsel of record shall make written certification that they have used their best efforts to search for all Protected Material, that they have instructed the Class Representatives, Receiver, Defendant, and all consultants or experts to return or destroy Protected Material, and that, to the best of their knowledge, they have retained no originals or copies of any Protected Material. The Parties acknowledge that their duty to return or destroy all Protected Material is a continuing duty and the Parties agree to return or destroy any such information found in the future.

18.3 Notwithstanding this Section, the Parties shall be excused from any duty to return or destroy Protected Material to the extent necessary to comply with outstanding court orders or with judicial and non-judicial subpoenas, civil investigative demands or other compulsory process. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as requiring the destruction of attorney work product.

18.4 The Court shall retain jurisdiction to ensure compliance with the Protective Order.

19. Media and Confidentiality.

19.1 The Parties agree that any press release must be approved by the Parties. The Parties further agree that any press release or public statements shall be negotiated with Wells

Fargo in advance of issuance, other than reports made by the Receiver in the ordinary course and shall be subject to the terms of Paragraph 19.3 below.

19.2 Class Representatives, Class Counsel, Receiver, and Receiver Counsel agree not to make any direct written solicitations to Class Members or claimants in the Receivership to opt out or object to the Settlement, and they shall take no action which would or might have the effect of inducing or encouraging any person included in the Class to seek exclusion from the Class.

19.3 No Party shall make any disparaging statements (oral or written), directly or indirectly, to the media or general public about any other Party related to the Class Action or Receiver Action or this Settlement. Disparaging statements are statements that are false, misleading, or tend to cast any other Party in a negative light, regardless of truth or falsity.

21. Miscellaneous Provisions.

21.1 Cooperation. The Parties: (a) acknowledge that it is their intent to consummate this Agreement; and (b) agree to cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary to effect and implement all terms and conditions of the Agreement and to exercise their best efforts to accomplish the foregoing terms and conditions of the Agreement.

21.2 No Admission. The Agreement compromises claims contested in good faith, and it shall not be deemed an admission by any of the Parties as to the merits of any claim or defense. The Parties agree that the amounts paid in settlement and the other terms of the Agreement were negotiated in good faith by the Parties and at arm's length and reflect a settlement that was reached voluntarily after consultation with competent legal counsel. Neither the Agreement nor the Settlement, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Agreement or the Settlement: (a) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, the validity of any Released Claim, or of any wrongdoing or liability of the Releasees, or any of them; or (b) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, any fault or omission of the Releasees, or any of them, in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency, or other tribunal. The Class Representative and Class Counsel agree not to argue that Wells Fargo could not contest (or is estopped from contesting) class certification and/or proceeding collectively on any grounds if the Class Action were to proceed; this Agreement shall not be deemed an admission by, or ground for estoppel against, Wells Fargo that class certification and/or proceeding collectively in the Class Action is proper or cannot be contested on any grounds.

21.3 Exhibits. All of the exhibits to the Agreement are material and integral parts hereof and are fully incorporated herein by this reference.

21.4 Amendment/Modification. The Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by or on behalf of all Parties or their respective successors-in-interest. The waiver by one Party of any breach of this Agreement by any other Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other prior or subsequent breach of this Agreement. Class Counsel, on behalf of the Class, are expressly authorized by the Class Representatives to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by the Class pursuant to the Agreement to effect its terms, and also are expressly authorized to enter into any modifications or amendments to the Agreement on behalf of the Class which they deem appropriate.

21.5 Entire Agreement. The Agreement and the related documents entered at this time of this Agreement or referenced herein constitute the entire agreement among the Parties hereto concerning the Settlement of the Class Action and Receiver Action, other than the confidential side agreement setting forth the amounts relevant to termination provisions. No representations, warranties, or inducements have been made to any Party concerning the Agreement or its exhibits other than the representations, warranties, and covenants contained and memorialized in this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party shall bear its own costs and attorney fees.

21.6 Authority. Each person executing the Agreement or any of its exhibits on behalf of any Party hereto hereby warrants that such person has the full authority to do so.

21.7 Counterparts. The Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, including by signature transmitted by facsimile or by email in PDF format. All executed counterparts and each of them shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

21.8 Successors and Assigns. The Agreement shall be binding upon, and inures to the benefit of, the heirs, executors, successors, and assigns of the Parties hereto; but this Agreement is not designed to and does not create any third-party beneficiaries.

21.9 No Third-Party Rights or Beneficiaries. Except as expressly provided for herein, no government agency or official can claim any rights under this Agreement or Settlement, whether with respect to the conduct that is the subject of the Releases, the restrictions in Section 3, or the funds (or remainder of funds) paid or used in the Settlement. There are no third-party beneficiaries created or implied.

21.10 Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to implementation and enforcement of the terms of the Agreement, and all Parties hereto submit to the jurisdiction of the Court for the sole purposes of implementing and enforcing the Settlement embodied in the Agreement until such time that the Court enters an order dismissing the action with prejudice.

21.11 Governing Law. The Agreement and the exhibits hereto shall be considered to have been negotiated, executed, and delivered, and to have been wholly performed, in the State of Nevada, and the rights and obligations of the Parties to the Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the internal, substantive laws of the State of Nevada without giving effect to that State's choice of law principles.

21.12 Drafting. The language of all parts of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either party. No Party shall be deemed the drafter of this Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that the terms of the Agreement are contractual and are the product of negotiations between the Parties and their counsel. Each Party and their counsel cooperated in the drafting and preparation of the Agreement. In any construction to be made of the Agreement, the Agreement shall not be construed against any party and the canon of contract interpretation to the contrary shall not be applied.

21.13 Recitals. The recitals set forth above shall be and hereby are terms of this Agreement as if set forth herein. The headings herein are used for the purpose of convenience only and are not meant to have legal effect.

21.14 No Collateral Attack. The Settlement Agreement shall not be subject to collateral attack by any Settlement Class Member, member of the Bar Order Notice List, or any recipient of Class Notices or Bar Order Notices of the Settlement after the Final Judgment is entered.

Learning About the Lawsuit

What is this lawsuit about?

The plaintiffs in the lawsuit (Barrett Henzel, Allan L. Carso, Gary W. Lundin, Joshua Luekenga, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Bryce Kelly, Clint McDaniel, and Dan McDaniel) claimed that Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., aided and abetted Mathew Beasley, J&J Consulting Services, Inc., and others in operating a Ponzi scheme through the sale of fraudulent interests in purchase agreements, resulting in financial loss to Plaintiffs and members of the class.

The lawsuit alleges that Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., knowingly permitted the operation by Beasley and others of the J&J Ponzi scheme.

Wells Fargo Bank denies that it did anything wrong or had any knowledge of the scheme.

Where can I learn more?

You can get a complete copy of the proposed settlement and other key documents in this lawsuit at:

www.jjconsulting-receivership.com

Why is there a settlement in this lawsuit?

In October 2025, the parties agreed to settle, which means they have reached an agreement to resolve the lawsuit. Both sides want to avoid the risk and expense of further litigation.

The settlement is on behalf of the plaintiffs who brought the case and all members of the settlement class. The Court has not decided this case in favor of either side.

What is a class action settlement?

A class action settlement is an agreement between the parties to resolve and end the case. Settlements can provide money to class members and changes to the practices that caused the harm.

What happens next in this lawsuit?

The Court will hold a Fairness hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. The hearing will be held at:

Where:

U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada
Courtroom 7D
333 Las Vegas Blvd South
Las Vegas, NV 89101

When:

10:00 am PT on _____, 2026.

The Court has directed the parties to send you this notice about the proposed settlement. Because the settlement of a class action decides the rights of all members of the proposed class, the Court must give final approval to the settlement before it can take effect. Payments will only be made if the Court approves the settlement.

You don't have to attend, but you may at your own expense. You may also ask the Court for permission to speak and express your opinion about the settlement. If the Court does not approve the settlement or the parties decide to end it, it will be void and the lawsuit will continue. The date of the hearing may change without further notice to class members. To learn more and confirm the hearing date, go to www.jjconsulting-receivership.com.

Learning About the Settlement

What does the settlement provide?

Wells Fargo Bank has agreed to pay $50,000,000 to resolve the Class Action and the Receiver Action. This money will be used to reimburse lawyer fees and costs advanced, to the extent approved by the Court, and for the cost of administering this settlement. The rest will be distributed to class members by the Receiver. In exchange, the Members of the settlement class will "release" their claims as part of the settlement, which means they cannot sue Wells Fargo Bank for the same issues and alleged legal violations raised in this lawsuit. The full terms of the release can be found on the Important Documents page of the J&J Receivership website: www.jjconsulting-receivership.com.

Why is $50,000,000 fair?

The lawyers for the plaintiffs believe the settlement is fair because plaintiffs face substantial risks and delays in proving their case and/or recovering damages. These risks include the risk that the plaintiffs will not succeed in obtaining an order certifying the Class, that they may be unable to prove Wells Fargo knew of wrongdoing by Matthew Beasley and others, and the risk that they may not be successful in proving damages in full or in part. The lawyers believe that if the settlement is not approved, the Class could recover less or nothing at all from this lawsuit.

Am I a class member?

If you are a natural or legal person who invested in a J&J Entity (see below) lawsuit settlement contract between January 2017 and March 2022 and incurred a loss of your principal investment (in whole or in part) as determined by the Receiver pursuant to his court-appointed duties and as identified in the Receiver's official records submitted to the Court in the SEC Action, you are a class member.

The J&J Entities are:

- J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada corporation
- J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation
- J&J Purchasing, LLC, a Florida limited liability company

There are exceptions. You are not a class member if:

- you are a Relevant Non-Party, as defined in the Consolidated Class Action Complaint, or related to a Relevant Non-Party; or
- you are a judicial officer, or an immediate family member of a judicial officer, to whom this litigation is assigned.

If you are still unsure if you are a class member, call (833) 366-6236

(US or Canada) or (747) 215-2283 (International) or visit www.jjconsulting-receivership.com.

Deciding What to Do

How do I weigh my options?

Your options are to stay in the settlement, opt out of the settlement, object to the settlement, or do nothing. This chart shows the effects of each:

	Opt out	Object	Do Nothing
Can I receive settlement money if I . . .	NO	YES	YES*
Am I bound by the terms of this lawsuit if I . . .	NO	YES	YES
Can I pursue my own case if I . . .	YES	NO	NO
Will the class lawyers represent me if I . . .	NO	NO	YES

*If you did not make a claim between September 1, 2025, and December 1, 2025, in the J&J Consulting Services, Inc., Receivership, you must make a claim now to receive a settlement payment. See “Submitting a Claim” below.

You can object to the settlement AND submit a claim form to receive payment.*

Do I need a lawyer?

In a class action, the court appoints class representatives and lawyers to represent the interests of all the class members, they do not act as your personal attorneys.

For this settlement, the Court has appointed the following lawyers.

Class Action lawyers: Girard Sharp LLP, Gibbs Mura, A Law Group, and Law Offices of Robert L. Brace. These are the lawyers who represent the plaintiffs in the Class Action.

Levine Kellogg Lehman Schneider and Grossman LLP are the attorneys for Receiver Geoff Winkler in the Receiver Action. They will share in any attorneys' fees awarded to the Class Action attorneys.

If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

Payments

How will my payment be determined?

The amount you receive as a settlement payment will be determined by the claim you submitted between September 1, 2025, and December 1, 2025, in the J&J Consulting Services, Inc., Receivership, which will be approved or adjudicated based on the Receiver's claims process (your "Claim Amount"). Your payment will be calculated by dividing your Claim Amount by the total value of all Claim Amounts and multiplying the resulting fraction by the amount remaining in the settlement fund, after deducting the amounts approved by the Court to compensate the lawyers, pay costs of administration, and payments to the plaintiffs.

If you are a class member who did not make a claim in the Receivership, you can receive a settlement payment by following the instructions below under the heading, "Submitting a Claim." The Receiver will evaluate your claim using the same rules as in the SEC Action.

How will I get my payment?

Payments will be made to all claimants based on their Claim Amount and as determined by order of the Court in the SEC Action. Payments will be sent by the Receiver.

Submitting a Claim

If you are a class member, but you did not make a claim in the J&J Receivership, you can still claim a share of the settlement. Download the claim for at www.jjconsulting-receivership.com and mail it with supporting documentation to the Receiver no later than _____, 2026 (address below).

Do I have to pay the lawyers in this lawsuit?

Lawyers' fees and costs will be paid from the Settlement Fund.

Since 2022 when they began working on the case, the class action lawyers have not been paid attorneys' fees or reimbursed for expenses they advanced in connection with the case. To pay for their time and risk of non-payment, the lawyers will request, as part of the final approval of this Settlement, that the Court approve a payment of up to $16.6 million total in attorneys' fees plus the reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses not to exceed $900,000.

Lawyers' fees and expenses will only be awarded if approved by the Court as a fair and reasonable amount. You have the right to object to the lawyers' fees even if you think the settlement terms are fair.

Your lawyers will also ask the Court to approve a payment of $10,000 to each of the plaintiffs for the time and effort they contributed to the case. If approved by the Court, these payments will be paid from the Settlement Fund.

Opting Out

What if I don't want to be part of this settlement?

You can opt out. If you do, you will not receive a payment and cannot object to the settlement. However, you will not be bound or affected by anything that happens in this lawsuit. That means you keep the right to sue Wells Fargo Bank or be part of another case against them about the issues in this lawsuit. If you have a pending lawsuit against Wells Fargo Bank, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You must exclude yourself from this Class to continue your own lawsuit.

How do I opt out?

To opt out of the settlement, you must write a letter and mail it by _____, 2026, to the Settlement Administrator at:

J&J Bank Settlement
c/o Exclusion Requests
Stretto, Inc.
410 Exchange Ste. 100
Irvine, CA 92602

Be sure to include the case name, your name, address, telephone number, and signature. If you are represented by your own counsel, be sure to include the signature of your counsel.

Be sure to also include an explicit and unambiguous statement that the person seeking exclusion falls within the definition of the Settlement Class and desires to be excluded from the Settlement Class such as "I hereby request that I be excluded from the proposed Settlement Class in the Class Action."

Objecting

What if I disagree with the settlement?

If you disagree with any part of the settlement (including the lawyers' fees) but don't want to opt out, you may object. You must give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it and say whether your objection applies to just you, a part of the class, or the entire class. The Court will consider your views. The Court can only approve or deny the settlement — it cannot change the terms of the settlement. You may, but don't need to, hire your own lawyer to help you. You will be responsible for compensating any lawyer that you hire.

To object, you must send a letter to the Court that:

- (1) is postmarked by _____, 2026;
- (2) includes the case name and number (In re J&J Investment Litigation, Case No. 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK).
- (3) includes your full name, address and telephone number;

- (4) the basis for your objection;
- (5) if applicable, includes copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents upon which the objection is based;
- (6) says whether either you or your lawyer intend to appear at the final approval hearing;
- (7) the name, address, email address, and telephone number of every attorney representing you or who previously represented you who may be entitled to compensation related to the objection or fee application;
- (8) the identity of all counsel who will appear at the final approval hearing
- (9) your signature.

Mail the letter to:

Doing Nothing

What are the consequences of doing nothing?

Exhibit 2

Class Preliminary Approval Order

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

In re J&J Investment Litigation

Case No.: 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS SETTLEMENT AND PROVIDING FOR NOTICE

WHEREAS, the above-entitled action is pending before this Court (the “Class Action”);

WHEREAS, the parties having made application, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e), for an order approving settlement of this Class Action , in accordance with the Settlement Agreement and Release dated _____, 2026 (the “Agreement”), which, together with the exhibits annexed thereto, sets forth the terms and conditions for a proposed settlement of the Class Action and for dismissal of the Class Action with prejudice upon the terms and conditions set forth therein; and the Court having read and considered the Agreement and the exhibits Annexed thereto;

WHEREAS, all defined terms herein have the same meanings as set forth in the Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Court has reviewed Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval and supporting brief requesting that this Court: (1) conditionally certify the Settlement Class; (2) preliminarily approve the parties’ proposed class action settlement; (3) appoint Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan

McDaniel as Class Representatives, their counsel as Class Counsel, and Stretto, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator; (4) set the deadlines for written exclusion or objections to the Agreement; (5) approve the form of Class Notice to the Settlement Class and the claim form; and (6) schedule a hearing on the final approval of the Agreement for _____, 2026.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Nature of the Action. Plaintiffs Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel (“Plaintiffs”) allege that Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., (“Wells Fargo” or “Defendant”) (1) violated the Nevada Uniform Fiduciaries Act; (2) aided and abetted breach of fiduciary duty; (3) aided and abetted fraud; and (4) was negligent arising out of and relating to an alleged Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Jeffrey Judd and Matthew Beasley. Defendants dispute and deny all of Plaintiff’s claims.

2. Settlement. Plaintiffs Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel (the “Class Representatives”), individually and as Class Representative on behalf of the Class, and Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., (collectively, the “Parties”) have negotiated a potential settlement of the Class Action to avoid the expense, uncertainties, and burden of protracted litigation, and to resolve the Released Claims (as defined in the Agreement) against Defendant and the Releasees.

3. Review. At the preliminary approval stage, the Court’s task is to evaluate whether the settlement under Rule 23(e)(1). The Court may preliminarily approve the settlement only if it concludes that it will “likely” be able to (a) certify the class for purposes of judgment and (b) approve the parties’ settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate. Whether a settlement merits approval as fair, reasonable, and adequate is guided by the elements in Rule 23(e)(2).

Supplementing those Rule 23(e) elements are the “Churchill factors.” See generally Churchill Vill., L.L.C. v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir. 2004); see also Daniels v. Aria Resort & Casino, LLC, 2023 WL 2634613, at *2-3 (D. Nev. Mar. 23, 2023) (Navarro, J.) (applying both Rule 23 and Churchill factors); Kim v. Allison, 8 F.4th 1170, 1178 (9th Cir. 2021). Settlements that occur before formal class certification “require a higher standard of fairness.” In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 458 (9th Cir. 2000). In reviewing such settlements, a court also must ensure that “the settlement is not the product of collusion among the negotiating parties.” In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 946-47 (9th Cir. 2011).

The Court has carefully reviewed the Agreement pursuant Rule 23(e)(1), including the notice plan, the plan of allocation and the release of claims, as well as the files, records, and proceedings to date in the Class Action. The terms and conditions in the Agreement are hereby incorporated as though fully set forth in this Order, and, unless otherwise indicated, capitalized items in this Order shall have the meanings attributed to them in the Agreement.

4. Jurisdiction. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Class Action and over all parties to the Class Action, including all of the Class Members, and venue in this Court is proper.

5. Preliminary Settlement Approval. Based on the review the Court has conducted, as set forth in paragraph 3, the Court does hereby preliminarily approve the Agreement and the Settlement set forth therein as fair, reasonable, and adequate, subject to further consideration at the Final Approval Hearing described below. The Court finds on a preliminary basis that the Settlement as set forth in the Agreement falls within the range of reasonableness and was the product of informed, good-faith, arms’-length negotiations between the Parties and their counsel, and therefore meets the requirements for preliminary approval. The Court finds and concludes that the amount of the settlement, the stage of the proceedings at which the Agreement was reached, the deliberate nature of settlement negotiations, the assistance of experienced mediator Robert Meyer, Esq. in the settlement process, and the overall record in this action, all support the finding that the Settlement is non-collusive.

6. Certification of Settlement Class. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the Court conditionally certifies, for settlement purposes only, (and for no purposes and with no other effect upon the Class Action, including no effect upon the Class Action should the Agreement not receive Final Approval or should the Effective Date not occur), a class defined as all natural and legal persons who invested in a J&J Entity lawsuit settlement contract between January 2017 and March 2022 and who incurred a loss of their principle investment (in whole or in part) as determined by the Receiver pursuant to his court-appointed duties and as identified in the Receiver's official records submitted to the Court in the SEC Action. Excluded from the class are Wells Fargo and the Relevant Non-Parties as defined in the Class Action Complaint; their parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, legal representatives, predecessors, successors, assigns, and employees; and any judge to whom the Class Action or Receiver Action is assigned, his or her spouse, and all persons within the third degree of relationship to either of them, as well as the spouses of such persons.

The Court finds, pursuant to Rule 23(e)(1)(B)(ii) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, that it will likely be able to certify the Class for purposes of the proposed Settlement. Specifically, and solely for purposes of the proposed Settlement of this Class Action, the Court finds that each element required for certification of the Class pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure has been met or will likely be met:

- (a) the members of the Class are so numerous that their joinder in the Class Action would be impracticable;

(b) there are questions of law and fact common to the Class that predominate over any individual questions;

(c) the Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the Settlement Class;

(d) Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have and will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class; and

(e) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims.

7. Designation of Class Representatives and Class Counsel. The Court finds and concludes, pursuant to Rule 23(e)(1)(B)(ii), that it will likely be able to certify Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel as the Class Representatives, in that their claims typical of and they are adequate representatives of the Settlement Class they propose to represent. The Court hereby appoints Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel as the Class Representatives for the Settlement Class. The Court finds and concludes that the law firms Girard Sharp LLP, Gibbs Mura LLP, and Law Offices of Robert L. Brace have extensive experience and expertise in prosecuting class actions and they have diligently prosecuted the Class Action. The Court hereby appoints Plaintiffs' counsel of record in this case as Class Counsel.

8. The Court hereby preliminarily approves the Settlement, as embodied in the Agreement, and finds, pursuant to Rule 23(e)(1)(B)(i) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, that it will likely be able to finally approve the Settlement under Rule 23(e)(2) as being fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Class, subject to further consideration at the Settlement Hearing to be conducted as described below.

9. Final Approval Hearing. A hearing (the “Final Approval Hearing”) shall be held before this Court on _____, 202__, at _____ .m., at the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, 333 Las Vegas Blvd South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101 to determine, among other things: (i) whether the proposed Settlement of the Class Action on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Class and should be approved by the Court; (ii) whether a Judgment as provided in Paragraph 1.34 of the Agreement should be entered; (iii) whether Settlement Class Members should be bound by the Release set forth in the Agreement; (iv) any amount of fees and expenses that should be awarded to Class Counsel and any award to the Class Representatives for their representation and service to the Class; (v) to consider any Settlement Class Member’s objections to the Settlement and/or any application of Class Counsel for payment or reimbursement of attorney’s fees, costs, and expenses and any application for an award to the Class Representatives; and (vi) to rule upon such other matters as the Court may deem appropriate. The Parties shall include the date of the Final Approval Hearing in the Class Notice to be mailed to the Settlement Class.

10. Class Notice. The Court approves the form, substance, and requirements of the Class Notice (the “Notice,” annexed hereto as Exhibit 1). The Court further finds that the form, content, and distribution of the Notice, substantially in the manner and form set forth in Paragraph 11 of this Order, meets the requirements of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and due process. The Class Notice fairly, plainly, accurately, and reasonably informs potential Class Members of appropriate information about: (1) the nature of this action, the definition of the Settlement Class, the identity of Class Counsel, and the essential terms of the Settlement, including the plan of allocation for the monetary and other relief, and includes the address for a website maintained by the Settlement Administrator that has links to the notice, motions for approval and for attorney's fees, claim form, and any other important documents in this case; (2) Class Representatives' forthcoming application for the Class Representatives' service awards and Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs award; (3) how Class Members may claim settlement payments and how the Settlement Class Members' share of the Settlement Fund will be calculated and distributed; (4) this Court's procedures for final approval of the Settlement; (5) how to Opt-Out or Object to the Settlement; (6) how to obtain additional information regarding this Action and the Settlement, including instructions on how to access the case docket via the Public Access to Court Electronic Records ("PACER") or in person at the Courthouse; and (7) the date of the Final Approval Hearing and that the date may change without further notice to the Settlement Class, and that Class Members may check the settlement website or PACER to confirm that the date has not been changed.

The Court further finds and concludes that the proposed plan for distributing the Class Notice likewise is a reasonable method calculated to reach all individuals who would be bound by the Settlement. Under this plan, prior to distributing the Class Notice and after receiving a Class Notice List from the Receiver, the Settlement Administrator will update addresses through the NCOA or similar databases. After the Settlement Administrator updates the Settlement Class's addresses, the Notice will be sent out via first-class mail to the Settlement Class Members. Where no physical address exists, the Settlement Administrator will email the notice, to the extent an email address is available. No later than the mailing of the Notice, the Notice will be posted to the Settlement Website. There is no additional method of distribution that is cost-effective and would be reasonably likely to notify potential Class Members who may not receive notice under this proposed distribution plan.

The Court hereby concludes that the proposed Class Notice and Notice plan are the best practicable under the circumstances and are reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise potential Class Members of the pendency of the Class Action, to apprise persons who would otherwise fall within the definition of the Class of their right to exclude themselves from the proposed Class, and to apprise Class Members of their right to object to the proposed Settlement and their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. The Court further finds that the Notice constitutes due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

11. Settlement Administrator. The Court approves the appointment of Stretto, Inc. to supervise and administer the notice procedure as more fully set forth below:

(a) No later than thirty days from the entry of this Order (the “Class Notice Mailing Date”), the Settlement Administrator shall cause a copy of the Class Notice, substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 1 hereto, to be mailed by first class U.S. mail to the last known mailing address of each individual on the Class Notice List, after being updated by the Settlement Administrator using the NCOA or similar databases, or alternatively, via email if no physical address exists;

(b) No later than the Notice Mailing Date, the Receiver shall post to the Receiver’s website, the Agreement and Exhibits, including the Class Notice substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 1 hereto, as well as this Preliminary Approval Order, applications for attorneys’ fees and class representatives’ service awards (when available), the Final Approval Order, and the operative Complaint in this Action;

(c) The Receiver shall provide counsel with written confirmation following publication via website;

(d) Following the mailing of the Class Notice, the Settlement Administrator shall provide counsel with written confirmation of the mailing;

(e) The Settlement Administrator shall otherwise carry out its duties as set forth in the Agreement; and

(f) The Class Notice List shall be treated as Confidential pursuant to Section 18 of the Settlement Agreement.

12. Qualified Settlement Fund. The Receiver is authorized to establish an account at a federally-insured financial institution which satisfies the requirements to be a “Qualified Settlement Fund” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.468B-1, promulgated under Section 468B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Receiver will administer the Settlement Fund and will be the “Administrator” of this Qualified Settlement Fund within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.468B-2(k)(3). The Receiver shall establish the Qualified Settlement Fund in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

13. Submission of Claim Forms. Settlement Class Members with allowed claims pursuant to the SEC Distribution Plan shall have a Claim in connection with the Settlement and shall be entitled to payment from the Settlement Fund as set forth in the Agreement. Class Members who did not participate in the SEC Action pursuant to the Receiver’s claims process will have the opportunity to submit a Claim. The Class Notice shall include a statement that Class Members who did not submit a Claim in the SEC Action pursuant to the SEC Claims Order may make a Claim in connection with this Settlement. The Class Notice shall state that, any such Claim Form must be submitted by the Objection Deadline, and that except for the lapsed submission deadline, the submission of a Claim Form shall be governed by the SEC Claims Order and a resulting Claim, if allowed, shall entitle the Settlement Class Member only to proceeds of the Settlement Fund and not a general distribution from receivership funds in the SEC Action. All completed Claim Forms must be postmarked or electronically submitted to the Settlement Administrator or Receiver no later than sixty days after the Class Notice Mailing Date. Any Class Member who does not timely and validly submit a Claim shall be barred from receiving payment under the Settlement, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, but shall nevertheless be bound by any Final Judgment entered by the Court.

14. Exclusion from the Class. Any Class Member may, upon request, be excluded from the Class. Any such Class Member must submit a written Request to Opt Out to the Settlement Administrator at the mailing address listed in the Class Notice no later than sixty days after the Notice Mailing Date. To be valid, the Request to Opt Out must: (a) identify the case name; (b) identify the name and address of the person requesting exclusion; (c) be personally signed by the person requesting exclusion; and (d) contain a statement that indicates a desire to be excluded from the Settlement Class, such as “I hereby request that I be excluded from the proposed Settlement Class in the Action,” as set forth in Section 11 of the Agreement. All Class Members who submit valid, verified, and timely Requests to Opt Out in the manner set forth in this Paragraph shall have no rights under the Agreement and shall not be bound by the Agreement or any Final Judgment. Mass or class opt outs shall not be allowed. A Class Member who desires to opt out must take timely affirmative written action pursuant to this Order and the Agreement, even if the person desiring to opt out of the Class (a) files or has filed a separate action against any of the Released

Parties, or (b) is, or becomes, a putative class member in any other class action filed against any of the Released Parties.

15. Copies of Requests to Opt Out. The Settlement Administrator shall provide Class Counsel and Wells Fargo's Counsel with a list of all timely Requests to Opt Out on a rolling basis, and a final list of all timely Opt-Out Requests within seven business days after the Opt Out Deadline.

16. Entry of Appearance. Any member of the Class who does not exclude himself or herself from the Settlement Class may enter an appearance in the Action, at his or her own expense, individually or through counsel of his or her own choice. If he or she does not enter an appearance, he or she will be represented by Class Counsel.

17. Binding Effect on Class. All Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement Class by properly and timely submitting a Request to Opt Out shall be bound by all determinations and judgments in the Action concerning the Settlement, whether favorable or unfavorable to the Class.

18. Objections. Any Class Member who does not timely and validly exclude himself or herself from the Settlement Class may appear and show cause, if he or she has any reason to object to the Settlement; provided, however, that no Class Member shall be heard or entitled to contest the approval of the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement, or, if approved, the Final Judgment to be entered thereon approving the same, or any attorney's fees and expenses to be awarded to Class Counsel or award made to the Class Representative, unless a written objection is sent to the Clerk of Court at the mailing address listed in the Class Notice no later than sixty days after the Notice Mailing Date. The written objection must also be mailed to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel no later than sixty days after the Notice Mailing Date. To be valid, the written objection must include: (a) the case name and number; (b) the name, address, telephone number of the Settlement Class Member objecting and, if represented by counsel, of his/her counsel; (c) the basis for objection; (d) a statement of whether he/she intends to appear at the Class Final Approval Hearing, either with or without counsel; (e) the identity of all counsel who represent the objector, including any former or current counsel who previously represented the objector and may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement or the fee application; and (f) the identity of all counsel representing the objector who will appear at the Class Final Approval Hearing.

Within seven (7) business days of the Objection Deadline, the Settlement Administrator shall provide a report to the Court setting forth a list of Objections that meet the above requirements. The Court shall have the ultimate determination of whether an Objection has been appropriately made. Any Settlement Class Member who does not make his or her objection in the manner provided in this Section shall be deemed to have waived such objection, shall not be permitted to object to any terms or approval of the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing, and shall be foreclosed from making any objection to the Settlement, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

19. Appearance of Objectors at Final Approval Hearing. Any Settlement Class Member who files and serves a written objection in accordance with Paragraph 18 of this Order may appear, in person or by counsel, at the Final Approval Hearing held by the Court, to show cause why the proposed Settlement should not be approved as fair, adequate, and reasonable, but only if the objector files with the Clerk of Court a notice of intention to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and serves the same on all counsel designated in the Class Notice by the Objection Deadline (“Notice of Intention to Appear”). The Notice of Intention to Appear must include copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence that the objecting Settlement Class Member will present to the Court in connection with the Final Approval Hearing. Any Settlement Class Member who does not file a Notice of Intention to Appear in accordance with the deadlines and other specifications set forth in the Agreement and Class Notice shall not be entitled to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and raise any objections.

20. Service of Motion for Final Approval. The motion in support of final approval of the Settlement shall be filed and served within thirty days of the Class Notice Mailing Date, and prior to the Final Approval Hearing.

21. Fees, Expenses, and Awards. Class Counsel's application for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses shall be filed within thirty days of the Class Notice Mailing Date, and prior to the Final Approval Hearing. Neither Defendants nor the Releasees shall have any responsibility for any application for Attorney's Fees and Expenses submitted by Class Counsel. At or after the Final Approval Hearing, the Court shall determine whether to approve Class Counsel's request for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses and whether to approve any request for an award to the Class Representatives for their service to the Class.

22. Releases. If the Settlement is finally approved, the Releasors shall release the Releasees from the Released Claims.

23. Use of Order. Neither this Order, the fact that settlement was reached and filed, the Agreement, nor any other related negotiations, statements, or proceedings shall be construed as, offered as, admitted as, received as, used as, or deemed to be an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing whatsoever or breach of any duty on the part of Defendants, the Class Representatives, or the Settlement Class Members. This Order is not a finding of the validity or invalidity of any of the claims asserted or defenses raised in the Action. In no event shall this

Order, the fact that a settlement was reached, the Agreement, or any of its provisions or any negotiations, statements, or proceedings relating thereto in any way be used, offered, admitted, or referred to in the Action, in any other action, or in any judicial, administrative, regulatory, arbitration, or other proceeding, by any person or entity, except by the Parties and only by the Parties in a proceeding to enforce the Agreement.

24. Continuance of Final Approval Hearing. The Court reserves the right to continue the date of the Final Approval Hearing without further notice to the Members of the Class, and retains jurisdiction to consider all further applications arising out of or connected with the proposed Settlement. The Court may approve the Settlement with such modifications as may be agreed to by the Parties, if appropriate, without further notice to the Class.

25. Stay of Proceedings. All proceedings in this Class Action are stayed until further Order of this Court, except as may be necessary to implement the Settlement or comply with the terms of the Agreement.

26. Temporary Bar for all Class Members. Pending final determination of whether the Settlement should be approved, and upon expiration of the Opt-Out Deadline, all Class Members who do not timely and validly exclude themselves from the Settlement Class, and each of them, and anyone who purports to act on their behalf, are barred from directly or indirectly maintaining, commencing, prosecuting, or pursuing directly, representatively, or in any other capacity, any Released Claim subsumed and covered by the Release in the Agreement, including in any court or arbitration forum.

27. Termination of Settlement. If: (a) the Agreement is terminated as provided in Section 13 of the Agreement; or (b) any specified material term or condition of the Settlement as set forth in the Agreement is not satisfied as provided in Section 13 of the Agreement, then this Order may not be introduced as evidence or referred to in any actions or proceedings by any person or entity and shall be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc (except Paragraph 23 of this Order shall remain in effect), and each party shall be restored to his, her, or its respective position in this Action as its existed prior to the execution of the Agreement.

28. No Merits Determination. By entering this Order, the Court does not make any determination as to the merits of this Class Action.

29. Authority. The Court hereby authorizes the Parties to take such further steps as necessary and appropriate to establish the means necessary to implement the terms of the Agreement.

30. Jurisdiction. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction over the Class Action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the Agreement and the Settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE
COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

MATTHEW WADE BEASLEY et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:22-cv-00612-CDS-EJY

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT WITH WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A.
AND RIGHT OF EXCLUSION FROM BAR ORDER

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a proposed settlement (the “Settlement”) has been reached in an agreement by and among Geoff Winkler, not individually but solely in his capacity as the court-appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”) of the Receivership Entities in this action (the “SEC Action”),¹ investors in the class action lawsuit captioned In re J&J Investment Litigation, Case No. 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK (the “Class Action”) in the District of Nevada, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Wells Fargo”). The Settlement requires a $50 million payment from Wells Fargo, the net proceeds of which will be used by the Receiver to make payments to investors of J&J Consulting Services, Inc. and related entities who suffered a net, out-of-pocket loss on their investment, as alleged in the Class Action (“Class Members”).

You are receiving this Notice because you have been identified as someone who may be a non-investor creditor of the Receivership Entities, a non-Class Member investor, and/or a person or entity who was affiliated with the Receivership Entities, and whose claim(s) against Wells Fargo may be barred or enjoined upon final approval of the Settlement, through the entry of a “Bar Order.” A federal court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

The purpose of this Notice is to inform you of the Settlement and to inform you of your right to exclude yourself from the effect of the Bar Order or submit an objection to the Bar Order. If you do nothing and the Settlement is approved, the proceeds of the Settlement will be used to pay Class Members, thereby reducing the overall claims against the Receivership Entities. If you do not exclude yourself from the Bar Order, you will be enjoined from bringing any claims you may have against Wells Fargo arising out of the Receivership Entities' offering of investments in personal injury settlements (the "J&J Investment Scheme"). This Notice describes important rights you may have and the steps you must take if you wish to be excluded from the Bar Order. You should consider consulting with your attorney regarding the Settlement, the Bar Order, your choices, and this Notice. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Please read this entire Notice carefully.

The Settlement: The following parties have reached an agreement memorializing the Settlement (the "Settlement Agreement"): (i) Geoff Winkler, not individually but solely in his capacity as the court-appointed Receiver of the Receivership Entities; (ii) Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel (the "Class Representatives"), as proposed class representatives in the Class Action; and (iii) Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Receiver, the Class Representatives, and Wells Fargo may be referred to as the "Parties" or individually as a "Party.") The Settlement Agreement is subject to approval by (i) the Court overseeing the Receiver to make sure the Settlement is fair and reasonable as to the receivership estate, and (ii) the Court overseeing the Class Action to make sure the Settlement is fair and reasonable as to the Class Members.

Under the terms of the Settlement, Wells Fargo agrees to pay the total sum of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000.00) (the "Settlement Payment"). In exchange for the Settlement Payment, (a) the Receiver agrees to release all claims he and the Receivership Entities may have against Wells Fargo that arise from or relate to the J&J Investment Scheme, and (b) all claims of the Class Members against Wells Fargo that arise from or relate to the J&J Investment Scheme will be released and barred.² The Settlement also requires entry of the Bar Order in the SEC Action that will enjoin the following persons from bringing claims against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme: (1) creditors, including without limitation any non-investor creditors, lenders, or factoring companies, (2) non-class member investors, including without limitation net winning investors, and (3) persons or entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities, as set forth in the "Bar Order Notice List."

If you received this Notice, you are on the Bar Order Notice List. You have the right to exclude yourself from (or opt out of) the provisions of the Settlement. By opting out of the Bar Order, you will be excluded from the provision of the Bar Order that enjoins claims against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme. If too many persons from the Bar Order Notice List opt out of the Settlement or if the Bar Order is not entered, Wells Fargo may, at its option, terminate the Settlement. In addition, you have the right to object to entry of the Bar Order. The procedures to opt out and object to the Bar Order are set forth below.

² "Releasees" is defined as "(1) Wells Fargo; (2) each of their past, present, or future subsidiaries, parent companies (including any and all of its subsidiaries and affiliates), divisions, affiliates, partners or any other organization units of any kind doing business under their names, or doing business under any other names, or any entity now or in the past controlled by, controlling, or under the common control with any of the foregoing and doing business under any other names, and each and all of their respective affiliates and subsidiaries, and each of their respective predecessors, successors, and assigns; and (3) each of the present and former officers, directors, partners, shareholders, agents, employees, attorneys (including any consultants hired by counsel), advisors, independent contractors, representatives, beneficial owners, insurers, accountants, heirs, executors, and administrators, and each of their respective predecessors, successors, and assigns of any person or entities in subparts (1) or (2) hereof. This definition specifically includes Wells Fargo and Company."

The Receiver has filed in the SEC Action a motion seeking preliminary approval of the Settlement, establishment of the procedure and requirements to notify persons who may be affected by the Settlement, and the scheduling of a hearing date for the Court to consider whether to approve the Settlement (the “SEC Final Approval Hearing”). The Class Representatives also have filed in the Class Action a motion seeking preliminary approval of the Settlement, establishment of the procedure and requirements to notify Class Members, and the scheduling of a hearing date for the Court to consider whether to approve the Settlement (the “Class Final Approval Hearing”). The Court in both cases has granted those requests and established the below dates and procedures.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS
DO NOTHING	If you agree to the Settlement and entry of the Bar Order, you do not need to do anything. If you do nothing and the Court approves the Settlement, including the Bar Order, you will be barred by court order from pursuing your own claims or lawsuit against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme. If the Settlement is approved and Wells Fargo makes the Settlement Payment, it will be used to pay Class Members, thereby reducing the total claims against the Receivership Entities.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE BAR ORDER	If you opt out of the Bar Order, you will retain your right to pursue the claims you may have against Wells Fargo (if any) arising from the J&J Investment Scheme.
SUBMIT AN OBJECTION TO THE BAR ORDER	You may object to the Bar Order and request that the Court not enter the Bar Order. If you object to the Bar Order but do not exclude yourself from the Bar Order, and the Court overrules your objection, you will be barred by court order from pursuing your own claims or lawsuit against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme.

--	---

The Court in the SEC Action must decide whether to approve the Settlement. The Court will consider whether the Settlement Agreement is adequate, fair, and reasonable. Distributions will only be made if the Court approves the Settlement and after objections, if any, are resolved.

COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SETTLEMENT AND BAR ORDER

1. What does the Settlement provide?

Wells Fargo has agreed to pay $50 million under the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Payment, less attorneys' fees and costs and the cost of administration, will be used to make distributions to Class Members.

2. How will the Settlement Payment be allocated?

The net proceeds from the Settlement Payment will be allocated among Class Members based on their claims against the Receivership Entities. Class Members with approved claims in the SEC Action, as well as Class Members who submit claims in response to the Settlement notices, will be eligible for payment from the Settlement Payment. The Receiver will make a pro rata distribution to the Class Members based on their net investment (total investment less returns or distributions). These payments to Class Members will reduce the total amount of claims against the Receivership Entities.

3. How would the Bar Order affect me?

If you do not opt out of the Bar Order, you will be barred from pursuing any claims against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme. The Settlement does not affect any potential or ongoing lawsuit you may have against Wells Fargo (if any) that does not relate to the J&J Investment Scheme.

4. What does it mean to opt out (i.e., exclude myself)?

If you do not want the Bar Order to affect your claims, if any, against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme, you must submit a request. This is called "excluding yourself" or "opting out." By opting out, you are excluding yourself from the applicability of the Bar Order. However, there is no guarantee that any claim you may file separately against Wells Fargo will prevail. If you opt out, you may not object to the Settlement or Bar Order.

5. How do I opt out (i.e., exclude myself)?

To opt out of the Settlement, you must send a written request (the "Request to Opt Out") by mail stating that you want to be excluded from the Bar Order. Your Request to Opt Out must include the following: (a) identification of the case name for the SEC Action; (b) your name, and address; (c) your signature; and (d) a signed statement that indicates a desire to be excluded from the Bar Order, such as “I hereby request that I be excluded from the Bar Order in the SEC Action.” The Request to Opt Out must be postmarked no later than [REDACTED], and sent to:

[Settlement Administrator]

You cannot exclude yourself on the phone. You must submit the written exclusion request via mail as noted above. If you do not properly and timely submit a Request to Opt Out, it will be invalid and may be disregarded.

6. If I do not opt out, can I sue Wells Fargo for the same claim later?

No, because you will be bound by the Bar Order. If you have any pending claim or intend to assert a claim against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme, you may want to consult a lawyer. Remember the deadline to submit a Request to Opt Out is [REDACTED].

7. How do I object to the Bar Order?

If you would like to tell the Court in the SEC Action that you do not agree with entry of the Bar Order, you must submit an objection. If you wish to object to the Bar Order, you must (i) file a written objection with the Court in the SEC Action by mailing to [court address] and (ii) mail it (with the requisite postmark) to the Receiver’s attorneys and Wells Fargo’s attorneys at the addresses indicated in the response to Question 12 below.

All objections must be postmarked by [REDACTED], and contain:

- a. the case name and number of the SEC Action;
- b. your name, address, and telephone number, and the same information as to your attorney, if you are represented by counsel;
- c. the basis for the objection;
- d. a statement of whether you intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing in the SEC Action, either with or without counsel;
- e. the identity of all counsel who represent or have represented you, including any attorney who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement, Bar Order, or the fee application; and
- f. the identity of all counsel who will appear on your behalf at the Final Approval Hearing in the SEC Action.

Please note that if you do not submit an objection by the time and in the manner provided above, you will be deemed to have waived the right to object (including any right to appeal) to the Bar Order. You do not need to appear at the Final Approval Hearing or take any other action to indicate your objection or approval.

8. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement and enter the Bar Order?

The Court in the SEC Action will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement, enter the Final Approval Order, and enter the Bar Order. The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing on the Settlement at [REDACTED], on [REDACTED], in Courtroom [REDACTED] of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, Las Vegas Division, 333 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, NV 89101. At the hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as well as any objections to the Settlement, and consider whether the enter the Bar Order.

9. Do I need to go to the Final Approval Hearing?

No. If you submit an objection, you do not have to go to the Court to talk about it. As long as your written objection is received on time, the Court will consider it. If you timely and properly submit a Request to Opt Out, you do not need to confirm that with the Court either.

10. How can my counsel or I appear at the Final Approval Hearing in the SEC Action?

If you wish to make an appearance at the Final Approval Hearing, either on your own or through an attorney, you must make a request to do so, and it is subject to Court approval. To appear, you must file with the Clerk of the Court in the SEC Action a “Notice of Intention to Appear” and serve that notice on the Receiver’s attorneys and Wells Fargo’s attorneys at the addresses indicated in the response to Question 12 below. Your or your attorney’s Notice of Intention to Appear must include copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence that you will present to the Court. Your Notice of Intention to Appear must also be filed and served by [REDACTED].

11. How do I get more information about the Settlement and Bar Order?

This Notice does not provide all the details of the Settlement and the Bar Order. For further information, you can obtain copies of the Settlement Agreement, the proposed Bar Order, the motions seeking approval of the Settlement, and other supporting papers from the Receiver’s website (<https://jjconsulting-receivership.com/>). Copies of these documents may also be requested by e-mail, by sending the request to [REDACTED]; or by telephone, by calling [REDACTED].

12. What is the contact information for the Receiver’s Counsel and Wells Fargo’s Counsel for purposes of the Settlement?

Case No.: 2:22-cv-00612-CDS-EJY

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, BAR ORDER, AND PROVIDING FOR NOTICE

WHEREAS, the above-captioned matter is pending before this Court;

WHEREAS, on or about June 3, 2022, and as amended on or about July 28, 2022, Geoff Winkler (the “Receiver”) was appointed in this action as Receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida limited liability company relating to the Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Jeffrey Judd and Matthew Beasley (Dkt. Nos. 88, 207);

WHEREAS, the case captioned Geoff Winkler, as court-appointed receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida limited liability company v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Case No. 2:23-cv-00703 was filed on or about May 4, 2023 and is pending in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada (the “Receiver Action”);

WHEREAS, the Receiver has moved for an order approving settlement of the Receiver Action , in accordance with the Settlement Agreement and Release dated _____, 2026 (the “Agreement”), which, together with the exhibits annexed thereto, sets forth the terms and conditions for a proposed settlement of the Receiver Action and for dismissal of the Receiver Action with prejudice upon the terms and conditions set forth therein; and the Court having read and considered the Agreement and the exhibits Annexed thereto;

WHEREAS, all defined terms herein have the same meanings as set forth in the Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Court has reviewed the Receiver’s Motion for Preliminary Approval and supporting brief requesting that this Court: (1) preliminarily approve the parties’ proposed settlement; (2) preliminarily approve the Bar Order; (3) appoint _____ as the Settlement Administrator; (4) set the deadlines for written exclusion or objections to the Bar Order; (5) approve the form of Bar Order Notice to be sent to the Bar Order Notice List; and (6) schedule a hearing on the final approval of the Agreement for _____, 2026.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Nature of the Action. The Receiver alleges that Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., (“Wells Fargo” or “Defendant”) (1) aided and abetted breach of fiduciary duty; (2) aided and abetted fraud; and (3) aided and abetted conversion; and (5) violated of the Nevada Uniform

Fiduciaries Act arising out of the alleged Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Judd and Beasley. Defendants dispute and deny all of Plaintiff's claims.

2. Settlement. The Receiver has negotiated a potential settlement of the Receiver Action to avoid the expense, uncertainties, and burden of protracted litigation, and to resolve the Released Claims (as defined in the Agreement) against Defendant and the Releasees. The Agreement is contingent on the issuance of a Bar Order, and Wells Fargo has the option to terminate the Settlement pursuant to the terms set forth in the confidential side agreement referenced in Section 13 of the Agreement.

3. Review. At the preliminary approval stage, the Court's task is to evaluate whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable for purposes of Receivership recovery.

The Court has carefully reviewed the Agreement, including the proposed Bar Order, as well as the files, records, and proceedings to date in the Receiver Action. The terms and conditions in the Agreement are hereby incorporated as though fully set forth in this Order, and, unless otherwise indicated, capitalized items in this Order shall have the meanings attributed to them in the Agreement.

4. Jurisdiction. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Receiver Action and over all parties to the Receiver Action and this Action, including all of those on the Bar Order Notice List, and venue in this Court is proper.

5. Preliminary Settlement Approval. Based on the review the Court has conducted, as set forth in paragraph 3, the Court does hereby preliminarily approve the Agreement and the Settlement set forth therein as fair, reasonable, and adequate, subject to further consideration at the Final Approval Hearing described below. The Court finds on a preliminary basis that the Settlement as set forth in the Agreement falls within the range of reasonableness and was the product of informed, good-faith, arms'-length negotiations between the Parties and their counsel, and therefore meets the requirements for preliminary approval. The Court finds and concludes that the assistance of experienced mediator Robert Meyer, Esq. in the settlement process supports the finding that the Settlement is non-collusive.

6. Approval of Bar Order. Pursuant to due process, Court conditionally approves the Bar Order, which is an order enjoining (1) creditors, (2) non-class member investors, and (3) persons or entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities from bringing any further claims against Wells Fargo arising out of the J&J Investment Scheme, for settlement purposes only, (and for no purposes and with no other effect upon the Receiver Action or this Action, including no effect upon the Receiver Action should the Agreement not receive Final Approval or should the Effective Date not occur). The Bar Order includes the persons and entities on the Bar Order Notice List and does not include any individual who validly opts out of the Bar Order pursuant to the procedures set forth herein.

7. Final Approval Hearing. A hearing (the "SEC Final Approval Hearing") shall be held before this Court on _____, 202__, at _____ .m., at the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, 333 Las Vegas Blvd South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101 to determine, among other things: (i) whether the proposed Settlement of the Receiver Action on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be approved by the Court; (ii) whether a Judgment as provided in Paragraph 1.34 of the Agreement should be entered; (iii) whether member of the Bar Order Notice List should be bound by the Release set forth in the Agreement; (iv) to consider any objections to the Bar Order by members of the Bar Order Notice List; and (vi) to rule upon such other matters as the Court may deem appropriate. The Parties shall include the date of the Final Approval Hearing in the Bar Order Notice to be mailed to those on the Bar Order Notice List.

8. Bar Order Notice. The Court approves the form, substance, and requirements of the Bar Order Notice (the “Notice”) annexed hereto as Exhibit 1. The Court further finds that the form, content, and distribution of the Notice, substantially in the manner and form set forth in Paragraph 8 of this Order, meets the requirements of due process. The Bar Order Notice fairly, plainly, accurately, and reasonably informs members of the Bar Order Notice List of appropriate information about: (1) the nature of this action and the essential terms of the Settlement, including the plan of allocation for the monetary and other relief, and includes the address for a website maintained by the Receiver that has links to the notice, motions for approval and for attorney’s fees, claim form, and any other important documents in this case; (2) this Court’s procedures for final approval of the Settlement; (3) how to Opt-Out or Object to the Bar Order; (4) how to obtain additional information regarding the Receiver Action and the Settlement; and (5) the date of the SEC Final Approval Hearing.

The Court further finds and concludes that the proposed plan for distributing the Bar Order Notice likewise is a reasonable method calculated to reach all individuals who would be bound by the Bar Order. Under this plan, prior to distributing the Bar Order Notice and after receiving a Bar Order Notice List from the Receiver, the Settlement Administrator will update addresses through the NCOA or similar databases. After the Settlement Administrator updates the Bar Order Notice List addresses, the Notice will be sent out via first-class mail to the members of the Bar Order Notice. No later than the mailing of the Notice, the Notice will be posted to the Settlement Website. There is no additional method of distribution that is cost-effective and would be reasonably likely to notify members of the Bar Order Notice List who may not receive notice under this proposed distribution plan.

The Court hereby concludes that the proposed Bar Order Notice and Notice plan are the best practicable under the circumstances and are reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise members of the Bar Order Notice List of the pendency of the Receiver Action, to apprise persons who would otherwise fall within the definition of the Bar Order of their right to exclude themselves from the proposed Bar Order, and to apprise members of the Bar Order Notice List of their right to object to the proposed Bar Order and their right to appear at the SEC Final Approval Hearing. The Court further finds that the Notice constitutes due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

9. Settlement Administrator. The Court approves the appointment of Stretto, Inc. to supervise and administer the notice procedure as more fully set forth below:

- a) No later than thirty days from the entry of this Order (the “Bar Order Notice Mailing Date”) and the Class Notice Mailing Date in the Class Action (whichever is later), the Settlement Administrator shall cause a copy of the Bar Order Notice, substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 1 hereto, to be mailed by first class U.S. mail to the last known mailing address of each individual on the Bar Order Notice List, after being updated by the Settlement Administrator using the NCOA or similar databases;
- b) No later than the Bar Order Notice Mailing Date, the Receiver shall update his receivership website (<https://jjiconsulting-receivership.com/>) to contain the Agreement and Exhibits, including the Bar Order Notice substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 1 hereto, as well as this SEC Preliminary Approval Order, the SEC Final Approval Order, the operative Complaint in the Receiver Action, and the Motion for Preliminary Approval in this Action;

- c) The Receiver shall provide counsel with written confirmation following publication via website;
- d) Following the mailing of the Bar Order Notice, the Settlement Administrator shall provide counsel with written confirmation of the mailing;
- e) The Settlement Administrator shall otherwise carry out its duties as set forth in the Agreement; and
- f) The Bar Order Notice List shall be treated as Confidential pursuant to Section 18 of the Settlement Agreement.

10. Qualified Settlement Fund. The Receiver is authorized to establish an account at a federally-insured financial institution which satisfies the requirements to be a “Qualified Settlement Fund” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.468B-1, promulgated under Section 468B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Administrator will administer the Settlement Fund and will be the “Administrator” of this Qualified Settlement Fund within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.468B-2(k)(3). The Receiver shall establish or maintain a Qualified Settlement Fund in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

11. Exclusion from the Bar Order. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List may, upon request, be excluded from the Bar Order. Any such member of the Bar Order Notice List must submit a written Request to Opt Out to the Settlement Administrator at the mailing address listed in the Bar Order Notice no later than sixty days after the Bar Order Notice Mailing Date. To be valid, the Request to Opt Out must: (a) identify the case name; (b) identify the name and address of the person requesting exclusion; (c) be personally signed by the person requesting exclusion; and (d) contain a statement that indicates a desire to be excluded from the Bar Order, such as “I hereby request that I be excluded from the proposed Bar Order in the SEC Action,” as set forth in Section 11 of the Agreement. All members of the Bar Order Notice List who submit valid, verified, and timely Requests to Opt Out in the manner set forth in this Paragraph shall have no rights under the Agreement and shall not be bound by the Agreement or any Final Judgment. Mass or class opt outs shall not be allowed. A member of the Bar Order Notice List who desires to opt out must make timely affirmative written action pursuant to this Order and the Agreement, even if the person desiring to opt out of the Bar Order (a) files or has filed a separate action against any of the Released Parties, or (b) is, or becomes, a putative class member in any other class action filed against any of the Released Parties.

12. Copies of Requests to Opt Out. The Settlement Administrator shall provide Receiver Counsel and Wells Fargo’s Counsel with a list of all timely Requests to Opt Out on a rolling basis and within seven business days after the Opt Out Deadline.

13. Entry of Appearance. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not exclude himself or herself from the Bar Order may enter an appearance in the Action, at his or her own expense, individually or through counsel of his or her own choice.

14. Binding Effect. All Members of the Bar Order Notice List who do not exclude themselves from the Bar Order by properly and timely submitting a Request to Opt Out shall be bound by the Bar Order.

15. Objections. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not timely and validly exclude himself or herself from the Bar Order may appear and show cause, if he or she has any reason to object to the Bar Order; provided, however, that no member of the Bar Order Notice List shall be heard or entitled to contest the approval of the terms and conditions of the proposed Bar Order, or, if approved, the Final Judgment to be entered thereon approving the same, unless a written objection is sent to the Clerk of Court at the mailing address listed in the Bar Order Notice no later than sixty days after the Bar Order Notice Mailing Date. The written objection must also be mailed to Receiver Counsel and Defense Counsel no later than sixty days after the Bar Order Notice Mailing Date. To be valid, the written objection must include: (a) the case name and number; (b) the name, address, telephone number of the member of the Bar Order Notice List objecting and, if represented by counsel, of his/her counsel; (c) the basis for objection; and (d) a statement of whether he/she intends to appear at the SEC Final Approval Hearing, either with or without counsel; (e) the identity of all counsel who represent the objector, including any former or current counsel who previously represented the objector and may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement or the fee application; and (f) the identity of all counsel representing the objector who will appear at the SEC Final Approval Hearing.

Within seven (7) business days of the Bar Order Objection Deadline, the Settlement Administrator shall provide a report to the Court setting forth a list of Objections that meet the above guidelines. The Court shall have the ultimate determination of whether an Objection has been appropriately made. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not make his or her objection in the manner provided in this Section shall be deemed to have waived such objection, shall not be permitted to object to any terms or approval of the Bar Order at the SEC Final Approval Hearing, and shall be foreclosed from making any objection to the Bar Order, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

16. Appearance of Objectors at Final Approval Hearing. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who files and serves a written objection in accordance with Paragraph 14 of this Order may appear, in person or by counsel, at the SEC Final Approval Hearing held by the Court, to show cause why the proposed Bar Order should not be approved as fair, adequate, and reasonable, but only if the objector files with the Clerk of Court a notice of intention to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and serves the same on all counsel designated in the Bar Order Notice by the Objection Deadline (“Notice of Intention to Appear”). The Notice of Intention to Appear must include copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence that the objecting member of the Bar Order Notice List will present to the Court in connection with the SEC Final Approval Hearing. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not file a Notice of Intention to Appear in accordance with the deadlines and other specifications set forth in the Agreement and Bar Order Notice shall not be entitled to appear at the SEC Final Approval Hearing and raise any objections.

17. Service of Motion for Final Approval. The motion in support of final approval of the Settlement shall be filed and served no later than fourteen days prior to the SEC Final Approval Hearing.

18. Releases. If the Bar Order is finally approved, the Releasors and members of the Bar Order Notice List shall release the Releasees from the Released Claims.

19. Use of Order. Neither this Order, the fact that settlement was reached and filed, the Agreement, nor any other related negotiations, statements, or proceedings shall be construed as, offered as, admitted as, received as, used as, or deemed to be an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing whatsoever or breach of any duty on the part of Defendants, the Class Representatives, or the Settlement Class Members. This Order is not a finding of the validity or invalidity of any of the claims asserted or defenses raised in the Action. In no event shall this Order, the fact that a settlement was reached, the Agreement, or any of its provisions or any negotiations, statements, or proceedings relating to in any way be used, offered, admitted, or referred to in the Receiver Action, in any other action, or in any judicial, administrative, regulatory, arbitration, or other proceeding, by any person or entity, except by the Parties and only by the Parties in a proceeding to enforce the Agreement.

20. Continuance of SEC Final Approval Hearing. The Court reserves the right to continue the date of the SEC Final Approval Hearing without further notice to the members of the Bar Order Notice List, and retains jurisdiction to consider all further applications arising out of or connected with the proposed Settlement and Bar Order. The Court may approve the Settlement and Bar Order with such modifications as may be agreed to by the Parties, if appropriate, without further notice to the members of the Bar Order Notice List.

21. Stay of Proceedings. All proceedings in the Receiver Action are stayed until further Order of this Court, except as may be necessary to implement the Settlement or comply with the terms of the Agreement.

remain in effect), and each party shall be restored to his, her, or its respective position in this Action as its existed prior to the execution of the Agreement.

Class Final Approval Order

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

In re J&J Investment Litigation

Case No.: 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK

[PROPOSED] FINAL JUDGMENT AND
ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

This matter came before the Court for hearing pursuant to the Order of this Court dated _____, 202_, on the application of the Parties for approval of the Settlement as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and Release dated _____, 2026 (the “Agreement”). On _____, 2026, this Court granted preliminary approval to the proposed class action settlement set forth in the Agreement between (i) Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel, individually and as Class Representatives on behalf of the Settlement Class (the “Class Representatives”), (ii) Geoff Winkler, as court-appointed receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida limited liability company; (the “Receiver”) and (3) Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Defendant”) and collectively, (the “Parties”). This Court also provisionally certified the Class for settlement purposes, approved the procedure for giving Class Notice to members of the Class, and set a Final Approval Hearing to take place on _____, 2026. The Court finds that due and adequate notice was given to the Settlement Class as required in the Court's Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement and Providing for Class Notice.

The Court has reviewed the papers filed in support of the Motion for Final Approval, including the Settlement Agreement and exhibits thereto, memoranda, and arguments submitted on behalf of the Settlement Class, and supporting affidavits.

On _____, 202____, this Court held a duly noticed Final Approval Hearing to consider: (1) whether the terms and conditions of the Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate; (2) whether a judgment should be entered dismissing the Settlement Class Members' Released Claims on the merits and with prejudice; (3) whether and in what amount to award attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel; and (4) any award to the Class Representative for his representation of the Class.

Based on the papers filed with the Court and the presentations made to the Court by the Parties and by other interested persons at the Final Approval Hearing, it appears to the Court that the Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

1. Definitions. This Judgment incorporates by reference the definitions in the Settlement Agreement, and all capitalized terms used, but not defined herein, shall have the same meanings as in the Settlement Agreement.

2. Jurisdiction. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Class Action and over the Parties, the Class, and the claims asserted in this Class Action, and venue in this Court is proper.

3. No Merits Determination. By entering this Order, the Court does not make any determination as to the merits of this case.

4. Settlement Class. Pursuant to Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the settlement of this Class Action, as embodied in the terms of the Settlement Agreement, is hereby finally approved as a fair, reasonable, and adequate settlement, in the best interests of the Settlement Class, in light of the factual, legal, practical and procedural considerations raised by this case, with the Settlement Class comprised of:

All natural and legal persons who invested in a J&J Entity lawsuit settlement contract between January 2017 and March 2022 and who incurred a loss of their principle investment (in whole or in part) as determined by the Receiver pursuant to his court-appointed duties and as identified in the Receiver's official records submitted to the Court in the SEC Action. Excluded from the class are Wells Fargo and the Relevant Non-Parties as defined in the Class Action Complaint; their parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, legal representatives, predecessors, successors, assigns, and employees; and any judge to whom the Class Action or Receiver Action is assigned, his or her spouse, and all persons within the third degree of relationship to either of them, as well as the spouses of such persons.

The Class does not include any individual who validly opts out of the Settlement pursuant to the procedures set forth herein.

Having considered the Parties' briefing and hearings before the Court, the Court finds, for settlement purposes only, that class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) and (b)(3) is appropriate in that, in the settlement context: (a) the Settlement Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Settlement Class Members in the class action is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law and fact common to the Settlement Class which predominate over any individual question; (c) the claims of the Class Representative are typical of the claims of the Class; (d) the Class Representative will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class Members because their interests are co-extensive with those of the Class Members, and they have retained experienced counsel to represent them and the Class Members; and (e) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

5. Designation of Class Representatives and Class Counsel. The Court confirms the prior appointments of Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel as the Class Representatives for the Class and the counsel of record representing the Class Representatives in the Class Action as Class Counsel.

6. Settlement Approval. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, this Court hereby approves the Settlement set forth in the Agreement and finds that the Settlement is, in all respects, fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Parties. The Court further finds that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is the result of a good faith arm's-length negotiation between experienced counsel representing the interests of the Parties, with the assistance of Robert Meyer, Esq. through mediation. Accordingly, the Settlement embodied in the Agreement is hereby finally approved in all respects, there is no just reason for delay, and the parties are hereby directed to perform its terms. The terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement are fully incorporated as through fully set forth in this Order.

7. Settlement Fund and Distribution. A Settlement Fund has been created consisting of the $50,000,000 Settlement Amount. The Settlement Fund shall be used to pay Settlement Class Members, Incentive Payments to the Class Representatives, Settlement Administrator's costs associated with administration of the settlement, and Attorneys' Fees and Expenses incurred by the Settlement Class through Class Counsel as set forth herein and in the Settlement Agreement. Following Wells Fargo's payment to the Settlement Fund and such potential amounts as described in this Paragraph, Wells Fargo shall have no responsibility, financial obligation or liability with respect to the Settlement Fund, the notice process, the distributions to Settlement Class Members, the request and award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, or any other aspect of implementing the Settlement Agreement.

8. Dismissal with Prejudice. Final Judgment is hereby entered with respect to the Released Claims of all Settlement Class Members, and the Released Claims in the Class Action are hereby dismissed in their entirety with prejudice and without costs consistent with the terms of the Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release. All claims in the Class Action are dismissed, and the case shall be closed pursuant to Paragraph 24 of this Order. Nothing herein is intended to waive or prejudice the rights of any Class Members who have timely excluded themselves from the Class. This matter will remain open solely to ensure an orderly administration process.

9. Releases. The releases as set forth in Section 10 of the Agreement together with the definitions relating thereto in Paragraphs 1.45, 1.46, 1.47, and 1.62 are expressly incorporated herein in all respects and made effective by operation of this Judgment. The Court hereby approves the release provisions as contained and incorporated in Section 10 of the Agreement, including but not limited to the definitions of Released Claims, Releasors, Releasees, and Unknown Claims. The Releasors shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims and Unknown Claims against the Releasees.

10. Permanent Bar. Consistent with the terms of the Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release, the Releasors, including the Class Representatives and all Settlement Class Members, and anyone claiming through or on behalf of any of them, are forever barred from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, or participating in (as class members or otherwise) any action in any jurisdiction for the Released Claims. The Releasors further are forever barred from organizing the Settlement Class Members, or soliciting the participation of Settlement Class Members, or persons who would otherwise fall within the definition of Settlement Class

Member but who have requested to be excluded from the Settlement Class, in a separate class for purposes of pursuing any action (including by seeking to amend a pending complaint or counterclaim to include class allegations, or seeking class certification in a pending action in any jurisdiction based on or relating to any of the Released Claims).

11. Permanent Injunction Regarding Releases. The terms of the Settlement Agreement and of this Order shall be forever binding on the Class Releasers and Defendants, and those terms shall have res judicata and other preclusive effect in all pending and future claims, lawsuits or other proceedings maintained by or on behalf of any such persons, to the extent those claims, lawsuits, or other proceedings involve the Released Claims.

12. Approval of Class Notice. Upon the Affidavits of _____ of Stretto, Inc., the Settlement Administrator, and Geoff Winkler, as Receiver, the Court finds that the form and means of disseminating the Class Notice as provided for in the Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement and Providing for Notice constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort. Said Notice provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances of the proceedings and the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice, and said Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and complied with all laws, including, but not limited to, the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

13. Attorneys' Fees and Expenses. Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, and Receiver Counsel have moved for an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in the amount of $ _____. The Court finds that an award of $ _____ in attorneys' fees and $ _____ for reimbursement of expenses is fair and reasonable, and the Court approves of Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses in this amount. The Court directs the Settlement Administrator to disburse these funds as provided in the Settlement Agreement.

14. Class Representatives Service Awards. The Court further finds that service awards for the Class Representatives in the amount of $ _____ each is fair and reasonable, and the Court approves of the service award in this amount. The Court directs the Settlement Administrator to disburse this award to the Class Representatives as provided in the Settlement Agreement.

15. Use of Order. Neither this Order, the fact that a settlement was reached and filed, the Agreement, nor any related negotiations, statements, or proceedings shall be construed as, offered as, admitted as, received as, used as, or deemed to be an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing whatsoever or breach of any duty on the part of Defendant, the Class Representative, or the Settlement Class Members. This Order is not a finding of the validity or invalidity of any of the claims asserted or defenses raised in the Action. In no event shall this Order, the fact that a settlement was reached, the Agreement, or any of its provisions or any negotiations, statements, or proceedings relating to it in any way be used, offered, admitted, or referred to in the Action, in any other action, or in any judicial, administrative, regulatory, arbitration, or other proceeding, by any person or entity, except by the Parties and only the Parties in a proceeding to enforce the Agreement.

16. Continuing Jurisdiction. Without affecting the finality of this Judgment in any way, the Court hereby specifically retains exclusive jurisdiction over the administration, consummation, enforcement, and interpretation of the Agreement, the Final Judgment, and for any other necessary purpose, including to ensure compliance with the Protective Order entered in this Action.

17. Termination of Settlement. In the event that the Settlement does not become effective in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, or the Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 13 of the Agreement, the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions in the Action prior to the execution of the Agreement, the certification of the Settlement Class shall be automatically vacated, and this Judgment shall be rendered null and void (except Paragraph 15 of this Order shall remain in effect) to the extent provided by and in accordance with the Agreement and shall be vacated and, in any such event, all orders entered and releases delivered in connection herewith shall be null and void to the extent provided by and in accordance with the Agreement.

18. Implementation of the Agreement. The Parties are hereby authorized to implement the terms of the Agreement.

19. Claim Review and Deficiency Process. The Settlement Administrator and Receiver shall validate each Claim as directed in Section 5 of the Agreement. Full compliance with the requirements of the terms of the Agreement and the Claim Form shall be necessary for the submission of a claim entitled to distribution. The Settlement Administrator and Receiver shall have the authority to determine whether the submission of a Claim Form is complete and timely. The Settlement Administrator's and Receiver's determinations in this regard shall be final and non-appealable. Any Settlement Class Member whose claim is rejected shall be barred from receiving payment under the Settlement for that claim but shall in all other respects be bound by the terms of the Agreement and by this Order.

20. Reasonable Extensions. Without further order of this Court, the Parties may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of the Agreement.

21. Class Notice List. Within 30 days after the Effective Date, the Receiver, with the assistance of the Settlement Administrator, shall file with this Court, ex parte and under seal (in order to protect the names, addresses and other personal information of Class Members), a list of the names and addresses of all Members of the Class to whom Notice was sent, along with a list of all Class Members who excluded themselves from the Settlement pursuant to the opt-out provisions provided herein.

22. Final Accounting. The Settlement Administrator or Receiver will provide to Class Counsel, and Class Counsel will file with the Court, a final accounting within 150 days after the Distribution Date as defined in the Agreement. The final accounting will include a summary of all distributions from the Settlement Fund.

23. Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”) Notice. The Settlement Administrator has served the CAFA Notice of Proposed Settlement and Defendants have complied in all respects with their obligations under 28 U.S.C. § 1715.

24. Entry of Final Judgment. There is no just reason for delay in the entry of this Order and Final Judgment and immediate entry by the Clerk of the Court is hereby directed.

25. Action Closed. All claims against the Defendant are hereby dismissed with prejudice. This case shall remain open for administrative matters only. The District Court Clerk is hereby directed to close the Action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

[PROPOSED] FINAL JUDGMENT, BAR ORDER AND
ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

This matter came before the Court for hearing pursuant to the Order of this Court dated _____, 2026, on the application of the Parties for approval of the Settlement and Bar Order as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and Release dated _____, 2026 (the “Agreement”). On _____, 2026, this Court granted preliminary approval to the proposed settlement set forth in the Agreement between (i) Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel, individually and as Class Representatives on behalf of the Settlement Class (the “Class Representatives”), (ii) Geoff Winkler, as court-appointed receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida limited liability company; (the “Receiver”) and (3) Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Defendant”) and collectively, (the “Parties”). This Court also provisionally approved the Settlement, approved the procedure for giving Bar Order Notice to those on the Bar Order Notice List, and set an SEC Final Approval Hearing to take place on _____, 2026. The Court finds that due and adequate notice was given to those on the Bar Order Notice list as required in the Court’s Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement and Providing for Bar Order Notice.

The Court has reviewed the papers filed in support of the Motion for Final Approval, including the Settlement Agreement and exhibits thereto, memoranda, and arguments submitted on behalf of the Receiver, and supporting affidavits.

On _____, 202____, this Court held a duly noticed Final Approval Hearing to consider: (1) whether the terms and conditions of the Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate; (2) whether a judgment should be entered dismissing the Receiver’s Released Claims on the merits and with prejudice; (3) whether the Bar Order should be entered.

Based on the papers filed with the Court and the presentations made to the Court by the Parties and by other interested persons at the Final Approval Hearing, it appears to the Court that the Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and in the best interests of the Receivership, and the Bar Order should be entered.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

1. Definitions. This Judgment incorporates by reference the definitions in the Settlement Agreement, and all capitalized terms used, but not defined herein, shall have the same meanings as in the Settlement Agreement.

2. Jurisdiction. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Receiver Action and over the Parties, and the claims asserted in this Receiver Action, and venue in this Court is proper.

3. No Merits Determination. By entering this Order, the Court does not make any determination as to the merits of this case.

4. Bar Order. The Court approves the Bar Order in accordance with due process. The Bar Order permanently enjoins (1) creditors, including without limitation any non-investor creditors, lenders, or factoring companies, (2) non-class member investors, including without limitation net winning investors, and (3) persons or entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities, as set forth on the Bar Order Notice List, from bringing any claims against Wells Fargo arising out of the J&J Investment Scheme. The Bar Order does not include any individual who validly opted out of the Bar Order pursuant to the procedures set forth in the SEC Preliminary Approval Order.

5. Settlement Approval. This Court hereby approves the Settlement set forth in the Agreement and finds that the Settlement is, in all respects, fair, reasonable, and adequate as to the Receivership. The Court further finds that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is the result of a good faith arm's-length negotiation between experienced counsel representing the interests of the Parties, with the assistance of Robert Meyer, Esq. through mediation. Accordingly, the Settlement embodied in the Agreement is hereby finally approved in all respects, there is no just reason for delay, and the parties are hereby directed to perform its terms. The terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement are fully incorporated as through fully set forth in this Order.

6. Settlement Fund and Distribution. A Settlement Fund has been created consisting of the $50,000,000 Settlement Amount. Following Wells Fargo's payment to the Settlement Fund, Wells Fargo shall have no responsibility, financial obligation or liability with respect to the Settlement Fund, the Bar Order Notice process, the distributions from the Settlement Fund, or any other aspect of implementing the Settlement Agreement.

7. Dismissal with Prejudice. Final Judgment is hereby entered with respect to the Released Claims of the Receiver, on his own behalf and on behalf of the Receivership Entities, and each of their respective heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, predecessors, and successors, and any other person claiming by or through any or all of them in the Receiver Action are hereby dismissed in their entirety with prejudice and without costs consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Release. All claims in the Receiver Action are dismissed, and the Receiver shall ensure that the Receiver Action be dismissed and closed. Nothing herein is intended to waive or prejudice the rights of any members of the Bar Order Notice List who have timely excluded themselves from the Class. This Final Judgment shall be filed in the Receiver Action within five days of this Order.

8. Releases. The releases as set forth in Section 10 of the Agreement together with the definitions relating thereto in Paragraphs 1.45, 1.46, 1.47, and 1.62 are expressly incorporated herein in all respects and made effective by operation of this Judgment. The Court hereby approves the release provisions as contained and incorporated in Section 10 of the Agreement, including but not limited to the definitions of Released Claims, Releasors, Releasees, and Unknown Claims. The Releasors shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims and Unknown Claims against the Releasees.

9. Permanent Bar. Consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Release, the Releasors, including the Receiver, on behalf of the Receivership Entities, all members of the Bar Order Notice List, and anyone claiming through or on behalf of any of them, are forever barred from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, or participating in (as class members or otherwise) any action in any jurisdiction for the Released Claims. The Releasors further are forever barred from organizing the Releasors, or soliciting the participation of Releasors, or persons who would otherwise fall within the definition of Releasors but who have requested to be excluded, in a separate class for purposes of pursuing any action (including by seeking to amend a pending complaint or counterclaim to include class allegations, or seeking class certification in a pending action in any jurisdiction based on or relating to any of the Released Claims).

10. Permanent Injunction Regarding Releases. The terms of the Settlement Agreement and of this Order shall be forever binding on the Releasors, and those terms shall have res judicata and other preclusive effect in all pending and future claims, lawsuits or other proceedings maintained by or on behalf of any such persons, to the extent those claims, lawsuits, or other proceedings involve the Released Claims.

11. Approval of Bar Order Notice. Upon the Affidavits of _____ of Stretto, Inc. the Settlement Administrator, and Geoff Winkler, as Receiver, the Court finds that the form and means of disseminating the Bar Order Notice as provided for in the Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement, Bar Order, and Providing for Notice constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members of the Bar Order Notice List who could be identified through reasonable effort. Said Notice provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances of the proceedings and the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice, and said Notice fully complied with all laws, including, but not limited to, the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

12. Use of Order. Neither this Order, the fact that a settlement was reached and filed, the Agreement, nor any related negotiations, statements, or proceedings shall be construed as, offered as, admitted as, received as, used as, or deemed to be an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing whatsoever or breach of any duty on the part of Defendants, the Receiver, or the Receivership Entities. This Order is not a finding of the validity or invalidity of any of the claims asserted or defenses raised in the Receiver Action. In no event shall this Order, the fact that a settlement was reached, the Agreement, or any of its provisions or any negotiations, statements, or proceedings relating to it in any way be used, offered, admitted, or referred to in the Receiver Action, in any other action, or in any judicial, administrative, regulatory, arbitration, or other proceeding, by any person or entity, except by the Parties and only the Parties in a proceeding to enforce the Agreement.

13. Continuing Jurisdiction. Without affecting the finality of this Judgment in any way, the Court hereby specifically retains exclusive jurisdiction over the administration, consummation, enforcement, and interpretation of the Agreement, the Final Judgment, and for any other necessary purpose, including to ensure compliance with the Protective Order entered in the Receiver Action.

14. Termination of Settlement. In the event that the Settlement does not become effective in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, or the Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 13 of the Agreement, the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions in the Action prior to the execution of the Agreement, and this Judgment shall be rendered null and void (except Paragraph 12 of this Order shall remain in effect) to the extent provided by and in accordance with the Agreement and shall be vacated and, in any such event, all orders entered and releases delivered in connection herewith shall be null and void to the extent provided by and in accordance with the Agreement.

15. Implementation of the Agreement. The Parties are hereby authorized to implement the terms of the Agreement.

16. Reasonable Extensions. Without further order of this Court, the Parties may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of the Agreement.
