Case No. 2:22-cv-00612-CDS-EJY

Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Settlement, Bar Order, and Providing for Notice

[ECF No. 887]

12 On June 3, 2022, and as amended on July 28, 2022, Geoff Winkler (the “Receiver”) was 13 appointed in this action as Receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation;
14 J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida
15 limited liability company relating to the Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Jeffrey Judd and Matthew 16 Beasley. ECF Nos. 88, 207.

17 The case captioned Geoff Winkler, as court-appointed receiver for J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an 18 Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida
19 limited liability company v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Case No. 2:23-cv-00703-CDS-NJK was filed on May 20 4, 2023, and is pending in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada (the 21 “Receiver Action”);

22 The Receiver now moves for an order preliminarily approving settlement of the Receiver 23 Action in accordance with the Settlement Agreement¹ and Release dated April 21, 2026 (the 24 “Agreement”), which, together with the exhibits annexed thereto, sets forth the terms and 25

¹ All defined terms herein have the same meanings as set forth in the Agreement.

1 conditions for a proposed settlement of the Receiver Action and for dismissal of the Receiver
2 Action with prejudice upon the terms and conditions set forth therein. ECF No. 887.²

3 The court held a hearing on the motion on July 7, 2026. ECF No. 959. Following that 4 hearing, and after considering the Agreement and the exhibits annexed thereto, along with the 5 Receiver's Motion for Preliminary Approval and supporting brief requesting that this court: (1)
6 preliminarily approve the parties' proposed settlement; (2) preliminarily approve the Bar Order;
7 (3) appoint Stretto, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator; (4) set the deadlines for written 8 exclusion or objections to the Bar Order; (5) approve the form of Bar Order Notice to be sent to 9 the Bar Order Notice List; and (6) schedule a hearing on the final approval of the Agreement for 10 November 12, 2026;

11 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

12 1. Nature of the Action. The Receiver alleges that Defendant Wells Fargo Bank,
13 N.A., ("Wells Fargo" or "Defendant") (1) aided and abetted breach of fiduciary duty; (2) aided
14 and abetted fraud; and (3) aided and abetted conversion; and (5) violated of the Nevada Uniform
15 Fiduciaries Act arising out of the alleged Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Judd and Beasley.
16 Defendants dispute and deny all of Plaintiff's claims.

17 2. Settlement. The Receiver has negotiated a potential settlement of the Receiver
18 Action to avoid the expense, uncertainties, and burden of protracted litigation, and to resolve 19 the Released Claims (as defined in the Agreement) against Defendant and the Releasees. The 20 Agreement is contingent on the issuance of a Bar Order, and Wells Fargo has the option to 21 terminate the Settlement pursuant to the terms set forth in the confidential side agreement
22 referenced in Section 13 of the Agreement.

26 ² Receiver Geoff Winkler filed a corrected image. The original motion is found at ECF No. 886.

1 3. Review. At the preliminary approval stage, the Court's task is to evaluate 2 whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable for purposes of Receivership recovery.

3 The Court has carefully reviewed the Agreement, including the proposed Bar Order, as 4 well as the files, records, and proceedings to date in the Receiver Action. The terms and 5 conditions in the Agreement are hereby incorporated as though fully set forth in this Order, and,
6 unless otherwise indicated, capitalized items in this Order have the meanings attributed to them
7 in the Agreement.

8 4. Jurisdiction. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Receiver
9 Action and over all parties to the Receiver Action and this Action, including all of those on the 10 Bar Order Notice List, and venue in this Court is proper.

11 5. Preliminary Settlement Approval. Based on the review the Court has 12 conducted, as set forth in paragraph 3, the Court does hereby preliminarily approve the 13 Agreement and the Settlement set forth therein as fair, reasonable, and adequate, subject to 14 further consideration at the Final Approval Hearing described below. The Court finds on a 15 preliminary basis that the Settlement as set forth in the Agreement falls within the range of 16 reasonableness and was the product of informed, good-faith, arms'-length negotiations between 17 the Parties and their counsel, and therefore meets the requirements for preliminary approval.
18 The Court finds and concludes that the assistance of experienced mediator Robert Meyer, Esq., 19 in the settlement process supports the finding that the Settlement is non-collusive.

20 6. Approval of Bar Order. Pursuant to due process, Court conditionally approves 21 the Bar Order, which is an order enjoining (1) creditors, (2) non-class member investors, and 22 (3) persons or entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities from bringing any further claims
23 against Wells Fargo arising out of the J&J Investment Scheme, for settlement purposes only,
24 (and for no purposes and with no other effect upon the Receiver Action or this Action, including 25 no effect upon the Receiver Action should the Agreement not receive Final Approval or should 26 the Effective Date not occur). The Bar Order includes the persons and entities on the Bar Order

1 Notice List and does not include any individual who validly opts out of the Bar Order pursuant 2 to the procedures set forth herein.

3 7. Final Approval Hearing. A hearing (the “SEC Final Approval Hearing”) will be 4 held before this court on November 12, 2026, at 1:30 p.m., at the United States District Court for 5 the District of Nevada, 333 Las Vegas Blvd South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101, to determine, among 6 other things: (i) whether the proposed Settlement of the Receiver Action on the terms and 7 conditions set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be approved
8 by the Court; (ii) whether a Judgment as provided in Paragraph 1.34 of the Agreement should be 9 entered; (iii) whether member of the Bar Order Notice List should be bound by the Release set
10 forth in the Agreement; (iv) to consider any objections to the Bar Order by members of the Bar
11 Order Notice List; and (vi) to rule upon such other matters as the Court may deem appropriate.
12 The Parties must include the date of the Final Approval Hearing in the Bar Order Notice to be 13 mailed to those on the Bar Order Notice List.

14 8. Bar Order Notice. The Court approves the form, substance, and requirements of 15 the Bar Order Notice (the “Notice”) annexed hereto as Exhibit 1. The Court further finds that 16 the form, content, and distribution of the Notice, substantially in the manner and form set forth
17 in Paragraph 8 of this Order, meets the requirements of due process. The Bar Order Notice fairly,
18 plainly, accurately, and reasonably informs members of the Bar Order Notice List of appropriate
19 information about: (1) the nature of this action and the essential terms of the Settlement,
20 including the plan of allocation for the monetary and other relief, and includes the address for a 21 website maintained by the Receiver that has links to the notice, motions for approval and for 22 attorney’s fees, claim form, and any other important documents in this case; (2) this Court’s
23 procedures for final approval of the Settlement; (3) how to Opt-Out or Object to the Bar Order;
24 (4) how to obtain additional information regarding the Receiver Action and the Settlement; and 25 (5) the date of the SEC Final Approval Hearing.

1 The Court further finds and concludes that the proposed plan for distributing the Bar
2 Order Notice likewise is a reasonable method calculated to reach all individuals who would be 3 bound by the Bar Order. Under this plan, prior to distributing the Bar Order Notice and after 4 receiving a Bar Order Notice List from the Receiver, the Settlement Administrator will update
5 addresses through the NCOA or similar databases. After the Settlement Administrator updates
6 the Bar Order Notice List addresses, the Notice will be sent out via first-class mail to the 7 members of the Bar Order Notice. No later than the mailing of the Notice, the Notice will be 8 posted to the Settlement Website. There is no additional method of distribution that is cost-
9 effective and would be reasonably likely to notify members of the Bar Order Notice List who 10 may not receive notice under this proposed distribution plan.

11 The Court hereby concludes that the proposed Bar Order Notice and Notice plan are the 12 best practicable under the circumstances and are reasonably calculated, under all the 13 circumstances, to apprise members of the Bar Order Notice List of the pendency of the Receiver
14 Action, to apprise persons who would otherwise fall within the definition of the Bar Order of 15 their right to exclude themselves from the proposed Bar Order, and to apprise members of the 16 Bar Order Notice List of their right to object to the proposed Bar Order and their right to appear 17 at the SEC Final Approval Hearing. The Court further finds that the Notice constitutes due and 18 sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.

19 9. Settlement Administrator. The Court approves the appointment of Stretto, 20 Inc., to supervise and administer the notice procedure as more fully set forth below:

- 21 (a) No later than thirty days from the entry of this Order (the “Bar Order Notice Mailing 22 Date”) and the Class Notice Mailing Date in the Class Action (whichever is later), the 23 Settlement Administrator will cause a copy of the Bar Order Notice, substantially in the 24 form annexed as Exhibit 1 hereto, to be mailed by first class U.S. mail to the last known
25 mailing address of each individual on the Bar Order Notice List, after being updated by 26 the Settlement Administrator using the NCOA or similar databases;

- 1 (b) No later than the Bar Order Notice Mailing Date, the Receiver must update his
2 receivership website (<https://jjconsulting-receivership.com/>) to contain the Agreement
3 and Exhibits, including the Bar Order Notice substantially in the form annexed as 4 Exhibit 1 hereto, as well as this SEC Preliminary Approval Order, the SEC Final Approval
5 Order, the operative Complaint in the Receiver Action, and the Motion for Preliminary 6 Approval in this Action;
- 7 (c) The Receiver must provide counsel with written confirmation following publication via 8 website;
- 9 (d) Following the mailing of the Bar Order Notice, the Settlement Administrator must 10 provide counsel with written confirmation of the mailing;
- 11 (e) The Settlement Administrator will otherwise carry out its duties as set forth in the 12 Agreement; and
- 13 (f) The Bar Order Notice List must be treated as Confidential pursuant to Section 18 of the 14 Settlement Agreement.

15 10. Qualified Settlement Fund. The Receiver is authorized to establish an account
16 at a federally-insured financial institution which satisfies the requirements to be a “Qualified 17 Settlement Fund” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.468B-1, promulgated 18 under Section 468B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As set forth in the 19 Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Administrator will administer the Settlement Fund and 20 will be the “Administrator” of this Qualified Settlement Fund within the meaning of Treasury
21 Regulation § 1.468B-2(k)(3). The Receiver must establish or maintain a Qualified Settlement
22 Fund in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

23 11. Exclusion from the Bar Order. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List may,
24 upon request, be excluded from the Bar Order. Any such member of the Bar Order Notice List
25 must submit a written Request to Opt Out to the Settlement Administrator at the mailing
26 address listed in the Bar Order Notice no later than sixty days after the Bar Order Notice

1 Mailing Date. To be valid, the Request to Opt Out must: (a) identify the case name; (b) identify 2 the name and address of the person requesting exclusion; (c) be personally signed by the person
3 requesting exclusion; and (d) contain a statement that indicates a desire to be excluded from the 4 Bar Order, such as, “I hereby request that I be excluded from the proposed Bar Order in the SEC
5 Action,” as set forth in Section II of the Agreement. All members of the Bar Order Notice List
6 who submit valid, verified, and timely Requests to Opt Out in the manner set forth in this 7 Paragraph will have no rights under the Agreement and will not be bound by the Agreement or 8 any Final Judgment. Mass or class opt outs will not be allowed. A member of the Bar Order
9 Notice List who desires to opt out must make timely affirmative written action pursuant to this 10 Order and the Agreement, even if the person desiring to opt out of the Bar Order (a) files or has 11 filed a separate action against any of the Released Parties, or (b) is, or becomes, a putative class
12 member in any other class action filed against any of the Released Parties.

13 12. Copies of Requests to Opt Out. The Settlement Administrator must provide 14 Receiver Counsel and Wells Fargo’s Counsel with a list of all timely Requests to Opt Out on a 15 rolling basis and within seven business days after the Opt Out Deadline.

16 13. Entry of Appearance. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not 17 exclude himself or herself from the Bar Order may enter an appearance in the Action, at his or 18 her own expense, individually or through counsel of his or her own choice.

19 14. Binding Effect. All Members of the Bar Order Notice List who do not exclude 20 themselves from the Bar Order by properly and timely submitting a Request to Opt Out will be 21 bound by the Bar Order.

22 15. Objections. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not timely and 23 validly exclude himself or herself from the Bar Order may appear and show cause, if he or she has 24 any reason to object to the Bar Order—provided, however, that no member of the Bar Order
25 Notice List will be heard or entitled to contest the approval of the terms and conditions of the 26 proposed Bar Order, or, if approved, the Final Judgment to be entered thereon approving the

1 same, unless a written objection is sent to the Clerk of Court at the mailing address listed in the 2 Bar Order Notice no later than sixty days after the Bar Order Notice Mailing Date. The written
 3 objection must also be mailed to Receiver Counsel and Defense Counsel no later than sixty days
 4 after the Bar Order Notice Mailing Date. To be valid, the written objection must include: (a) the 5 case name and number; (b) the name, address, telephone number of the member of the Bar Order
 6 Notice List objecting and, if represented by counsel, of his/her counsel; (c) the basis for 7 objection; (d) a statement of whether he/she intends to appear at the SEC Final Approval
 8 Hearing, either with or without counsel; (e) the identity of all counsel who represent the 9 objector, including any former or current counsel who previously represented the objector and 10 may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement or the 11 fee application; and (f) the identity of all counsel representing the objector who will appear at 12 the SEC Final Approval Hearing.

13 Within seven business days of the Bar Order Objection Deadline, the Settlement
 14 Administrator must provide a report to the Court setting forth a list of Objections that meet the 15 above guidelines. The Court will have the ultimate determination of whether an Objection has 16 been appropriately made. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not make his or 17 her objection in the manner provided in this Section will be deemed to have waived such 18 objection, will not be permitted to object to any terms or approval of the Bar Order at the SEC
 19 Final Approval Hearing, and will be foreclosed from making any objection to the Bar Order, 20 unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

21 16. Appearance of Objectors at Final Approval Hearing. Any member of the Bar
 22 Order Notice List who files and serves a written objection in accordance with Paragraph 14 of 23 this Order may appear, in person or by counsel, at the SEC Final Approval Hearing held by the 24 Court, to show cause why the proposed Bar Order should not be approved as fair, adequate, and 25 reasonable, but only if the objector files with the Clerk of Court a notice of intention to appear
 26 at the Final Approval Hearing and serves the same on all counsel designated in the Bar Order

1 Notice by the Objection Deadline (“Notice of Intention to Appear”). The Notice of Intention to 2 Appear must include copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence that the objecting member
3 of the Bar Order Notice List will present to the Court in connection with the SEC Final 4 Approval Hearing. Any member of the Bar Order Notice List who does not file a Notice of 5 Intention to Appear in accordance with the deadlines and other specifications set forth in the 6 Agreement and Bar Order Notice will not be entitled to appear at the SEC Final Approval
7 Hearing and raise any objections.

8 17. Service of Motion for Final Approval. The motion in support of final approval
9 of the Settlement must be filed and served no later than fourteen days prior to the SEC Final 10 Approval Hearing.

11 18. Releases. If the Bar Order is finally approved, the Releasors and members of the 12 Bar Order Notice List will release the Releasees from the Released Claims.

13 19. Use of Order. Neither this Order, the fact that settlement was reached and filed,
14 the Agreement, nor any other related negotiations, statements, or proceedings will be construed 15 as, offered as, admitted as, received as, used as, or deemed to be an admission or concession of 16 liability or wrongdoing whatsoever or breach of any duty on the part of Defendants, the Class
17 Representatives, or the Settlement Class Members. This Order is not a finding of the validity or 18 invalidity of any of the claims asserted or defenses raised in the Action. In no event will this 19 Order, the fact that a settlement was reached, the Agreement, or any of its provisions or any 20 negotiations, statements, or proceedings relating to in any way be used, offered, admitted, or 21 referred to in the Receiver Action, in any other action, or in any judicial, administrative, 22 regulatory, arbitration, or other proceeding, by any person or entity, except by the Parties and 23 only by the Parties in a proceeding to enforce the Agreement.

24 20. Continuance of SEC Final Approval Hearing. The Court reserves the right to 25 continue the date of the SEC Final Approval Hearing without further notice to the members of 26 the Bar Order Notice List, and retains jurisdiction to consider all further applications arising out

1 of or connected with the proposed Settlement and Bar Order. The Court may approve the 2 Settlement and Bar Order with such modifications as may be agreed to by the Parties, if 3 appropriate, without further notice to the members of the Bar Order Notice List.

4 21. Stay of Proceedings. All proceedings in the Receiver Action are stayed until 5 further Order of this Court, except as may be necessary to implement the Settlement or comply
6 with the terms of the Agreement.

7 22. Temporary Bar for those on the Bar Order Notice List. Pending final 8 determination of whether the Bar Order should be approved, and upon expiration of the Opt-
9 Out Deadline, all members of the Bar Order Notice List who do not timely and validly exclude 10 themselves from the Bar Order, and each of them, and anyone who purports to act on their 11 behalf, are barred from directly or indirectly maintaining, commencing, prosecuting, or pursuing 12 directly, representatively, or in any other capacity, any Released Claim subsumed and covered by 13 the Release in the Agreement, including in any court or arbitration forum.

14 23. Termination of Settlement. If (a) the Agreement is terminated as provided in 15 Section 13 of the Agreement or (b) any specified material term or condition of the Settlement as 16 set forth in the Agreement is not satisfied as provided in Section 13 of the Agreement, then this 17 Order may not be introduced as evidence or referred to in any actions or proceedings by any 18 person or entity and will be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc (except Paragraph 19 of this Order 19 will remain in effect), and each party will be restored to his, her, or its respective position in this 20 Action as it existed prior to the execution of the Agreement.

21 24. No Merits Determination. By entering this Order, the Court does not make any 22 determination as to the merits of the Receiver Action.

23 25. Authority. The Court hereby authorizes the Parties to take such further steps as 24 necessary and appropriate to establish the means necessary to implement the terms of the 25 Agreement.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Securities and Exchange Commission,

Plaintiff

v.

Matthew Wade Beasley, et al.,

Defendants

Case No. 2:22-cv-00612-CDS-EJY

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT WITH WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A.
AND RIGHT OF EXCLUSION FROM BAR ORDER

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a proposed settlement (the “Settlement”) has been reached in an agreement by and among Geoff Winkler, not individually but solely in his capacity as the court-appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”) of the Receivership Entities in this action (the “SEC Action”),¹ investors in the class action lawsuit captioned In re J&J Investment Litigation, Case No. 2:22-cv-00529-CDS-NJK (the “Class Action”) in the District of Nevada, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Wells Fargo”). The Settlement requires a $50 million payment from Wells Fargo, the net proceeds of which will be used by the Receiver to make payments to investors of J&J Consulting Services, Inc. and related entities who suffered a net, out-of-pocket loss on their investment, as alleged in the Class Action (“Class Members”).

You are receiving this Notice because you have been identified as someone who may be a non-investor creditor of the Receivership Entities, a non-Class Member investor, and/or a person or entity who was affiliated with the Receivership Entities, and whose claim(s) against Wells Fargo may be barred or enjoined upon final approval of the Settlement, through the entry of a “Bar Order.” A federal court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

The purpose of this Notice is to inform you of the Settlement and to inform you of your right to exclude yourself from the effect of the Bar Order or submit an objection to the Bar Order. If you do nothing and the Settlement is approved, the proceeds of the Settlement will be used to pay Class Members, thereby reducing the overall claims against the Receivership Entities. If you do not exclude yourself from the Bar Order, you will be enjoined from bringing any claims you may have against Wells Fargo arising out of the Receivership Entities’ offering of investments in personal injury settlements (the “J&J Investment

¹ For purposes of the Settlement, “Receivership Entities” means J&J Consulting Services, Inc., an Alaska corporation; J&J Consulting Services, Inc., a Nevada Corporation; and J and J Purchasing LLC, a Florida limited liability company.

Scheme”). This Notice describes important rights you may have and the steps you must take if you wish to be excluded from the Bar Order. You should consider consulting with your attorney regarding the Settlement, the Bar Order, your choices, and this Notice. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Please read this entire Notice carefully.

The Settlement: The following parties have reached an agreement memorializing the Settlement (the “Settlement Agreement”): (i) Geoff Winkler, not individually but solely in his capacity as the court-appointed Receiver of the Receivership Entities; (ii) Barrett Henzel, Allan Carso, Craig Rodney Michaelis, Joshua Luekenga, Gary Lundin, Bryce Kelly, and Clint and Dan McDaniel (the “Class Representatives”), as proposed class representatives in the Class Action; and (iii) Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Receiver, the Class Representatives, and Wells Fargo may be referred to as the “Parties” or individually as a “Party.”) The Settlement Agreement is subject to approval by (i) the Court overseeing the Receiver to make sure the Settlement is fair and reasonable as to the receivership estate, and (ii) the Court overseeing the Class Action to make sure the Settlement is fair and reasonable as to the Class Members.

Under the terms of the Settlement, Wells Fargo agrees to pay the total sum of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000.00) (the “Settlement Payment”). In exchange for the Settlement Payment, (a) the Receiver agrees to release all claims he and the Receivership Entities may have against Wells Fargo that arise from or relate to the J&J Investment Scheme, and (b) all claims of the Class Members against Wells Fargo that arise from or relate to the J&J Investment Scheme will be released and barred.² The Settlement also requires entry of the Bar Order in the SEC Action that will enjoin the following persons from bringing claims against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme: (1) creditors, including without limitation any non-investor creditors, lenders, or factoring companies, (2) non-class member investors, including without limitation net winning investors, and (3) persons or entities affiliated with the Receivership Entities, as set forth in the “Bar Order Notice List.”

If you received this Notice, you are on the Bar Order Notice List. You have the right to exclude yourself from (or opt out of) the provisions of the Settlement. By opting out of the Bar Order, you will be excluded from the provision of the Bar Order that enjoins claims against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme. If too many persons from the Bar Order Notice List opt out of the Settlement or if the Bar Order is not entered, Wells Fargo may, at its option, terminate the Settlement. In addition, you have the right to object to entry of the Bar Order. The procedures to opt out and object to the Bar Order are set forth below.

² “Releasees” is defined as “(1) Wells Fargo; (2) each of their past, present, or future subsidiaries, parent companies (including any and all of its subsidiaries and affiliates), divisions, affiliates, partners or any other organization units of any kind doing business under their names, or doing business under any other names, or any entity now or in the past controlled by, controlling, or under the common control with any of the foregoing and doing business under any other names, and each and all of their respective affiliates and subsidiaries, and each of their respective predecessors, successors, and assigns; and (3) each of the present and former officers, directors, partners, shareholders, agents, employees, attorneys (including any consultants hired by counsel), advisors, independent contractors, representatives, beneficial owners, insurers, accountants, heirs, executors, and administrators, and each of their respective predecessors, successors, and assigns of any person or entities in subparts (1) or (2) hereof. This definition specifically includes Wells Fargo and Company.”

The Receiver has filed in the SEC Action a motion seeking preliminary approval of the Settlement, establishment of the procedure and requirements to notify persons who may be affected by the Settlement, and the scheduling of a hearing date for the Court to consider whether to approve the Settlement (the “SEC Final Approval Hearing”). The Class Representatives also have filed in the Class Action a motion seeking preliminary approval of the Settlement, establishment of the procedure and requirements to notify Class Members, and the scheduling of a hearing date for the Court to consider whether to approve the Settlement (the “Class Final Approval Hearing”). The Court in both cases has granted those requests and established the below dates and procedures.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS
DO NOTHING	If you agree to the Settlement and entry of the Bar Order, you do not need to do anything. If you do nothing and the Court approves the Settlement, including the Bar Order, you will be barred by court order from pursuing your own claims or lawsuit against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme. If the Settlement is approved and Wells Fargo makes the Settlement Payment, it will be used to pay Class Members, thereby reducing the total claims against the Receivership Entities.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE BAR ORDER	If you opt out of the Bar Order, you will retain your right to pursue the claims you may have against Wells Fargo (if any) arising from the J&J Investment Scheme.

SUBMIT AN OBJECTION TO THE BAR ORDER	You may object to the Bar Order and request that the Court not enter the Bar Order. If you object to the Bar Order but do not exclude yourself from the Bar Order, and the Court overrules your objection, you will be barred by court order from pursuing your own claims or lawsuit against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme.

The Court in the SEC Action must decide whether to approve the Settlement. The Court will consider whether the Settlement Agreement is adequate, fair, and reasonable. Distributions will only be made if the Court approves the Settlement and after objections, if any, are resolved.

COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SETTLEMENT AND BAR ORDER

1. What does the Settlement provide?

Wells Fargo has agreed to pay $50 million under the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Payment, less attorneys' fees and costs and the cost of administration, will be used to make distributions to Class Members.

2. How will the Settlement Payment be allocated?

The net proceeds from the Settlement Payment will be allocated among Class Members based on their claims against the Receivership Entities. Class Members with approved claims in the SEC Action, as well as Class Members who submit claims in response to the Settlement notices, will be eligible for payment from the Settlement Payment. The Receiver will make a pro rata distribution to the Class Members based on their net investment (total investment less returns or distributions). These payments to Class Members will reduce the total amount of claims against the Receivership Entities.

3. How would the Bar Order affect me?

If you do not opt out of the Bar Order, you will be barred from pursuing any claims against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme. The Settlement does not affect any potential or ongoing lawsuit you may have against Wells Fargo (if any) that does not relate to the J&J Investment Scheme.

4. What does it mean to opt out (i.e., exclude myself)?

If you do not want the Bar Order to affect your claims, if any, against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme, you must submit a request. This is called "excluding yourself" or "opting out." By opting out, you are excluding yourself from the applicability of the Bar Order. However, there is no guarantee that any claim you may file separately against Wells Fargo will prevail. If you opt out, you may not object to the Settlement or Bar Order.

5. How do I opt out (i.e., exclude myself)?

To opt out of the Settlement, you must send a written request (the “Request to Opt Out”) by mail stating that you want to be excluded from the Bar Order. Your Request to Opt Out must include the following: (a) identification of the case name for the SEC Action; (b) your name, and address; (c) your signature; and (d) a signed statement that indicates a desire to be excluded from the Bar Order, such as “I hereby request that I be excluded from the Bar Order in the SEC Action.” The Request to Opt Out must be postmarked no later than October 12, 2026, and sent to:

J&J Bank Settlement
c/o Exclusion Requests
Stretto, Inc.
410 Exchange Ste. 100
Irvine, CA 92602

You cannot exclude yourself on the phone. You must submit the written exclusion request via mail as noted above. If you do not properly and timely submit a Request to Opt Out, it will be invalid and may be disregarded.

6. If I do not opt out, can I sue Wells Fargo for the same claim later?

No, because you will be bound by the Bar Order. If you have any pending claim or intend to assert a claim against Wells Fargo arising from the J&J Investment Scheme, you may want to consult a lawyer. Remember the deadline to submit a Request to Opt Out is October 12, 2026.

7. How do I object to the Bar Order?

If you would like to tell the Court in the SEC Action that you do not agree with entry of the Bar Order, you must submit an objection. If you wish to object to the Bar Order, you must (i) file a written objection with the Court in the SEC Action by mailing to [court address] and (ii) mail it (with the requisite postmark) to the Receiver’s attorneys and Wells Fargo’s attorneys at the addresses indicated in the response to Question 12 below.

All objections must be postmarked by October 12, 2026, and contain:

- a. the case name and number of the SEC Action;
- b. your name, address, and telephone number, and the same information as to your attorney, if you are represented by counsel;
- c. the basis for the objection;
- d. a statement of whether you intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing in the SEC Action, either with or without counsel;
- e. the identity of all counsel who represent or have represented you, including any attorney who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement, Bar Order, or the fee application; and

- f. the identity of all counsel who will appear on your behalf at the Final Approval Hearing in the SEC Action.

Please note that if you do not submit an objection by the time and in the manner provided above, you will be deemed to have waived the right to object (including any right to appeal) to the Bar Order. You do not need to appear at the Final Approval Hearing or take any other action to indicate your objection or approval.

8. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement and enter the Bar Order?

The Court in the SEC Action will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement, enter the Final Approval Order, and enter the Bar Order. The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing on the Settlement at 1:30 p.m., on November 12, 2026, in LV Courtroom 6B of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, Las Vegas Division, 333 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, NV 89101. At the hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as well as any objections to the Settlement, and consider whether to enter the Bar Order.

9. Do I need to go to the Final Approval Hearing?

No. If you submit an objection, you do not have to go to the Court to talk about it. As long as your written objection is received on time, the Court will consider it. If you timely and properly submit a Request to Opt Out, you do not need to confirm that with the Court either.

10. How can my counsel or I appear at the Final Approval Hearing in the SEC Action?

If you wish to make an appearance at the Final Approval Hearing, either on your own or through an attorney, you must make a request to do so, and it is subject to Court approval. To appear, you must file with the Clerk of the Court in the SEC Action a “Notice of Intention to Appear” and serve that notice on the Receiver’s attorneys and Wells Fargo’s attorneys at the addresses indicated in the response to Question 12 below. Your or your attorney’s Notice of Intention to Appear must include copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence that you will present to the Court. Your Notice of Intention to Appear must also be filed and served by October 12, 2026.

11. How do I get more information about the Settlement and Bar Order?

This Notice does not provide all the details of the Settlement and the Bar Order. For further information, you can obtain copies of the Settlement Agreement, the proposed Bar Order, the motions seeking approval of the Settlement, and other supporting papers from the Receiver’s website (<https://jjconsulting-receivership.com/>). Copies of these documents may also be requested by e-mail, by sending the request to contact@jjconsulting-receivership.com; or by telephone, by calling (702) 832-2299.
