Hi Paula T,

We have reviewed your appeal for the following content:

We have reviewed your content carefully, and have confirmed that it violates our medical-misinformation policy. We know this is probably disappointing news, but it's our job to make sure that YouTube is a safe place for all.

How this affects your channel

- We won't be putting your content back up on YouTube.
- If your appeal was for a warning, you will not be given another warning in the future.
- If your appeal was for a strike, the strike will remain on your channel.

You can find more information about warnings and strikes in the YouTube Help Centre.

Sincerely,
The YouTube Team

Actually, your policies violate Freedom of Speech. You have no authority whatsoever to deem what is right or wrong information. That right, is left up to the individual, not YouTube.

I ask you to change your policy which PREVENTS people from DISCERNING information themselves.

YouTube is not big brother, sorry. You are only a means to transfer information. Act accordingly.
