

wide

small

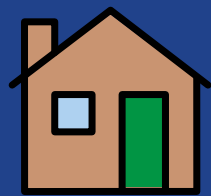

man

old

windswept

house

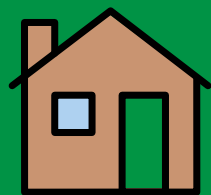

man

clearing

place

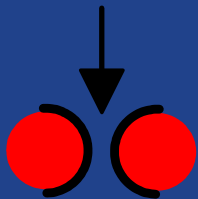

house

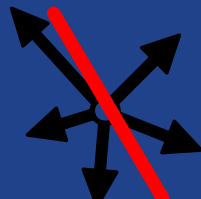

windows

sifting

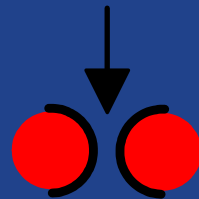

near to

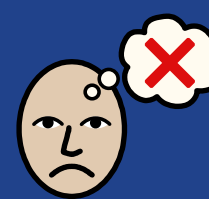

nowhere

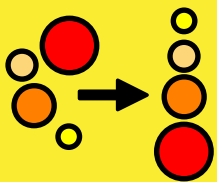

and

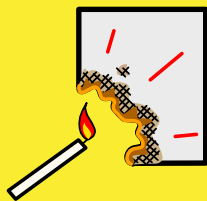

close to

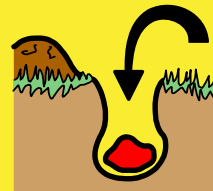

forgotten,

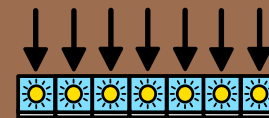

sorting

burning

burying

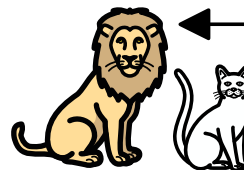

Every day,

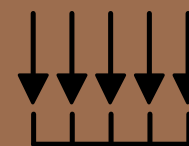

dreamed

forest

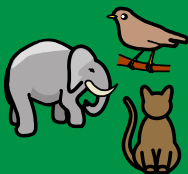

wild

Every

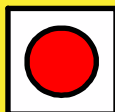

night,

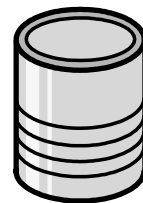

animals

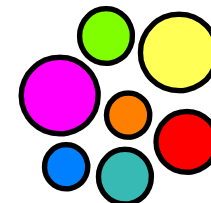

living

in

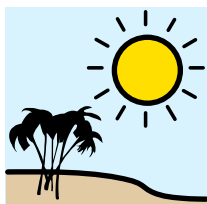

tin

colourful

birds

tropical

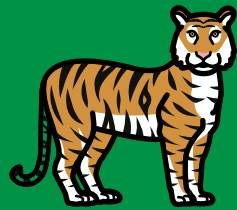

trees

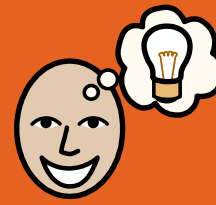

toucans

tree frogs

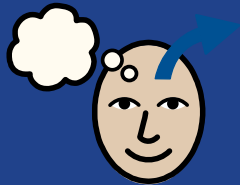

tigers

idea

planted

mind

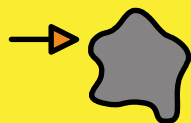

garbage

rubbish

raining

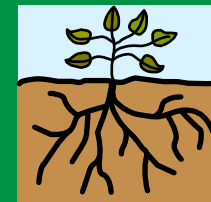

It

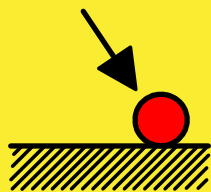

was

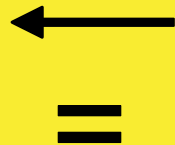

grew

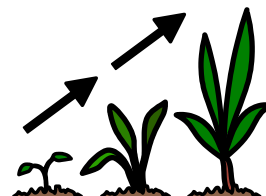

roots

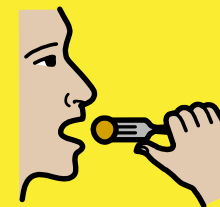

There

were

sprouted

eating

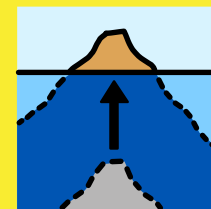

garbage

rubbish

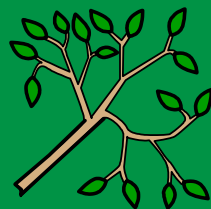

forest

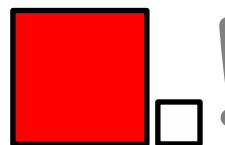

emerged

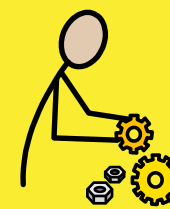

leaves

branches

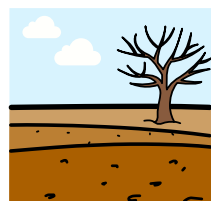

bigger

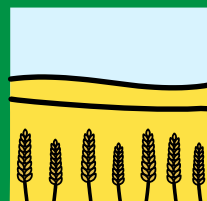

made of

tin

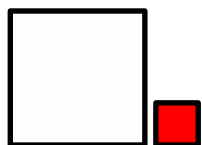

barren

plain

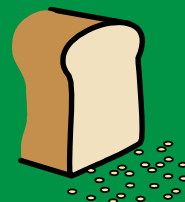

bird

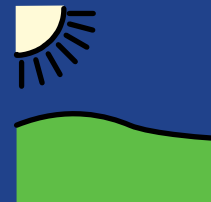

small

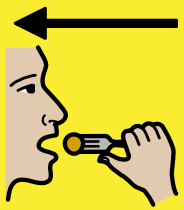

spilled

crumbs

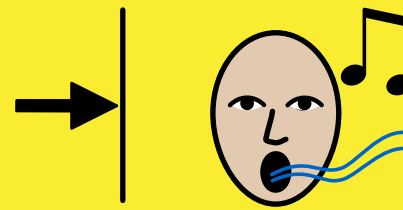

ground

ate

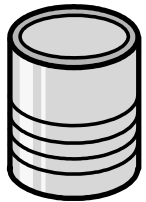

perched

to sing

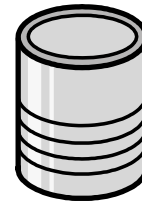

tree

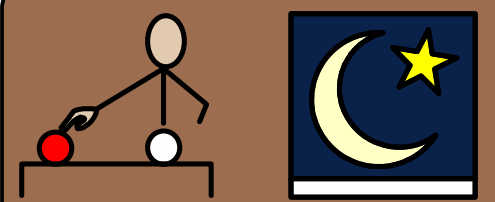

tin

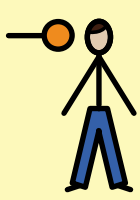

tin

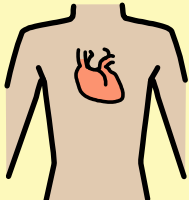

tin

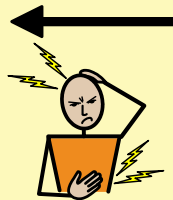

That night,

His

heart

ached

with

emptiness.

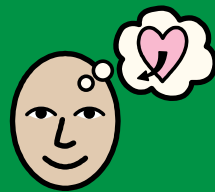

by

moonlight

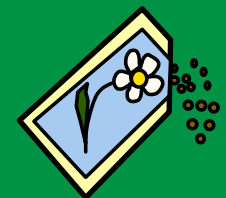

made

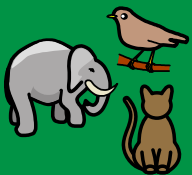

wish

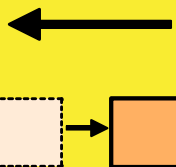

dropped

seeds

creatures

appeared

creeping

in

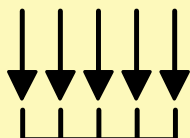

the

shadows

And

every

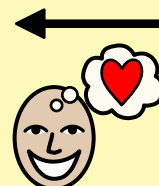

night

the

old man

dreamed.

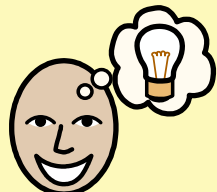

bad

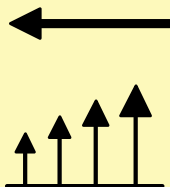

weather

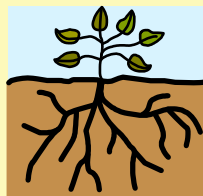

The

idea

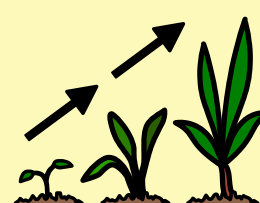

grew

roots

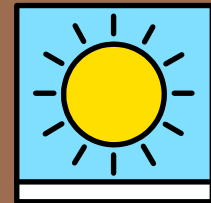

and

sprouted.

1

One

day,

something

caught

the

old man's

eye,

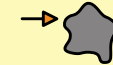

an

idea

planted

itself

in

his

mind.