

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES HELP US BE THE CHANGE!

TO ENGAGE IN VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES WITH WRITING OUR WRONGS, INC., PLEASE VISIT WWW.WRITINGOURWRONGS.ORG/VOLUNTEERS AND CLICK THE VOLUNTEER APPLICATION LINK OR EMAIL US AT INFO@WRITINGOURWRONGS.ORG.

After School Program Volunteers- Collier Park Recreation Center, Atlanta

We are launching our Power of the Pen After School program in Partnership with the City of Atlanta. Volunteers are needed to assist with student writing, speaking and leadership activities.

Program Launch: August 2018/ Duration: 2018-2019 School Year

Available Times: One Day A Week/ 2-hours
Mondays 4:30pm-6:30pm

Development Administrative Support, Atlanta, GA

Our executive staff would love your support around the office! We are in need of assistance with database management, large mailings, answering calls, filing and event support as needed.

Available Times: Mon-Fri 9am-6pm/ Flexible times with remote and onsite work optional

Youth Book Club- Dekalb RYDC Decatur, GA

Share your love of books and literacy with the youth of the Dekalb Regional Youth Detention Center with a Book Club. This group is comprised of young men who are encouraged to read literary works and engage in discussion about the impact of reading and writing on creating change.

Program Launch: June 2018

Available Times: Biweekly/ 1-hour

*Will be subject to additional background screening.

Program Development Volunteers

We are in need of educators and volunteers with a background in English/Language Arts, Creative Writing, and/or Curriculum Development to assist with evaluating student progress, online data base updates and content development.

Available Times: One Day A Week/ 1-hour Days TBD

Volunteer Coordinator

We are looking for a servant leader with great organizational and communication skills to assist with volunteer placement and recruitment. This role is responsible for maintaining volunteer hours, location assignments, intake and orientation.

Available Times: 2-4 hours a week. Remote and onsite as needed.

Board of Directors

We are growing, and we are looking to build our leadership team. Our Board of Directors are skilled professionals and servant leaders who lend their time and resources to carry out the mission of WOW to empower youth to activate their voice through writing and speech, and do so with integrity, commitment and diligence of keeping our bylaws and statutes. We are in need of board members to aid in the growth, development and financial sustainability of our vastly growing grassroots organization.

Must have leadership experience and the availability to chair committees and attend WOW events.

Fundraising/ Donor Relations

Do you have a gift to inspire others to rally around a cause and give? Well, we need you! We are looking for Fundraising Committee Volunteers to help with implementation of the WOW Fundraising Plan and maintain communication with our valued donors. This includes donor software database management and fundraising event planning.

Available Times: Weekly/1-hour with additional time needed for special events.

Program Facilitators

It takes a village to create change, and we are looking for change agents to help facilitate our programs! We need speakers, facilitators and subject matter experts who are passionate about working with youth to facilitate WOW programs and workshops.

Subject Focus Areas:

- Public Speaking
- Media/ Podcasting
- Bloggers
- Writers/Authors
- Journalists
- Government Affairs/ Advocacy

Available Times: Mon-Fri 4pm-7pm. Location TBD

* Writing Our Wrongs, Inc. is a 501c3 that upholds equal opportunity guidelines and serves the interest of our youth. Volunteers must be 17 years of age or older. All volunteers are subject to background screening and must complete volunteer intake before being assigned.