

PRICING REFLECTS:

- High quality Rabbit Pellets ($150 a month)
- Small Pet Select Hay ($250 a month)
- Food bowls/crocks
- Equine Pine Pellets for litter boxes ($50 a month)
- Litter boxes
- Enrichment chews & toys ($150 a month)
- Cages/Enclosures, Xpens
- Electricity used for the bunny room
- Extra trash pickup for used litter ($40 a month)
- Air purifiers & dehumidifiers
- Supplements (apple cider vinegar, whole old-fashioned oats, Dr. Cheeke's YQ+, colloidal silver, benebac probiotics, acid paks, etc.) ($100 a month)
- Investing in quality bunnies to build a certain line
- Transport cost to get bunnies to me (roughly $120 per bunny transported)
- Medications & Preventatives (baby gas drops, critical care, Ivermectin, Terramycin, Toltrazuril 5%, panacur, safeguard, syringes, needles, calcium drench, Blue-Kote, BunnyVac Pasteurella Vaccine) (roughly $400 per year)
- Vet visits & costs (roughly $600-$800 per year)
- Tools for bunny care (brushes, nail clippers, scissors, etc.)
- Cleaner & Disinfectants ($150 per year)
- Miscellaneous supplies (garbage bags, spa liners, dehumidifiers, filters, etc.) ($55 a month)
- Supplies & Items for Go Home Bags/Care Packs

"INVISIBLE" COSTS

*Costs not factored in

- ARBA Membership
- Our website
- Time spent updating websites, social media, responding to messages, texts, phone calls.
- Time spent to socialize and handle bunnies daily
- Time spent researching & sharing info to help bun parents
- Availability to answer question & messages especially in emergency situations & knowledge in what steps to take
- KNOWLEDGE
- Time spent doing chores around the rabbitry, health checks, trimming nails, grooming bunnies, checking teeth, cleaning baby butts, washing dishes, cleaning litter pans, cleaning POOP, etc.
- Medicating/treating bunnies
- Litter training
- Hand raising babies
- Time spent photographing, editing, & posting photos
- Time spent making the care packs for bun families, birth certificates, toys, & treats
- Growing & buying fresh herbs and greens for adult buns
- Snuggling bunnies!

Moonlightbunnyboutique.com