

Raleigh-Wake Chapter

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, INC.

2022 Scholarship Recipients

The Raleigh-Wake Chapter of the NCCU Alumni Association, Inc. is proud to announce its 2022 scholarship award recipients! Each recipient received $1,200. Congratulations to these outstanding students on this soaring honor! EAGLE PRIDE!!!

Naresh Bharathy

Naresh is a Magna Cum Laude graduate from Wake County's Green Hope High School, in Cary, NC. Besides being an academically outstanding student, Naresh is an excellent tennis player and served as Captain of his school's tennis team. This future doctor and future "World Number 1" tennis player has committed his talents to NCCU and joins the tennis team this fall.

Mikyua Braswell

Mikyua is an NCCU legacy who graduated with honors from Millbrook High School in Raleigh, NC. She was a standout athlete at her school and was recognized as the Tatum-Atkinson Scholar-Athlete of the Week—an honor she was unaware she was nominated for. Though an excellent basketball player, Mikyua wants to kick start her Sports Therapist career by serving as a Student Trainer assisting Central's sports teams.

Jabari Robinson

Jabari, also an NCCU legacy, is a graduate of Raleigh's Millbrook High School. Graduating with academic honors, Jabari has a refreshing and charismatic presence which will serve him well towards his goal of becoming an on-air personality. Jabari's interests range from Fashion to technology and graphic design to community involvement. The references of this future Broadcast Journalist describes him as a confident, talented, natural born leader.

NCCU Raleigh-Wake Alumni Scholarship Committee 2021-2022

Brenda Lewis (chairperson), Dixie Lee Newsome, Zeely Taylor, and Betty Yancey

Truth & Service

