

ArtWalksCLT

A Scavenger Hunt for NoDa Street Art

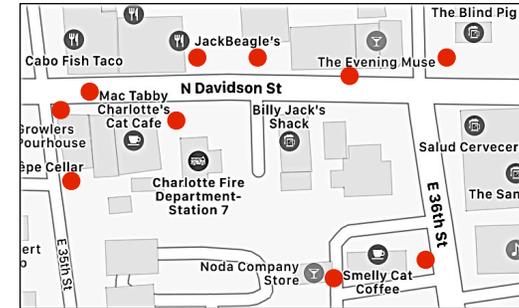

Here are clues for 10 pieces of NoDa street art. Read the clue and use the map to locate the artwork that fits the clue. As you go along, if you need more information access the NoDa Family Scavenger Hunt at www.artwalksCLT.com. Tag us with any fun photos or comments @artwalksclt on Instagram.

9. Find the artwork which has a spool of thread and an artist's hand which are larger than life, meaning that they are painted much bigger than they really should be. You can see the history of NoDa from left to right in this mural by @redcalacastudio.

10. I have a long snout and two ivory tusks and sometimes I am viewed as a symbol of power and strength. What am I? _____ Find part of me in a mural. Create a new animal by combining one animal's body with the legs or arms of another animal. Draw your creation.

1. A profile is a view of the side of someone's face. Find the mural by @napoletanoart with a large profile of a woman's face. Now take a photograph or draw the profile of someone you are with today.

2. Find the wall poem (a poem on a wall). Solve the word scramble for the two words in the poem.

A C E O N

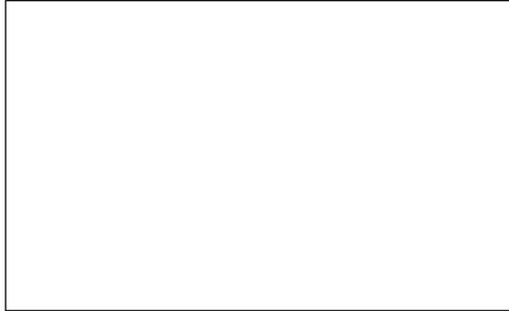

_____ and _____

ArtWalksCLT connects you to local public art and artists through short self-guided neighborhood artwalks.

www.ArtWalksCLT.com
info@ArtWalksCLT.com

3. I am a symbol for Charlotte, the Queen City. What am I? _____. Find me in a mural by @osirisrain that also has letters spelling out Charlotte included in the background. Draw a creative version of the symbol of Charlotte.

4. Do you decorate your trash cans? Find the dumpster that has been turned into art by @osirisrain and @poetwastaken. What kind of flowers do you see on the dumpster?

5. I am very tall, sit on legs and hold a lot of water. What am I? _____. I am in a mural with 274 people. Find me. Artist @mr_puckett painted 274 community members in this mural. Find one that is doing something you would like to do.

6. I am a type of flower that grows in the water and mud and can live for up to 1000 years. But in NoDa I am in a community mural painted on the street. What kind of flower am I?

Hint: Unscramble these letters: U S O L T

7. This mural by @hookermedia and @puckmcgruff tells the story of NoDa with American Revolutionary heroes, Highland Mill No. 3, and a burglar running off with a neighbor's chicken in all grey-scale tones.

8. I am a cat wearing a sweater. But I am also a bike rack and a sculpture by @theronross. What geometric shapes do you see in me?