From the President

I am pleased to report on a couple positive developments this month. First, the Lecture Series DVD's are now completed and available to ship or pick up at the museum. Each Lecture is professionally packaged and the content is excellent educational material. The four lectures from 2012 are:

- Warships on the St. Clair River by Artist/Historian: Peter Rindlisbacher.
- TASHMOO the Park and Steamer by Author/Historian: Arthur Woodford.
- Fate of the Steamer Key Stone State by Artist/Historian: Robert McGreevy.
- Committed to the Deep by Senior Curator, Detroit Historical Society: Joel Stone.

The 2011 lecture, The Night the Fitz Went Down by Captain Donald Erickson and Mac McAdam is also available.

Go to the website and take advantage of the Special Offer... that has been extended to December 15.

Second, your board has made a Grant Application to the Community Foundation of St. Clair County and The Society has been invited to make a presentation to the Foundations Grants Committee on November 28. This should have happened before you read this message and if the Grants Committee deems our request worthy, they will invite us to present to their Board of Directors on December 11.

I am also very happy to report that Michele Komar and her crashed computer are now back on-line and this issue of The Society Pages is being created and edited by Michele. If you have not sent her a Thank You note for her dedication and hard work, I would personally appreciate it if you would take a minute to do so. This newsletter is a top drawer publication that should make our members proud. Please direct your appreciation to Michele at: michelekomar@gmail.com or PO Box 44, HI, MI 48028. (Editor's Note: Thank You for all the wonderful notes I have received so far!)
