

ECOC, Inc. invites you to attend:

DIVERSITY UNIVERSITY
July 23-27, 2018
Pikes Peak Community College
Centennial Campus
8am to 4:30

The purpose of this institute is to improve the ability of professionals and the community to respond to the needs of a culturally diverse population.

The week-long Diversity University is free to all participants, but requires a commitment for the full week. Participants may obtain 2.5 hours of graduate credit from Adams State University at a cost of $137.50.

Testimonials:

"Was it worth it? Words are inadequate to describe this experience. Not easy to go thru emotionally, but outstanding presentation. Transforming."

"To be bold, take opportunities where they are, to plant the seeds of kindness and change. I can't even put into words the change that has come over me this week. I came expecting to be 'taught' how to teach others. What I got was a lesson on me. I have found myself, my spark, my inspiration to draw from. Who I am, where I've been and where I'm going. Realizing how I can be a force for change from within to make a difference in the hearts and minds of those around me."

For more information or to reserve a space in 2018, please contact:

Regina Walter regina.walter@judicial.state.co.us

719-640-6633

<http://educatingchildrenofcolor.org>
info@educatingchildrenofcolor.org